THE PROMISES

The sun is setting on one of our vast horizon but has only started to rise on another
For tomorrow has begun only yesterday
When your 'promises' had emerged fr within.

For a handful, these 'promises' sh but for the most, they will not to give is only to gain,
So, give yourself a chance to fulfill them.

In the long run you shall by opening your eyes to the sun . . . the one rising,
For the one setting does not hold "Promises
of Tomorrow",
It only holds memories of yesterday.

- Diane Patterson -

OF TOMORROW

Yesterday is already a dream,
And tomorrow is only a vision;
But today, well lived,
makes every yesterday
A dream of happiness and every hope . . . .
A Promise of Tomorrow.

IS THERE LIFE

As a sophomore looking ahead,
I wondered where I was going.
Crowded hallways filled the school.
Loneliness sat in the pit of my stomach.
All of those big juniors and God-Almighty Seniors,
Pushing, shoving, tripping.
I felt as if I were a tiny grain of sand
In the hourglass of life.
Ridiculed beyond fun,
Bewildered beyond compare.
I kept asking of myself
What was I doing there?
The contempt I felt for my 'elders',
Who ignored me worst of all,
Was steadily increasing.
I couldn't wait for Fall.
I was now a junior,
In the middle of the road.
Only one more year,
But could I stand the load?
Dances and parties came and went.
The thought of getting out at one o'clock, not three.
I was no longer treated like a 'kid',
Some life was finally centering around me!
At long last came summer vacation,
A job from nine to five.
Then sorrow at seeing the good old days gone.
Back again, for my last year at Annapolis High.
As I look back on all I've done,
And at all that's been done to me,
I, too, am having the same fun
The seniors before me had.
The teasing was done with a light heart, I now realize,
Just to show the 'kids' who's boss.
I now look back on the past three years
As an experience, rather than a loss.
And now I wonder,
Is there life after high school?

-Michele McLachlan
"Class of '78"

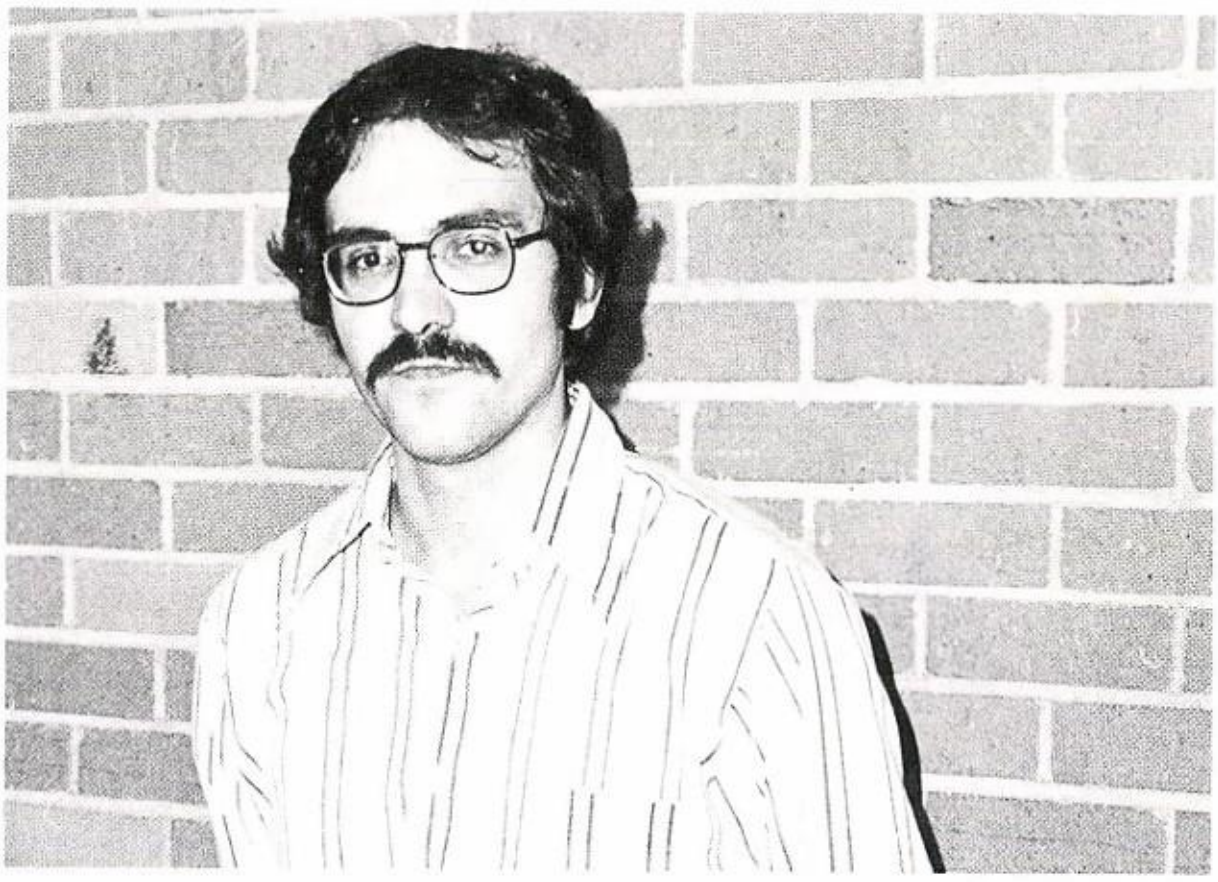
AFTER HIGH SCHOOL

Preparations Are Not In

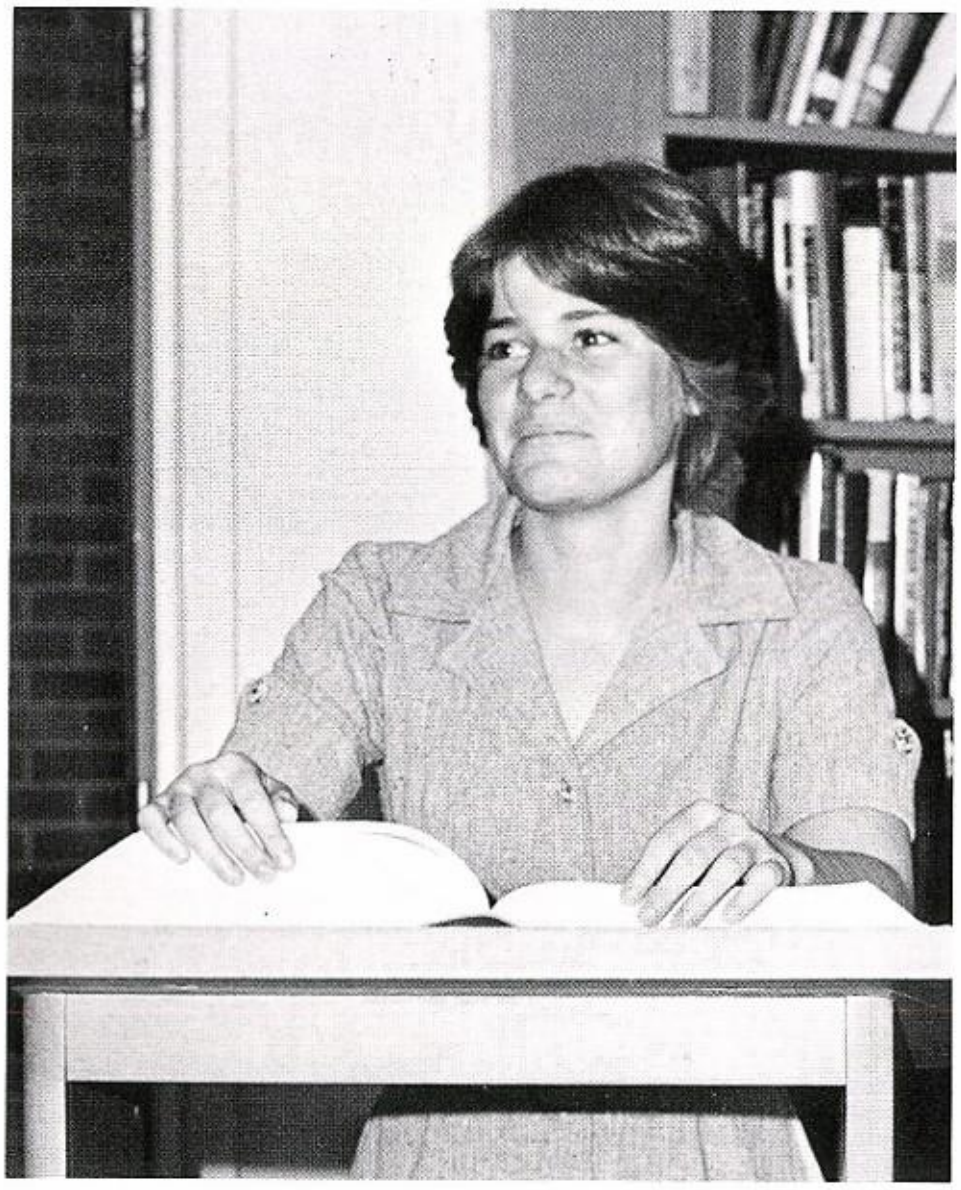
The Seniors started off the year by constructing a float for the Homecoming Parade. The float was one of the parades' main attractions. It was the Walt Disney's one and only Cinderella's Castle and it looked great!

The Seniors had some excellent fund raising projects. They sold cider and donuts at home football games and sold candy at home basketball games.

The Graduating Class of "78" plan on taking a cruise for their Senior class trip during Easter vacation. The Seniors are enjoying themselves by having a great year.



MR. TONY SCALZI, keeps busy as sponsor of the Senior Class but also with his new little girl, Katie.



KAREN SCOTT, Senior Class Vice President, is also a member of National Honor Society.

VICKIE DEMARCO, Senior Class Treasurer, also participates on the Drill Team.

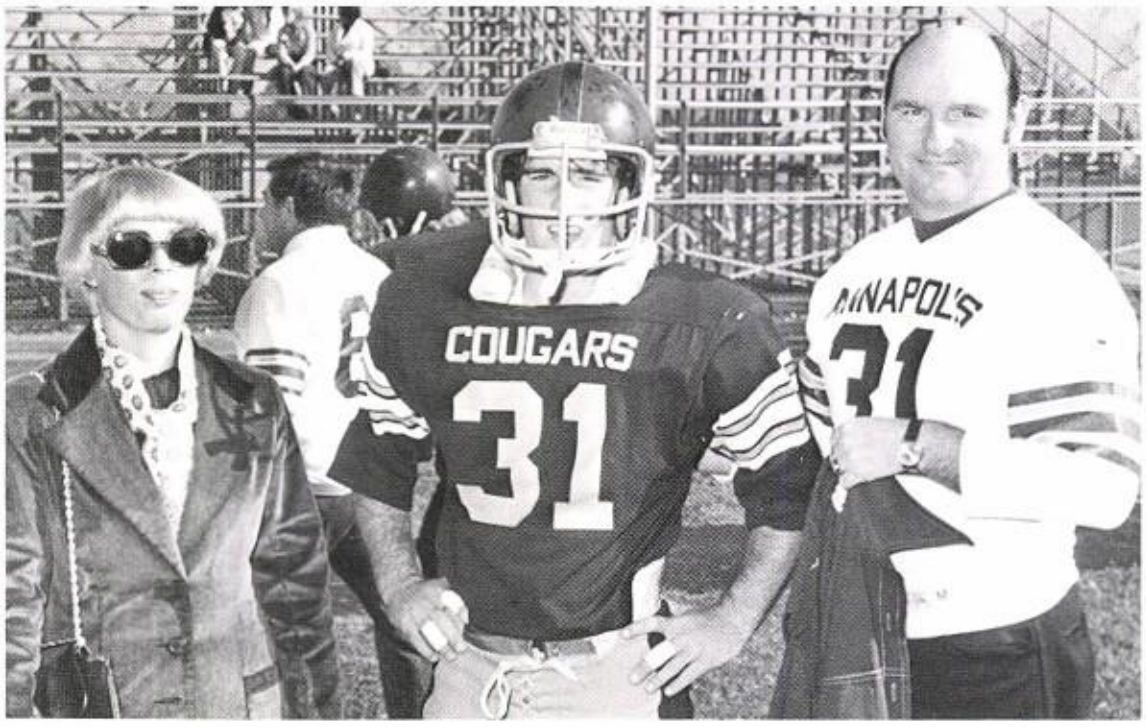
Seniors Explore The Carribean



Senior, Paul Croteau and his parents await the kickoff of the football game.

MELISSA RAMIREZ, a member of the Publications Class, types a memo for the class.

The senior trip was an exotic one. About twenty individuals had the fortune to go on a cruise in the Caribean. The trip included three days and nights in Orlando. One of those three days was spent at Disney World. The remainder of the trip was on the ship, Emerald Seas. The port of calls included Freeport and Nassau.

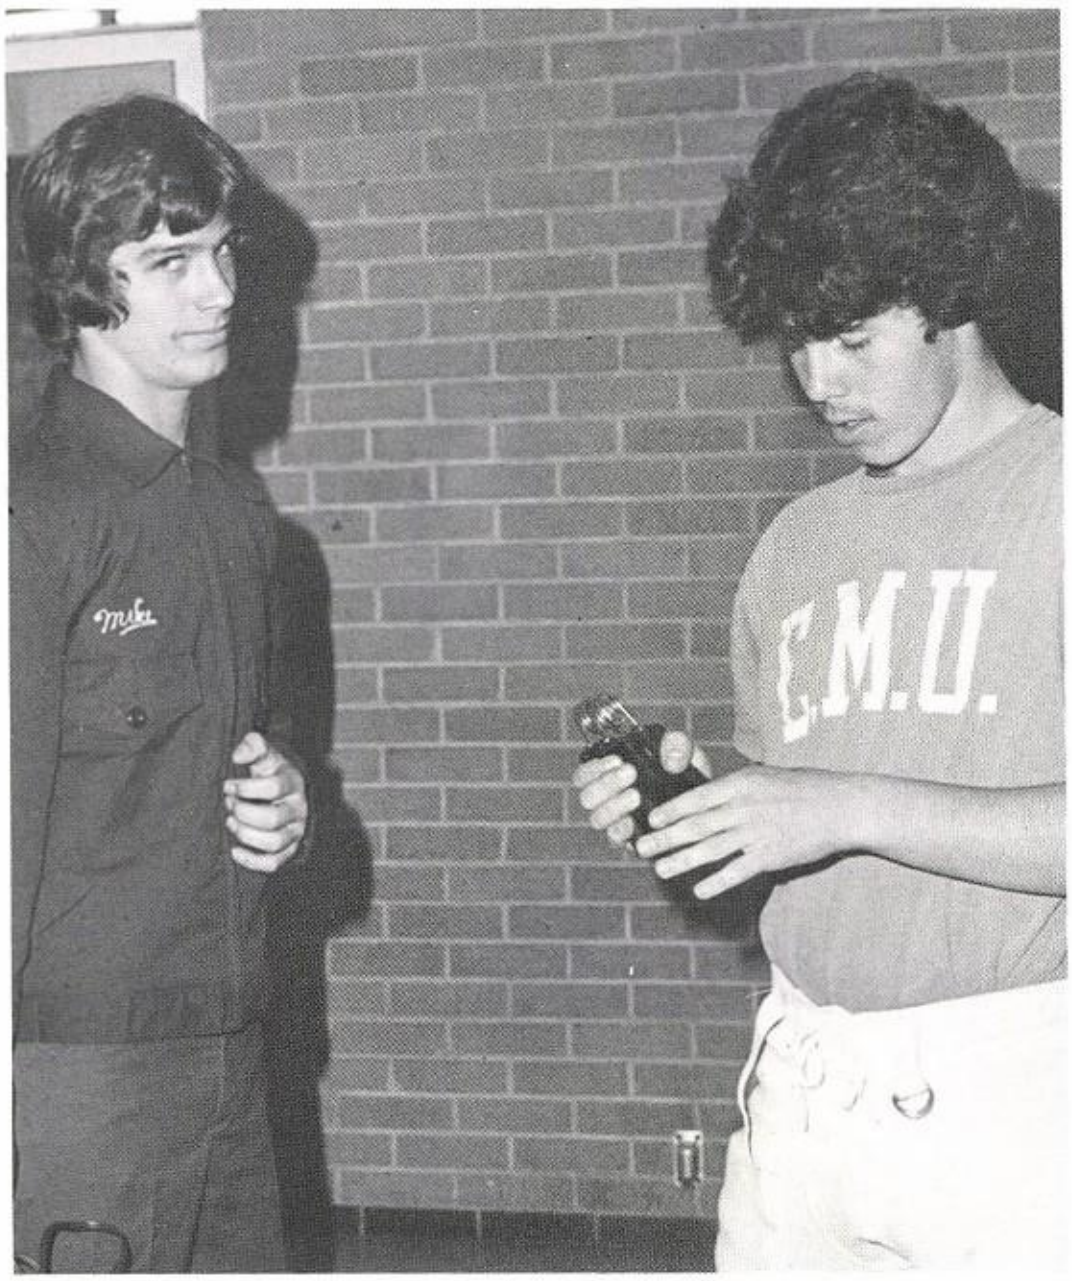
SHARON WALCZAK and EILEEN YORK discuss their love life during gym.

Editor of the school newspaper, Terri Kurpieski, revises her notes for a Student Council meeting.



State wrestling champ Mike Hindmarsh and junior Ken Zapp practice hard for their meets and tournaments.

DON TURBIN, all-city defensive end, makes his way through the busy halls.

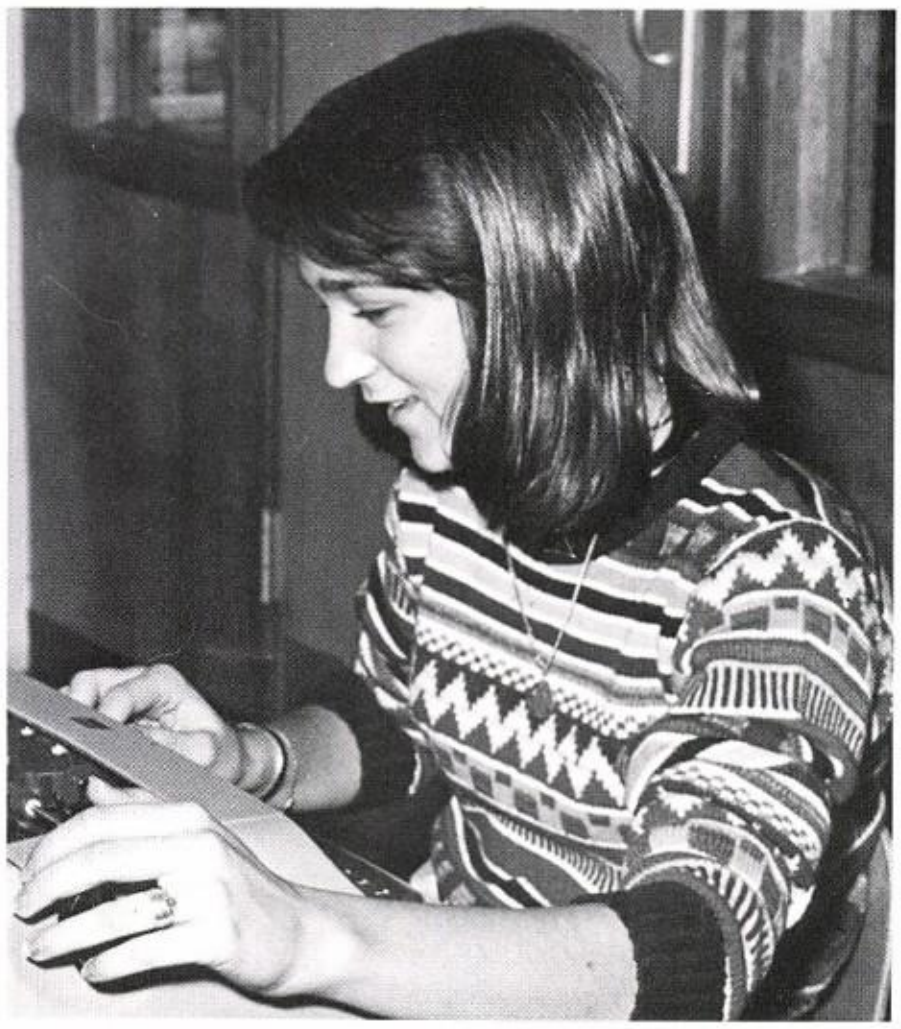
Working For A Better Future

With the final shot of the gun, a thing of the past: six All-City football players; Paul Croteau, Tony Marijanovich, Dave Morgan, Frank Price, Tim St. Andrew, and Don Turbin can relate back satisfied!

MR. DAVE LANGDON shows Keith Stennett proper lathe adjustment.

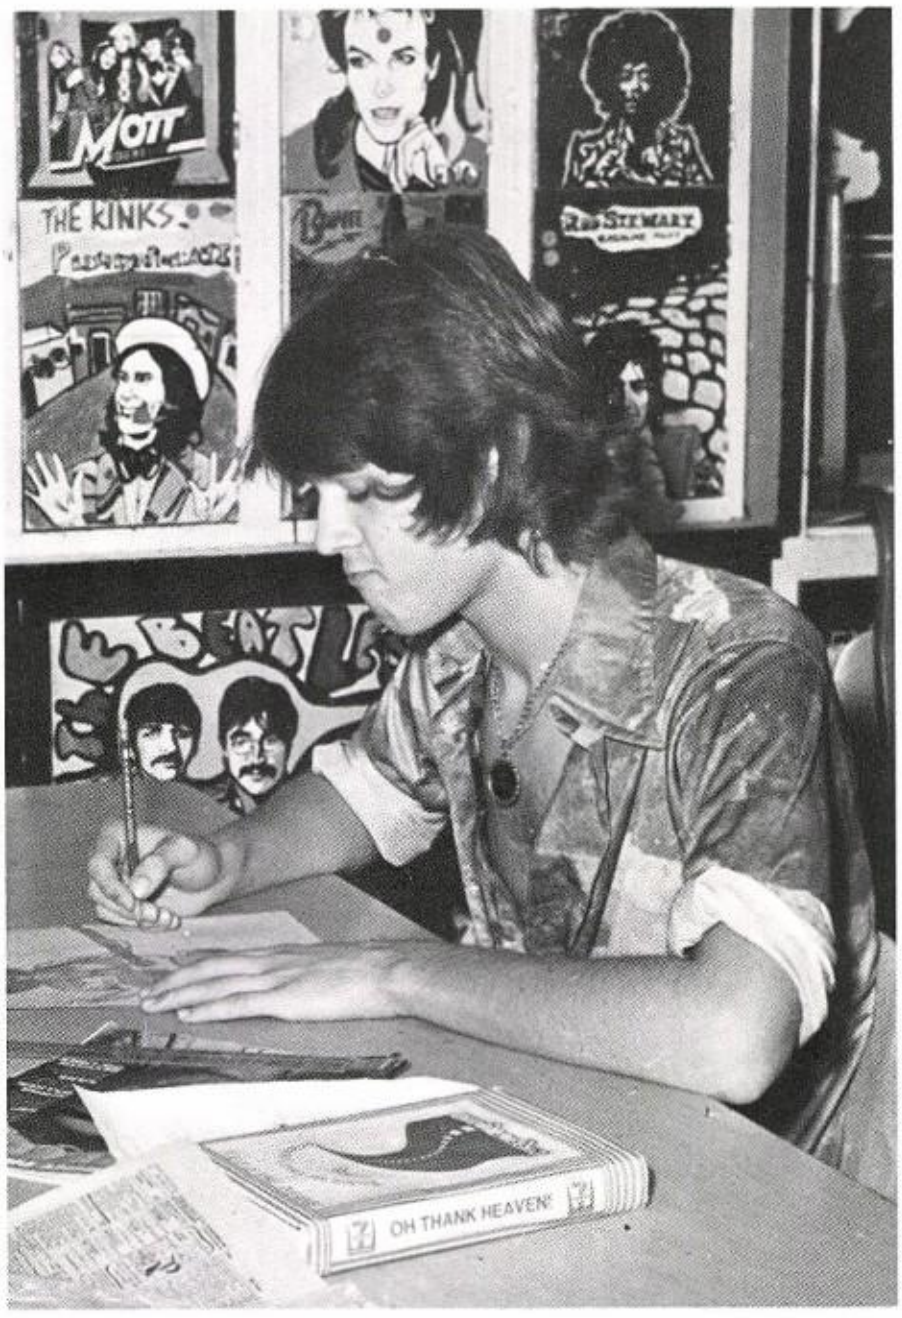
Pulling out the plugs from his V-8 engine is senior Tim Rice.

TODD HITSMAN and TAMMY REYNOLDS scramble eggs in advanced foods.



Preparing her paper for a letter assignment is Janet Marx.

Architectural student, Rudy Tamborino lays out his floor plan.



There is no limit to the imagination of art student Craig Papp.

RON HARRISON and DARREL WILLMS work with lab tubes in electricity.

Seniors Enjoy Extra Activity Classes

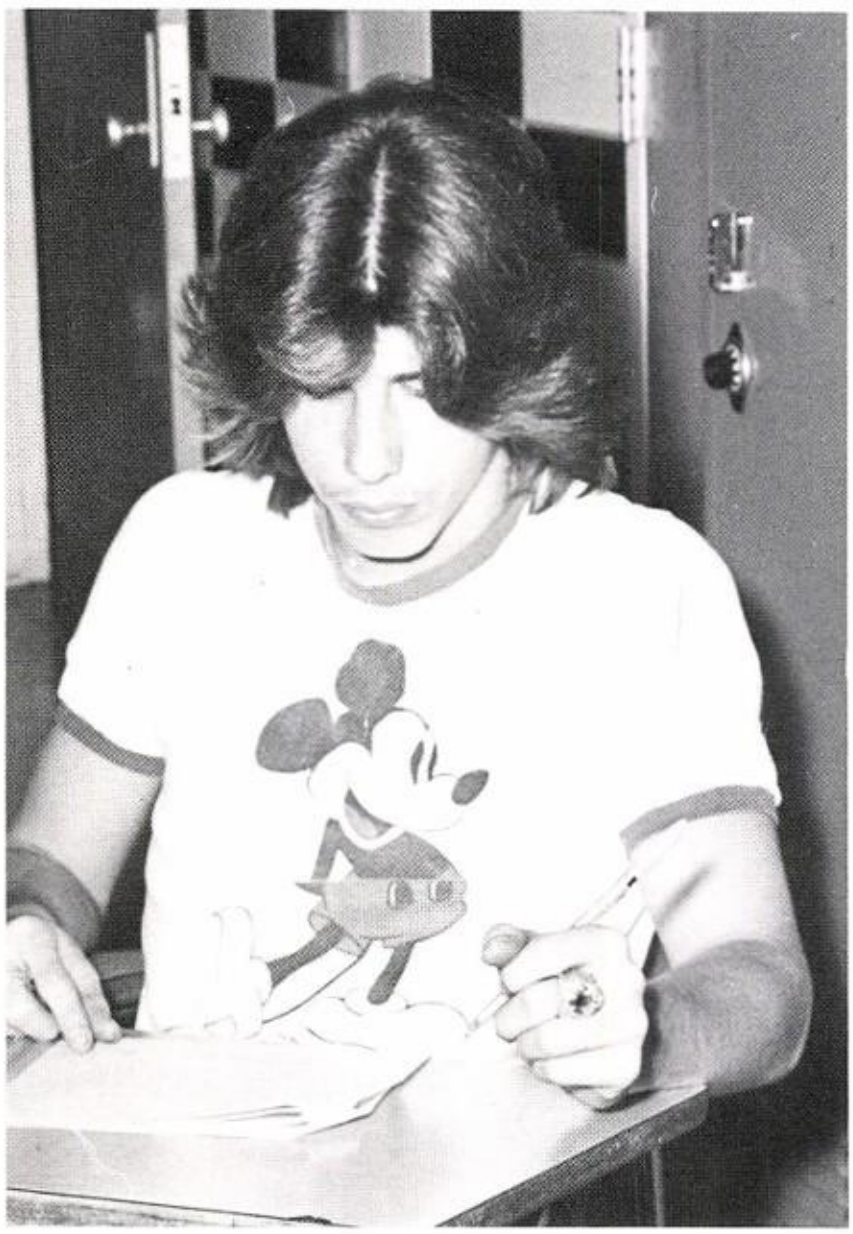
There are a great number of extra activities available for seniors. Some are chosen as electives; others are extracurricular activities such as Drill Team, Debate Team, and Ski Club.

We have English activity classes, such as Publications and Newspaper; and also History and Homemaking electives. There are fine arts electives and shop classes.

LYNN PRINTISS, also photographer on yearbook staff, hangs posters for counselors.

LORI SWAIN smells something burning in beginning cooking.

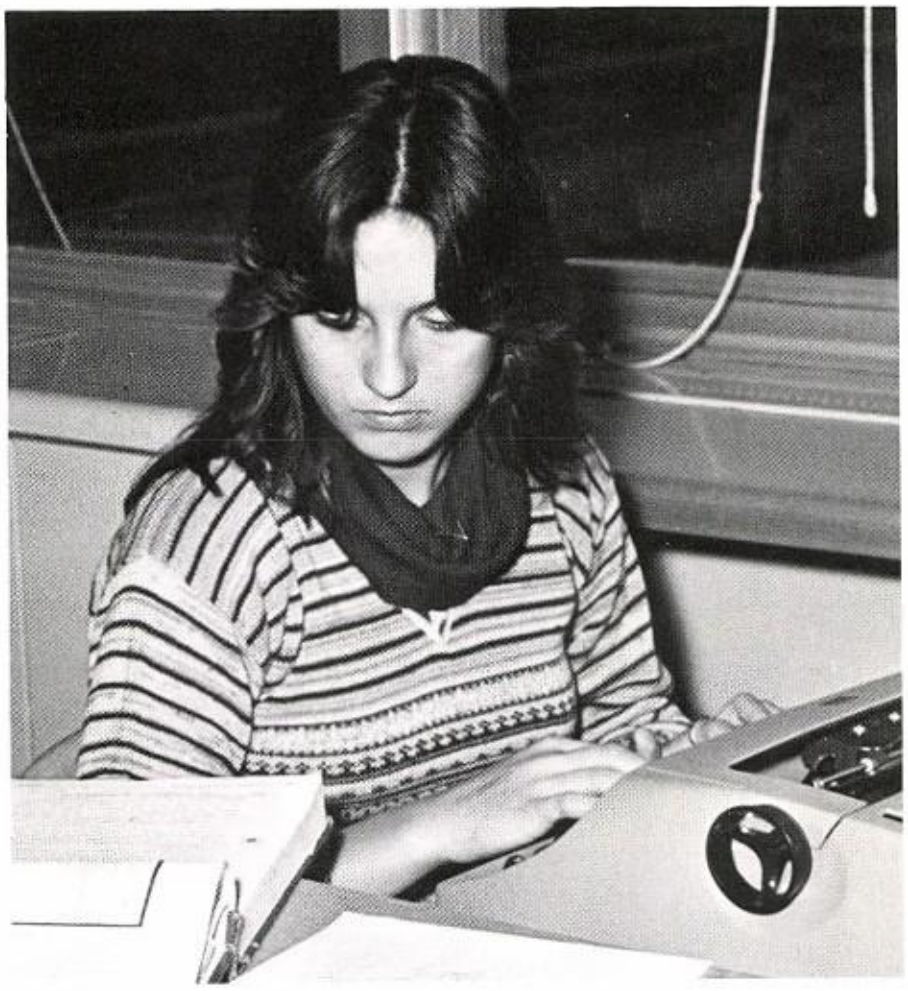
TOM LICHTNER applys full concentration when working on the lathe in metal shop.



JIM CONNETT, also a gym assistant, concentrates on his final exam.

PAM FALKIEWICZ enjoys knitting baby booties to add to her hope chest.

PAUL CROTEAU pins on a Senior Pride badge before the pep rally.



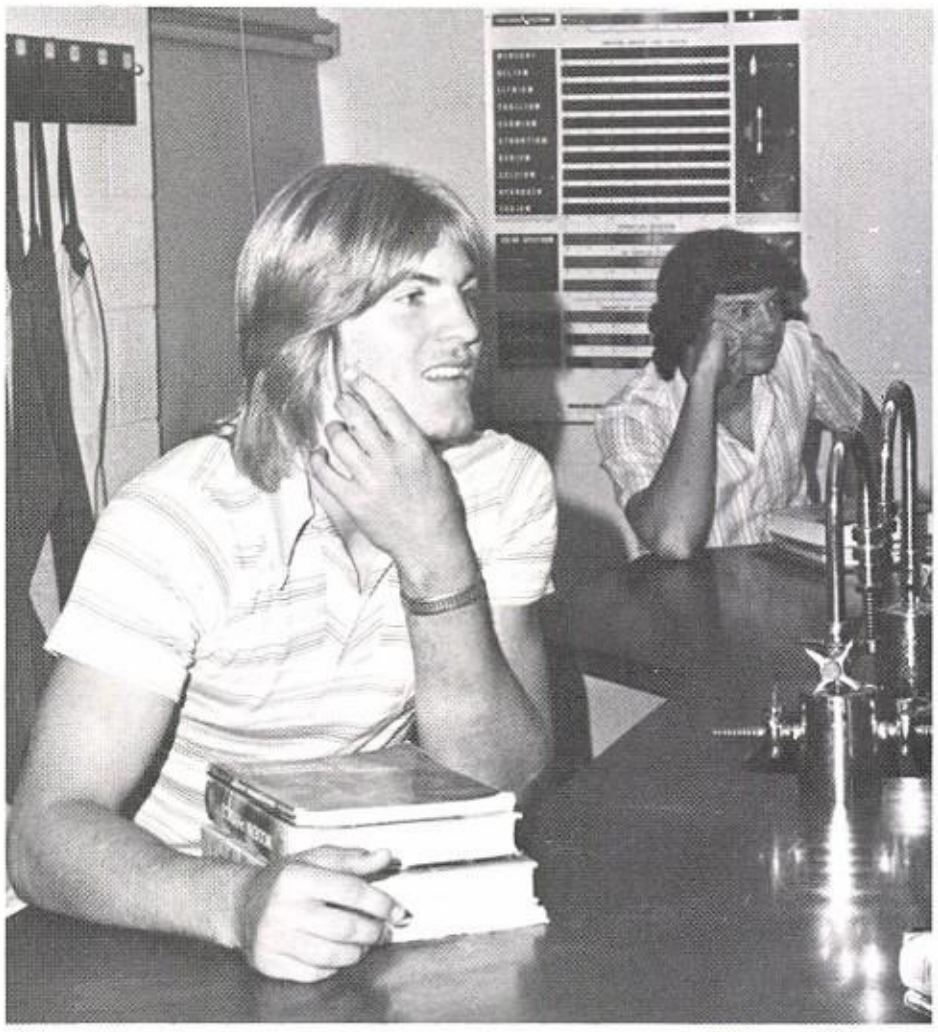
JOAN WINT, also interested in nurses aid, develops her typing skills to the fullest.

MICHELE MCLACHLAN, who is also into the Drama Club, looks for music for the next song.

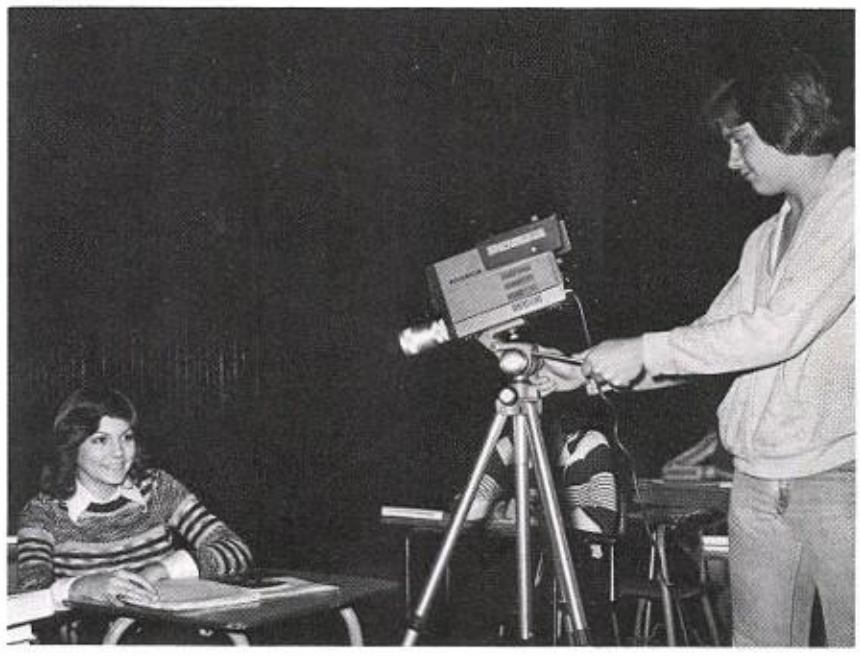
BARB LOCHRIDGE, who is also on the Drill Team, calls her father for a friendly chat.

A Year Of Experience

Our seniors proved to be a great asset to our school system many times over. Helping in many ways and overwhelming participation stands out as proof for this. Also special moments through the year like finishing of the homecoming float and the whole homecoming festivities are moments to be cherished for years to come. It was a wonderful year to remember and a beautiful experience to learn by.



Two most promising students, Mike Berro and Rick Fite, listen for instructions to a physics experiment.



Public speaking student, Jim Qualls, aims his sights at a pleasing target in Geri Nicholson.

During shortand class Donna Tomaszewski, Shirley Rogers, and Pat Witte work hard to maintain their grades.

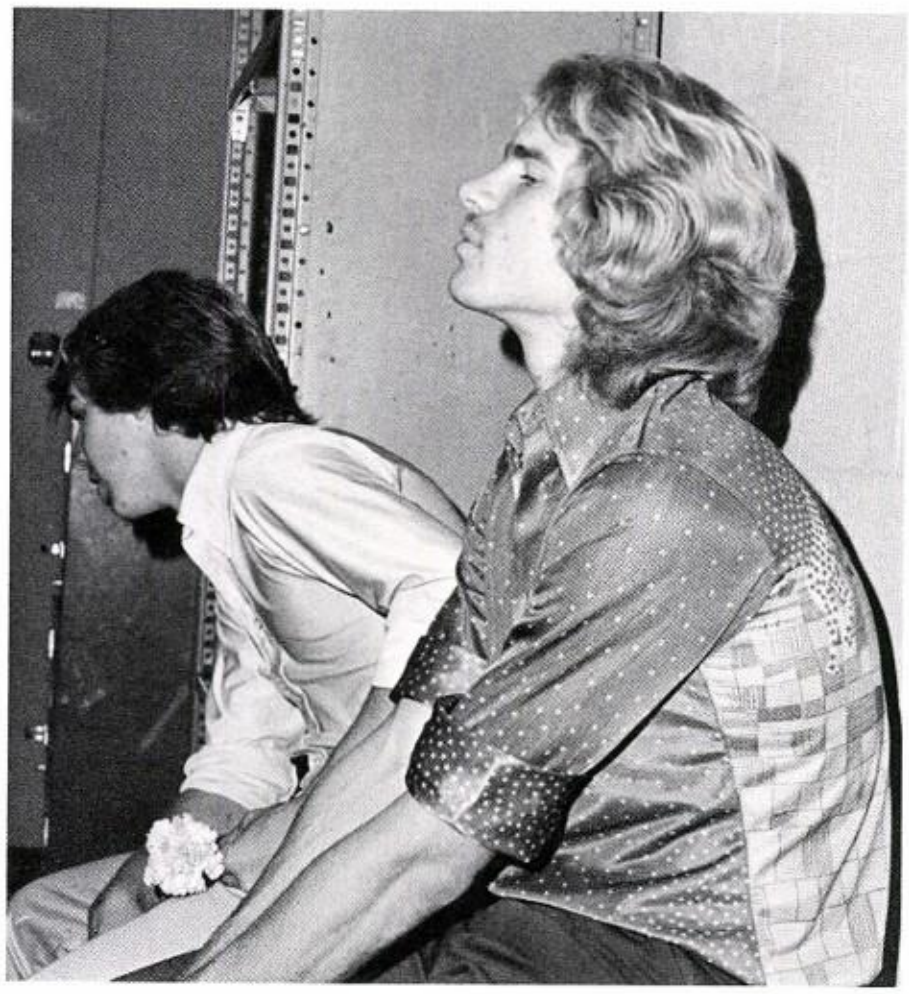
Togetherness Is Shown In

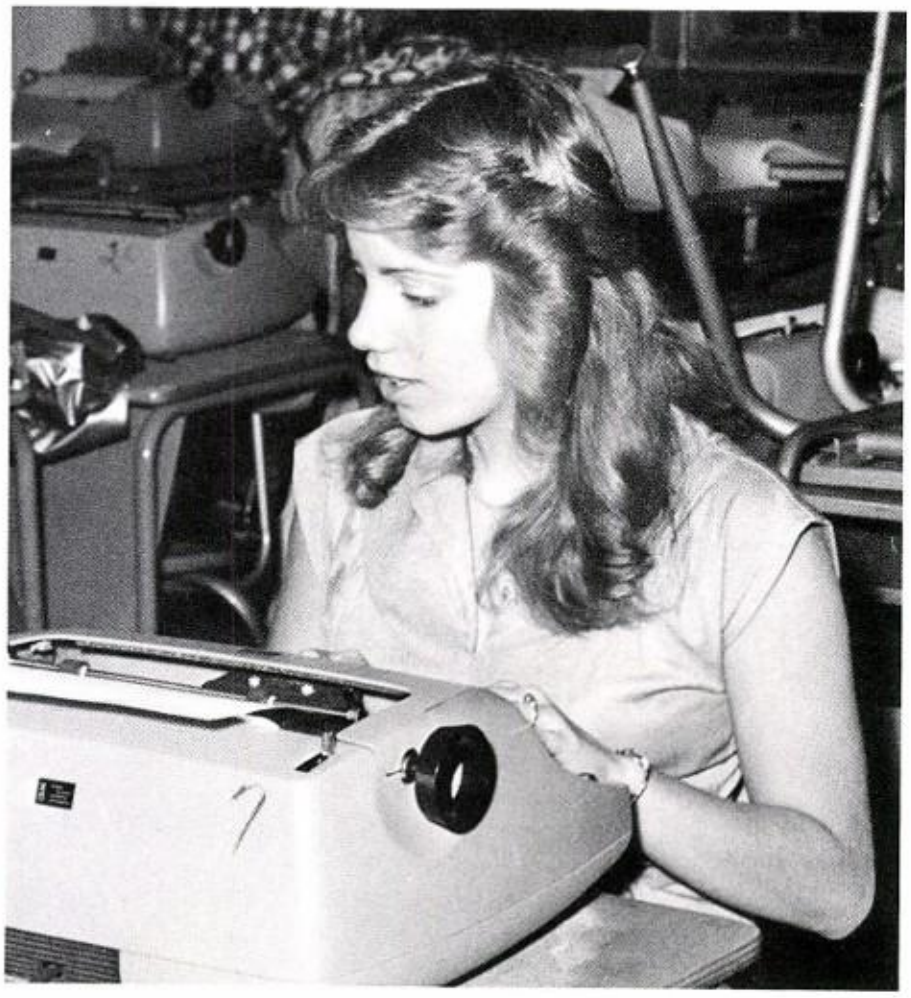
Our togetherness and pride is shown through the eighteen seniors on the Varsity Football team, not only on the field but also in the classroom. There are six of our seniors that made the All-League team and two of them made both offense and defense. Nothing is done by an individual; it takes a team or a group and that is how things get done right . . . TOGETHERNESS.

Three of the Drill Team members, Renee Evans, Barb Lochridge and Pat Lary, get ready for practice.



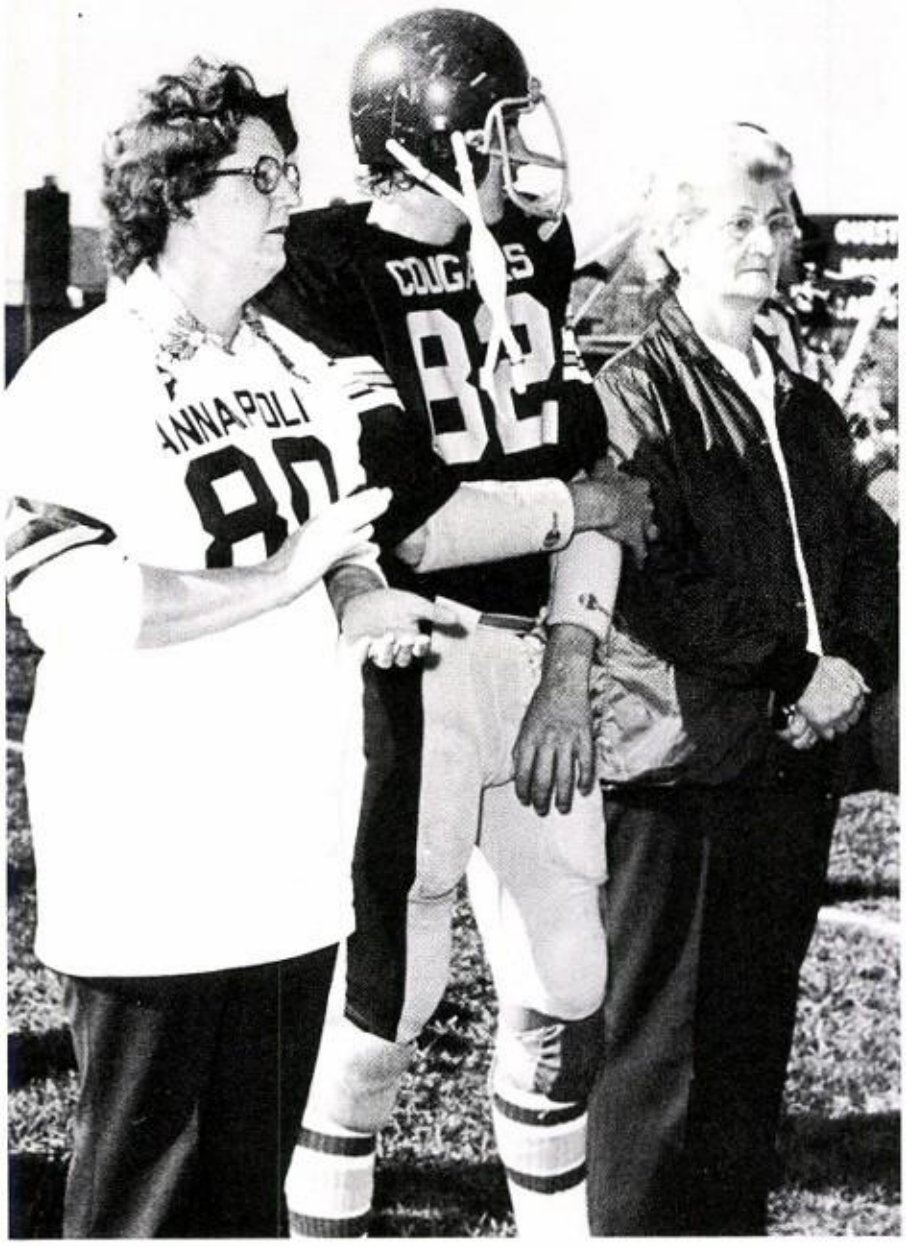
Showing deep thought is Tony Marijanovich as 'Fritz' (Kelly Gilbert) thanks someone for a carnation.

Discussing food costs is Melissa Ramirez and 'Elmo' (Don Turbin).

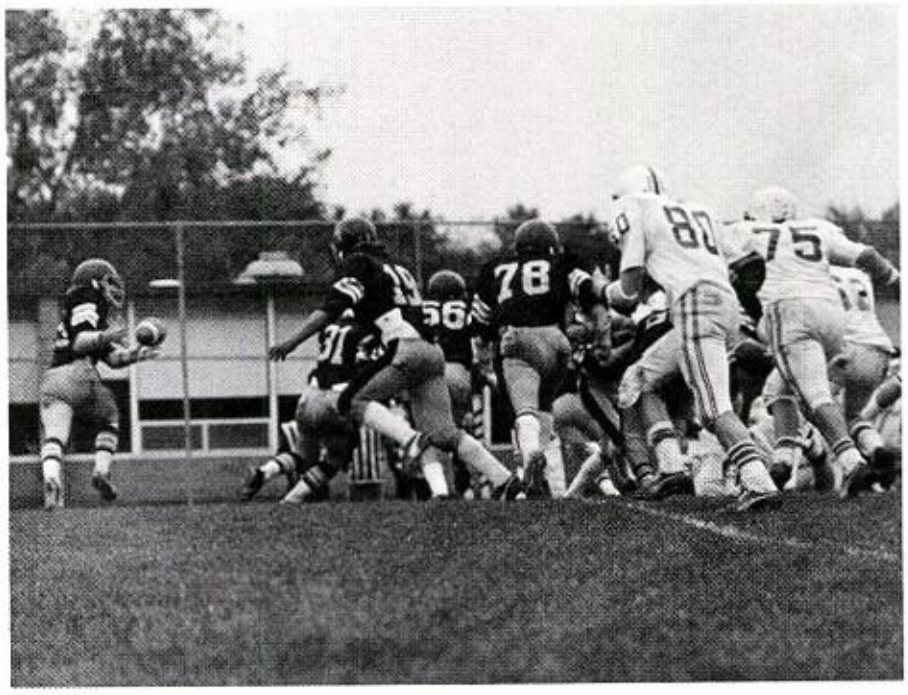


In typing class, Cindy Snyder is busy on her practice workbook.

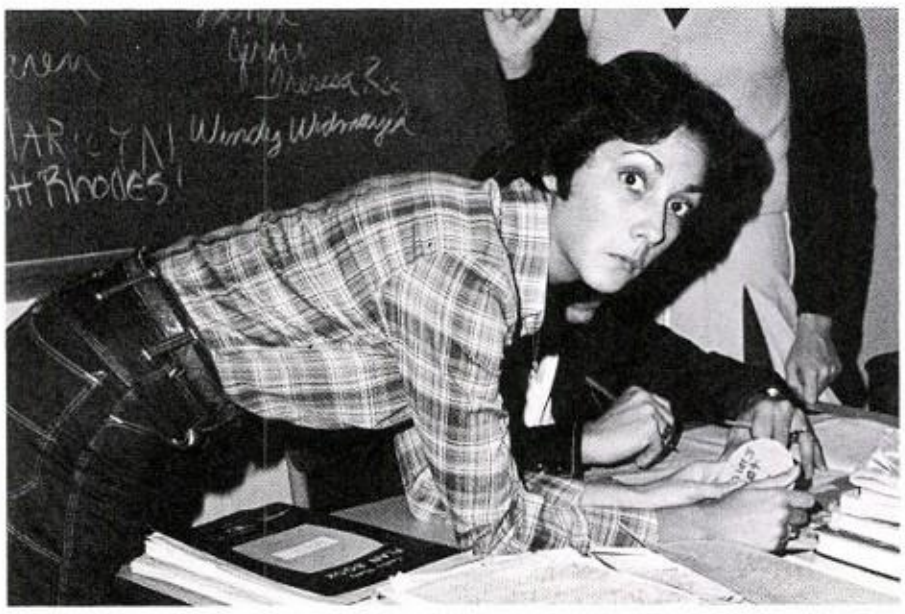
Many Ways On Different Projects



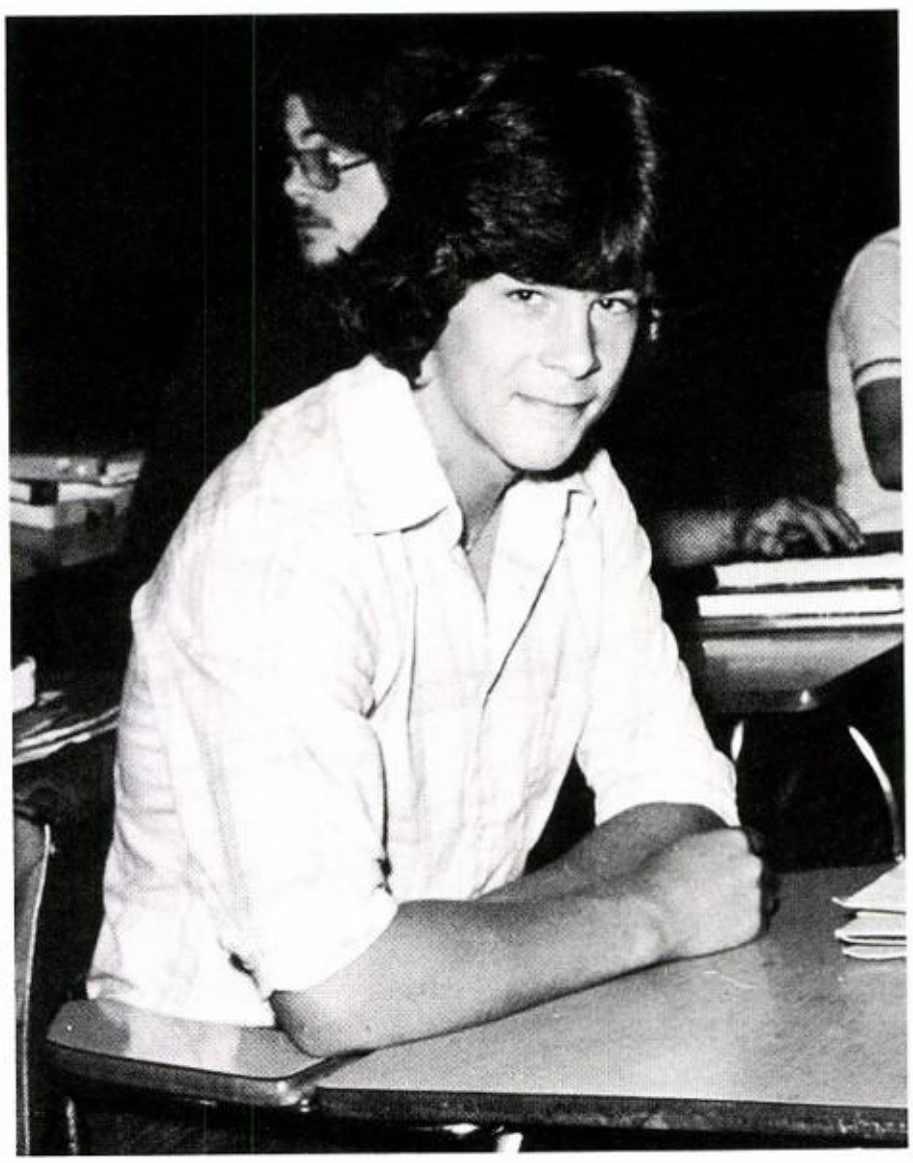
On Parents' Day, the last home game for seniors, Tim St. Andrews is introduced with his mother and grandmother.



'Hangnail' (TONY MARIJANOVICH) (25) receives the pitch from 'Big Lou' (Brian Lagerstrom) (19) as 'Oompa' (Paul Croteau) (31) and 'Affa' (Dave Morgan) (78) provide the blocking.



Getting help from Mr. Goncharoff, is Paula Korejwo. With his assistance, she prepares her Publications pages correctly.



Concentrating on his school work, Brian Lagerstrom thinks about the upcoming demonstration speech he must prepare for Mr. Nanni.

Seniors Keep Busy With School, Club Activities,

Scan your eyes around the school. Everywhere you look, there seems to be a senior deep in thought, concentrating diligently on their work. This shows that they are all . . .

Eager to learn so they will be sufficiently prepared for their future. Experience is also a necessary aspect required for their success. Needless to say, our seniors . . .

Are young but still have acquired this knowledge. No one knows what the days after graduation will hold for them but they are sure to be ready for the path ahead.

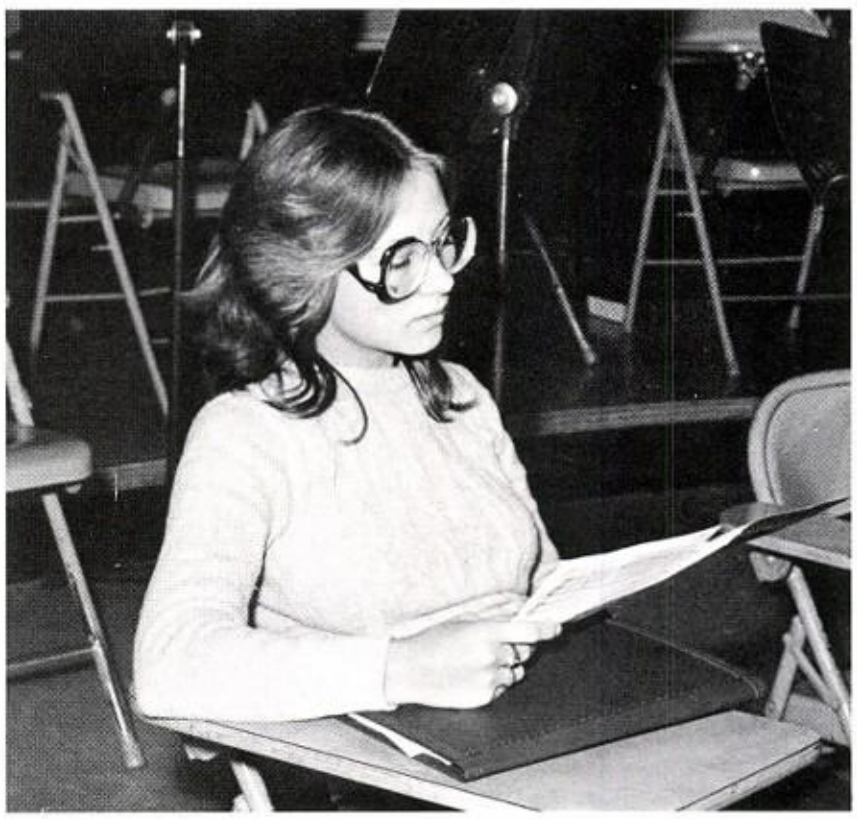
Activities Are Many For Seniors

The Class of 1978 began its activities in the summer of 1977. This is when the plans for the Homecoming float were put into action. The seniors sold donuts and cider at the football games. They are now planning the senior trip on a Caribbean Cruise at Easter.



VICKY HAWKINS takes a breather after an hour of choir.

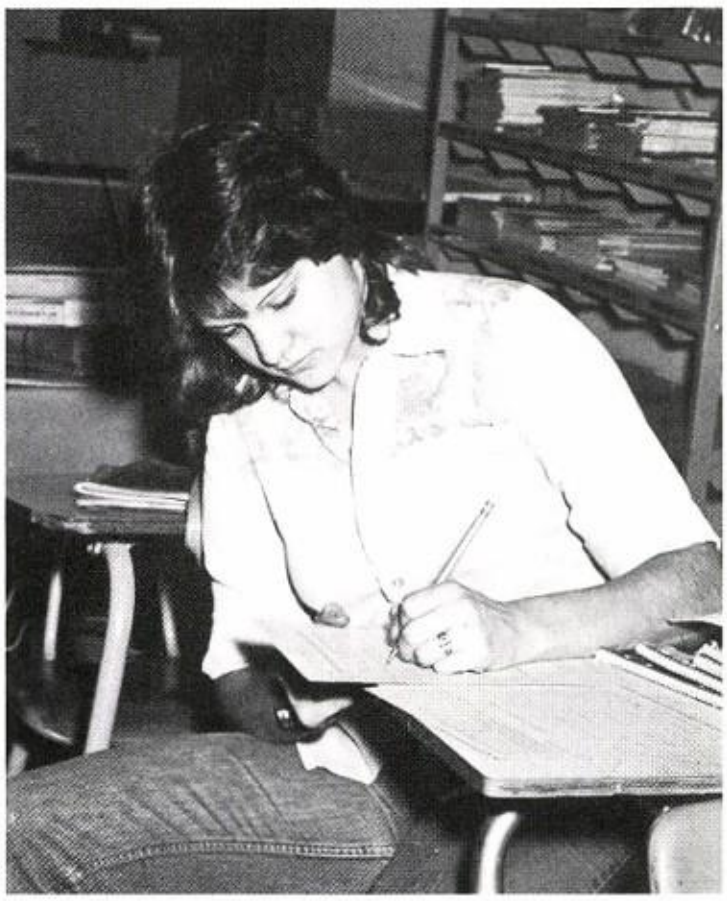
RUSSELL CAGLE helps in keeping the print shop clean.



DEBBIE WALES completes her written book work for printing class.

Reflections On Past Three Years

Looking back at the past three years, the senior class shared times of laughter, times of excitement, and times of sadness. The sweet taste of victory was captured by many athletes and many scholars. Mike Hindmarsh's grasping of the State Wrestling Title was one such example. The bitter disappointment of defeat was evident through failures in classes and losses in the athletic arena. The faces seen here capture such moments.

BRIAN LAGERSTROM runs an option to tailback Rick Simms against the Woodhaven Warriors.

Stimulate Insight Into Future

Senior Michele Kochoff questions Linda Mikulak in the senior skit.

With more laughter than sadness, more victories than defeats, the Seniors have paved the way for others to surpass them. It was a new experience three years ago, but now, when all is said and done, The Promise of Tomorrow lies in the future.

Senior Tony Marijanovich shows his outdoor spirit by feeding the ducks at Dodge State Park.

Outdoorsmen Kelly Gilbert gives a demonstration on how to pitch a tent the right way.

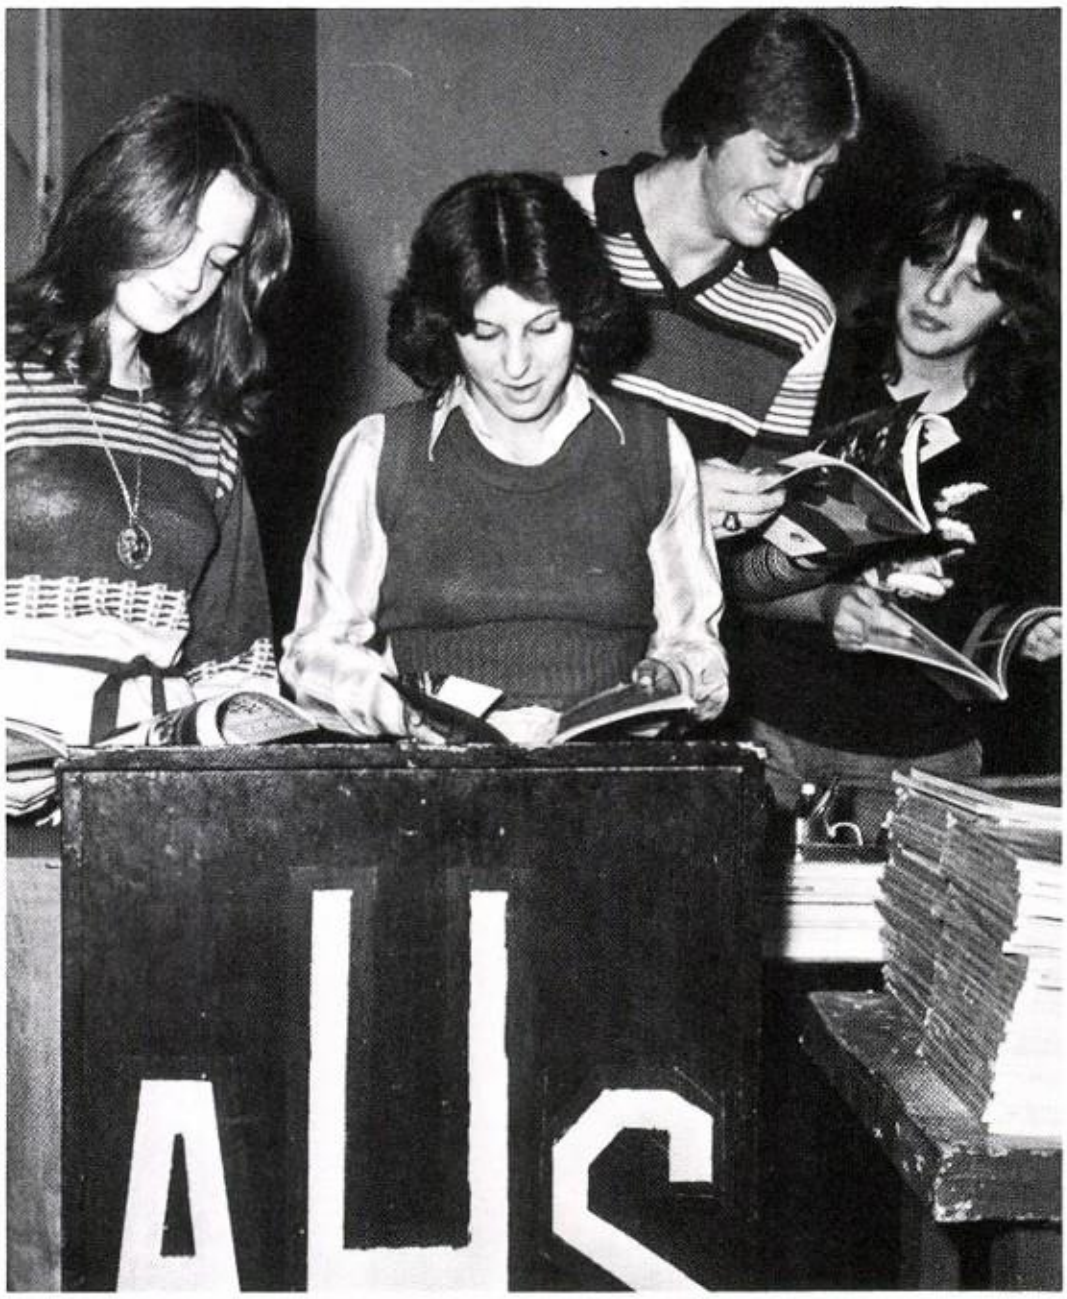
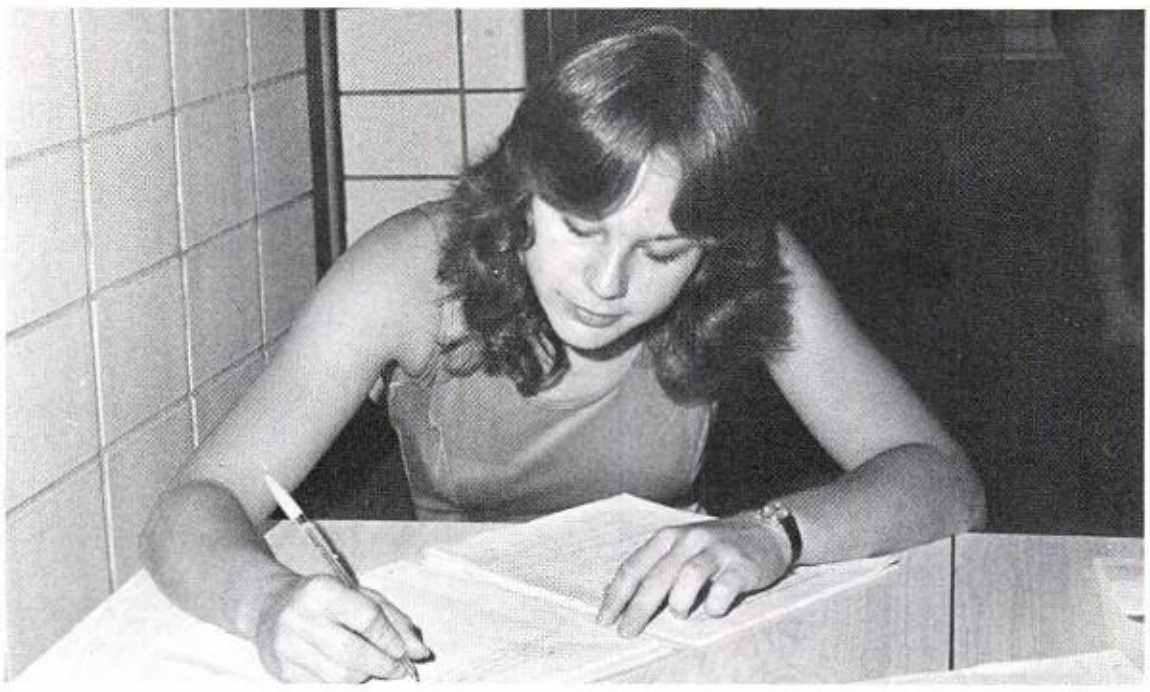
Graduates: On The Road To Discovery . . .

After graduation many seniors are unsure of their future. There are several roads to take. Although college is unappealing to many, it is believed to be the best bet in the long run. It can help prepare you for the job of your choice. Automatically you don't receive a job just because you went to college. You must work hard and become efficient at what you are training for.

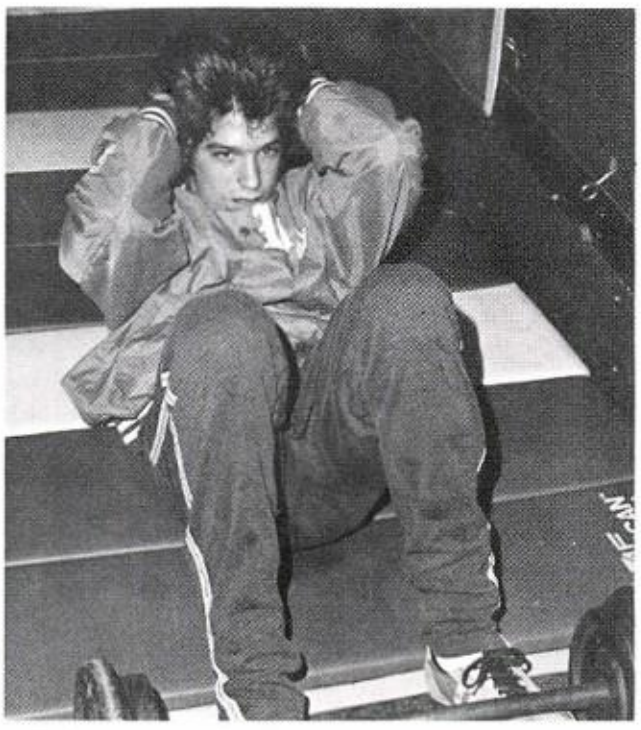
BOB JENTZ and BETH SPRIETZER display their spirit by constructing posters for a pep rally.



Public speaking students search through periodicals for ideas.

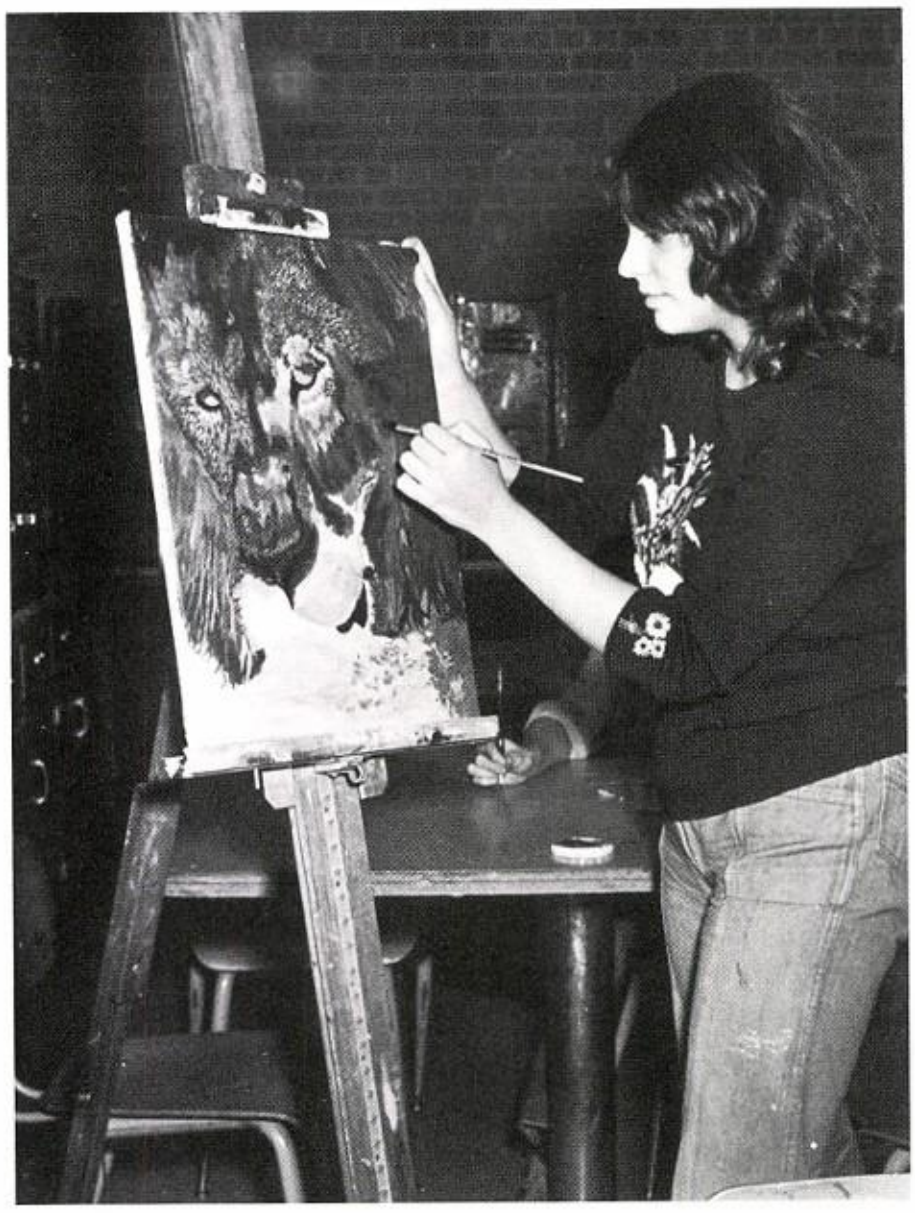


Senior, Carolyn Derminer, finishes taking notes that will be useful in an upcoming review for a swimming test.

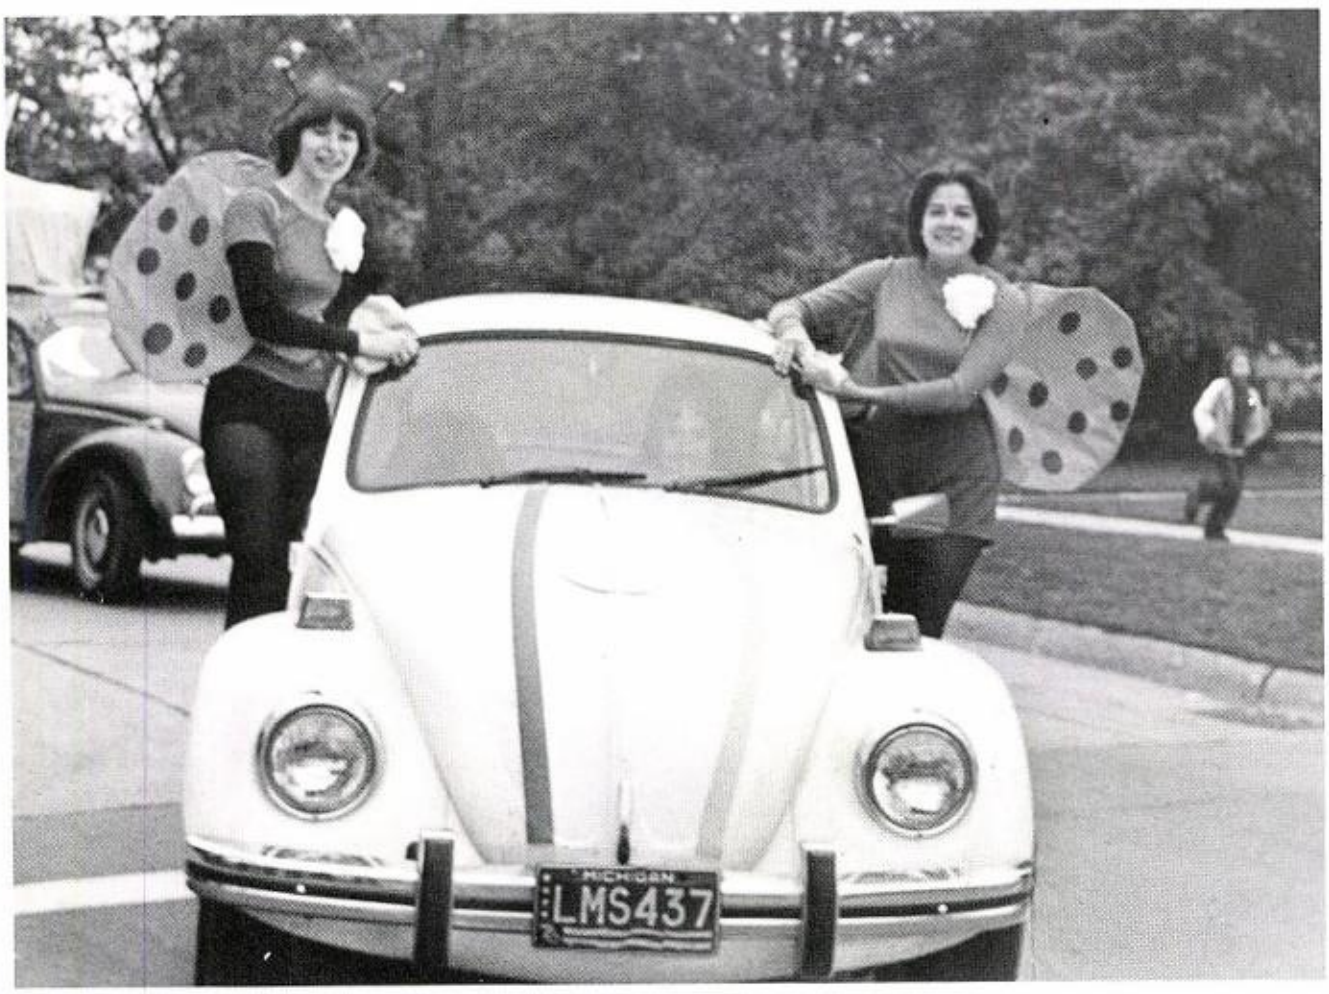


All-State wrestler, Mike Hindmarsh begins his quest for a second state title.

Seniors, Shirley Rogers and Terri Carbonneau decorate the gym.



In art class, Cathy Wnorowski adds the finishing touches.



National Honor Society members, Peggy Mezza and Beth Sprietzer, join the parade.

UNDERCLASSMEN

As underclassmen we're alike, not wanting to learn to walk before we run.
We're not quite sure just what life is like,
but we think that it's lots of fun.

We want to skip the years between,
and be seniors leaving the school.
Not knowing what it was like to be sixteen, we'd only make ourselves look like fools.

We have to know the years between,
or else live our lives blindly.
We have to live out our teenage years before we can be twenty.

So learn to walk before you run,
and take each day in stride.
If in the living you fall down,
just pick yourself up and say, "I tried."

Laurie Matzelt

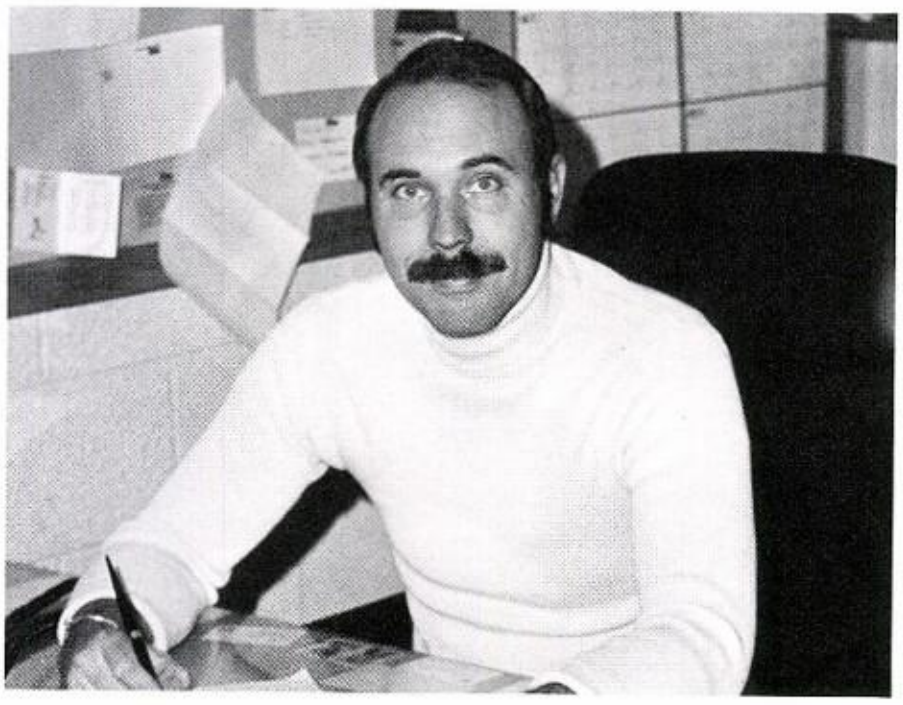
Juniors Win With Spirit And Pride

The Junior class started the year off by winning first place in float competition. The theme of their float was "Mickey Mouse Club House."

At sporting events they participated in selling pizza and bagels. Also during the year they sold bargain packs and carnations for Christmas and St. Patricks Day.

To end the year right the Junior Prom was held at the Fairlane Mansion on April 22nd. It was an evening that will always be remembered by every Junior that attended.



MR. NEIL OLDHAM finds being the sponsor very enjoyable.

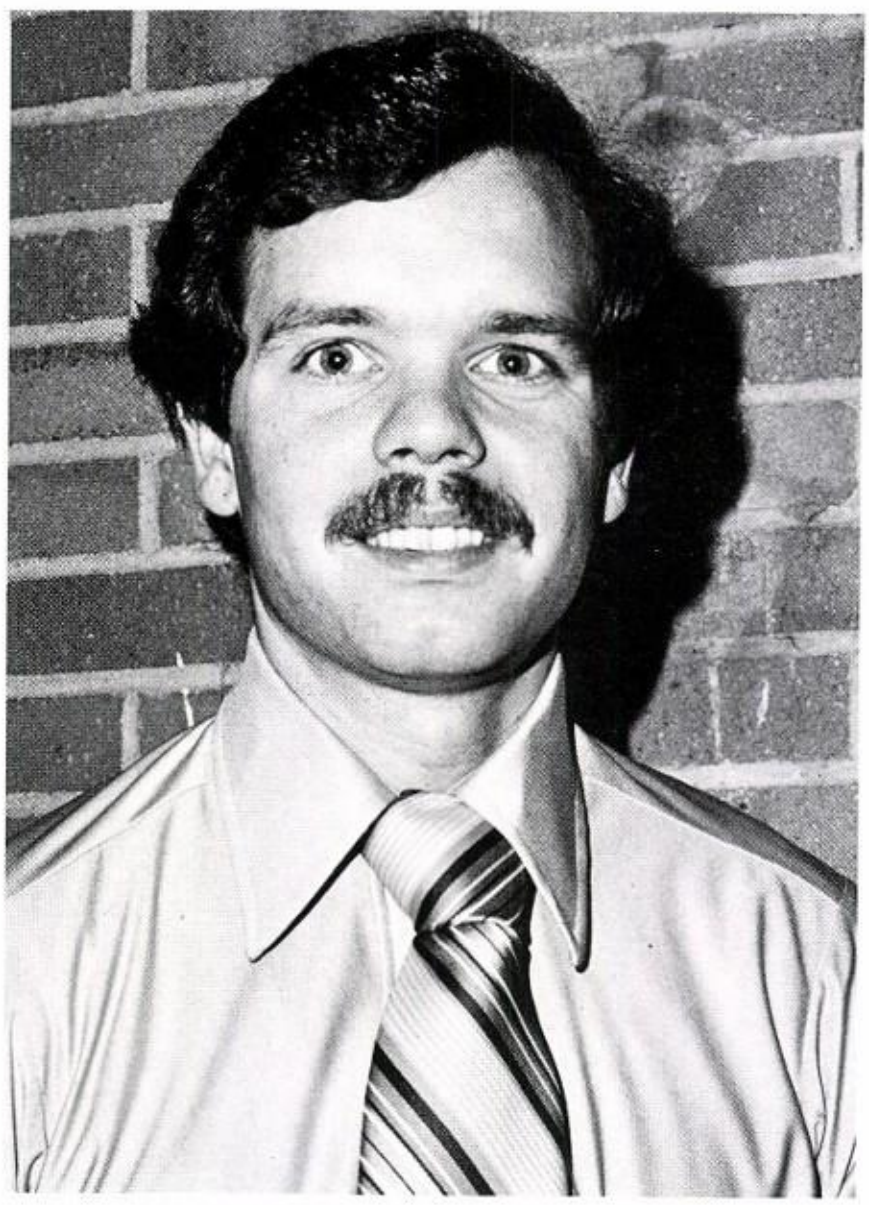
Achievement Shows In The

The Sophomores started off the year with high spirits. They won the Homecoming spirit stick and the class produced an excellent looking float of Peter Pan and Captain Hooks ship.

The Sophomores conducted a great fund raising project which consisted of selling oranges. They made alot of money off of this project and hope to do it again next year.

The Sophomores are sponsored by Mr. William Dyda. He spends alot of time with them as well as being a fine vocational printing teacher.

RON MULIOLIS, President of the Sophomore Class, is also active after school playing hockey.



MR. WILLIAM DYDA is the Sophomore Class sponsor and also teaches Vocational Printing.

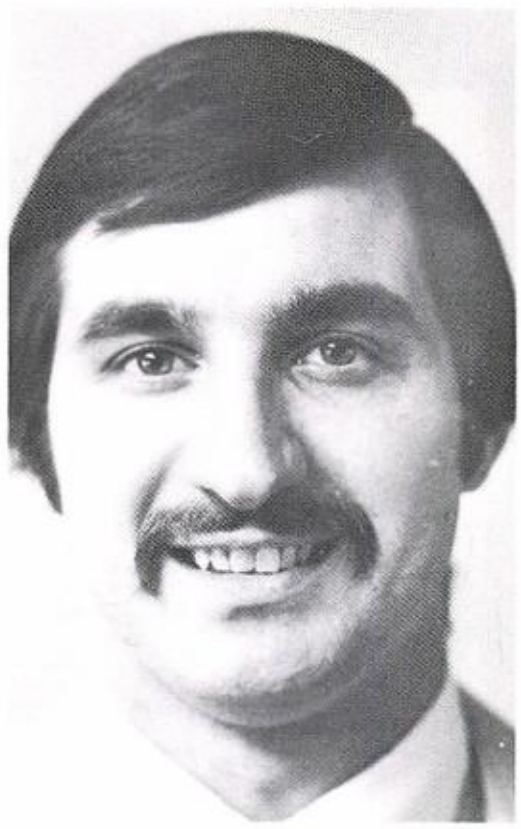
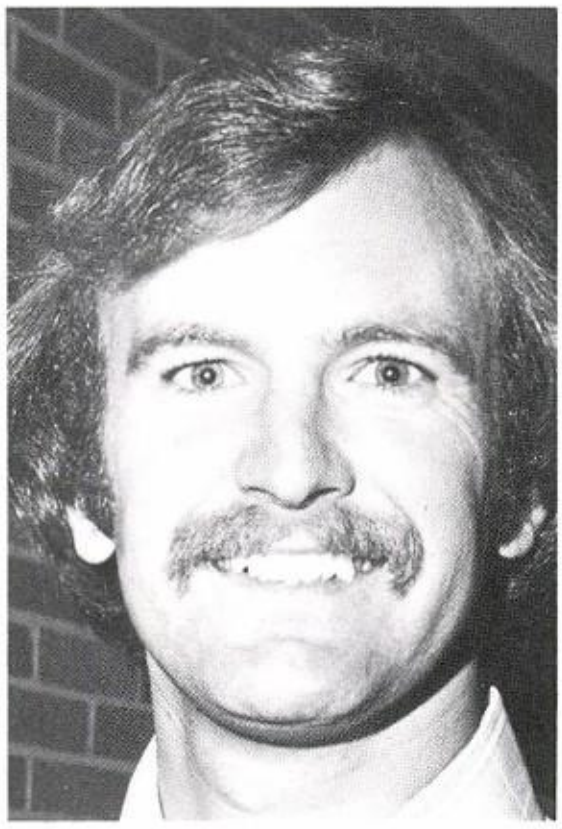
FACULTY, ADMINISTRATION, AND BOARD LOOK

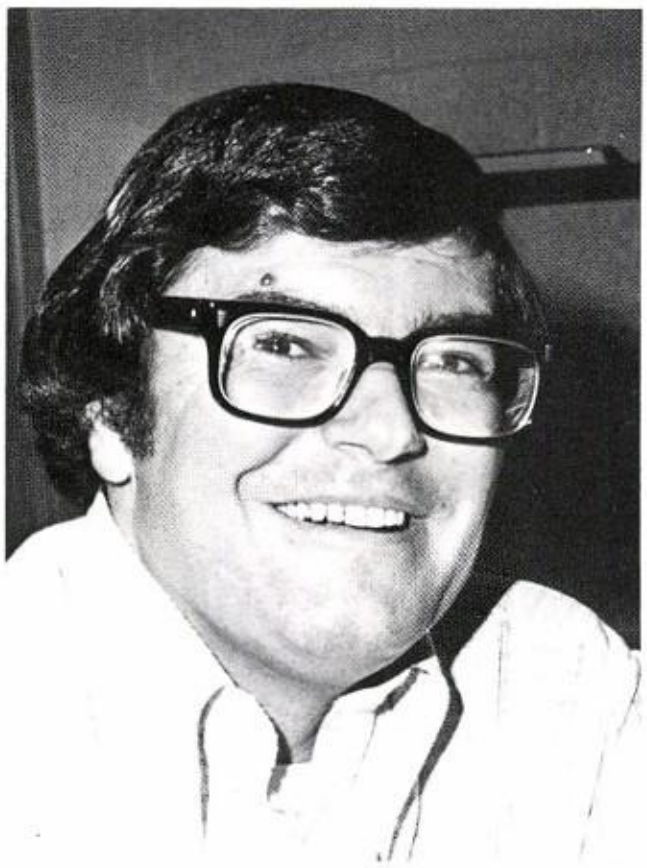
(RIGHT): May generations to come have the opportunity to walk these lands with the freedom that I and my ancestors have had. May this freedom not be scarred with discrimination, fear, or lack of environmental resources. I promise to use my God-given talents to the best of my ability to insure that future generations will look back with continued pride and not utter remorse.
BY: MR. DENNIS PYSZ
BOARD MEMBER



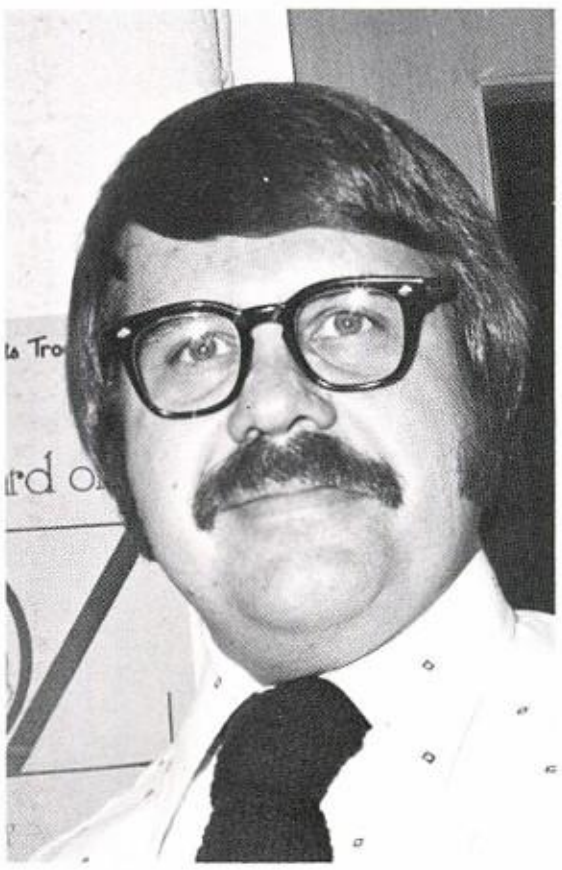


(BELOW): My "Promises For Tomorrow" as they relate to the future generations of those who are close to me would have to include: a society which is honest on all levels; a society which has respect for all levels of living things, and a society which is free of pollution and waste. It is my concern that if we continue to function in our present manner, we will destroy all those things which are dear to us.
BY: MR. TERRY MCDONALD, FACULTY

(ABOVE): My dream for future generations both close to me and distant involves the following. I would like people to be more considerate of one another, productive in society, and happy in their endeavors.
BY: MR. KEVIN CLARKE, FACULTY



(RIGHT): Many of the problems in society today are directly related to a breakdown of the family unit. The family has become incidental to cars, television, movies and various other diversions. If we are to survive as a viable nation, the family structure must be strengthened. My hope for my children and the nation as a whole would be for them to be able to look to the family for love, recreation, support and understanding.
BY: MR. TERRY STROME
ADMINISTRATION



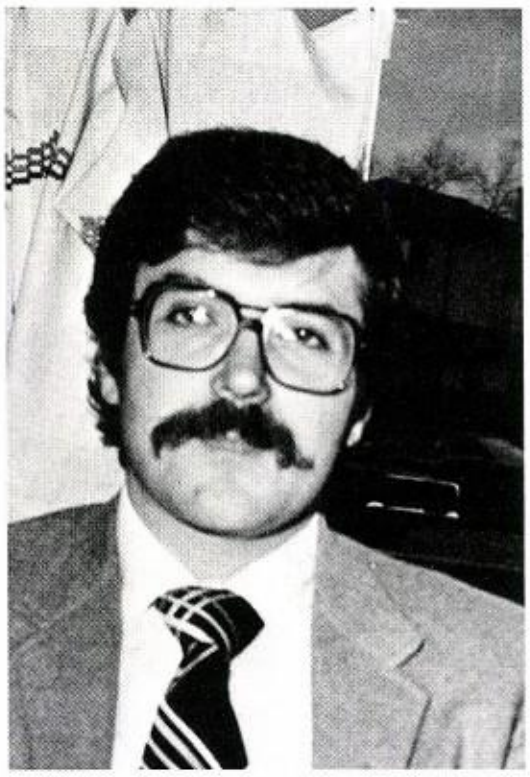
TOWARD THE FUTURE

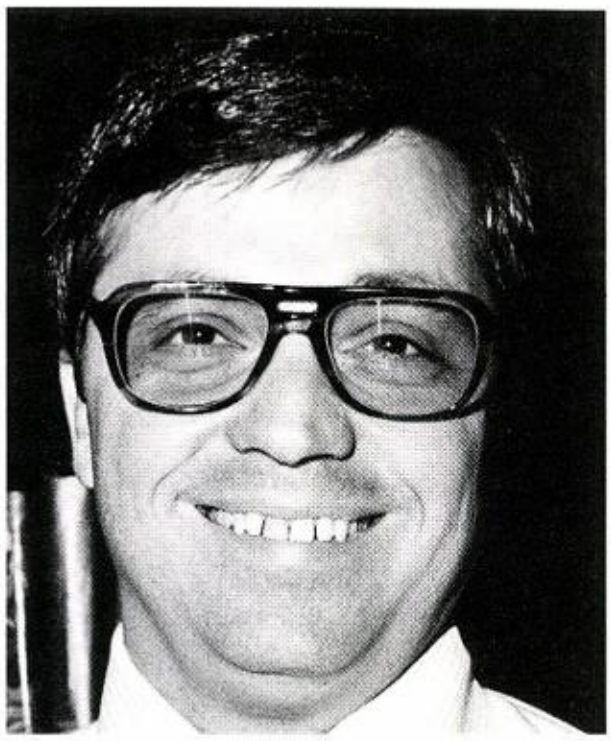
(BELOW:) My dream for the future generations of my children and grandchildren is to have a world of peace and prosperity. A society where one is limited only by his own ambitions. A society of happiness and contentment. One that has rid itself of strife, turmoil, discrimination, and uneasiness.
BY: MR. DON JEFFERS
FACULTY

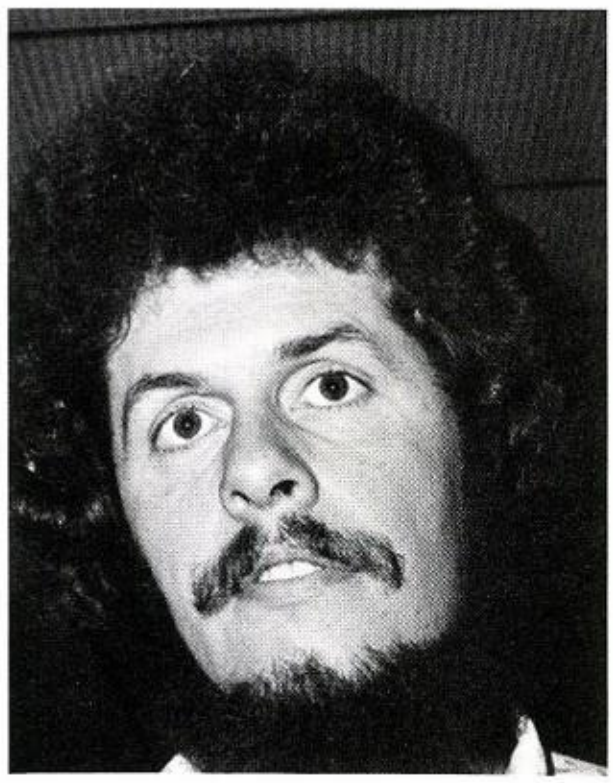
(UPPER RIGHT:) In a land where an individual's dreams can become his realities, I hope like past generations to provide those rights and freedoms that I have cherished to those who proceed me. Instilling a feeling of self-importance in my students, a certain pride that would kindle positive attitudes about themselves, their school the community, and their country will be my promise for tomorrow.
BY: MR. ROBERT NANNI
FACULTY

(RIGHT:) One of the most important things in the world is our future. Our children are our future.
BY: MR. ROBERT MACHNEE
FACULTY

(RIGHT:) I would sincerely hope that my family can live a happy and successful life which would be a result of their efforts. I would also like to see young people make a more direct contribution to society by being interested, productive and concerned with the people close to them.
BY: MR. MIKE VOGEL
ADMINISTRATION







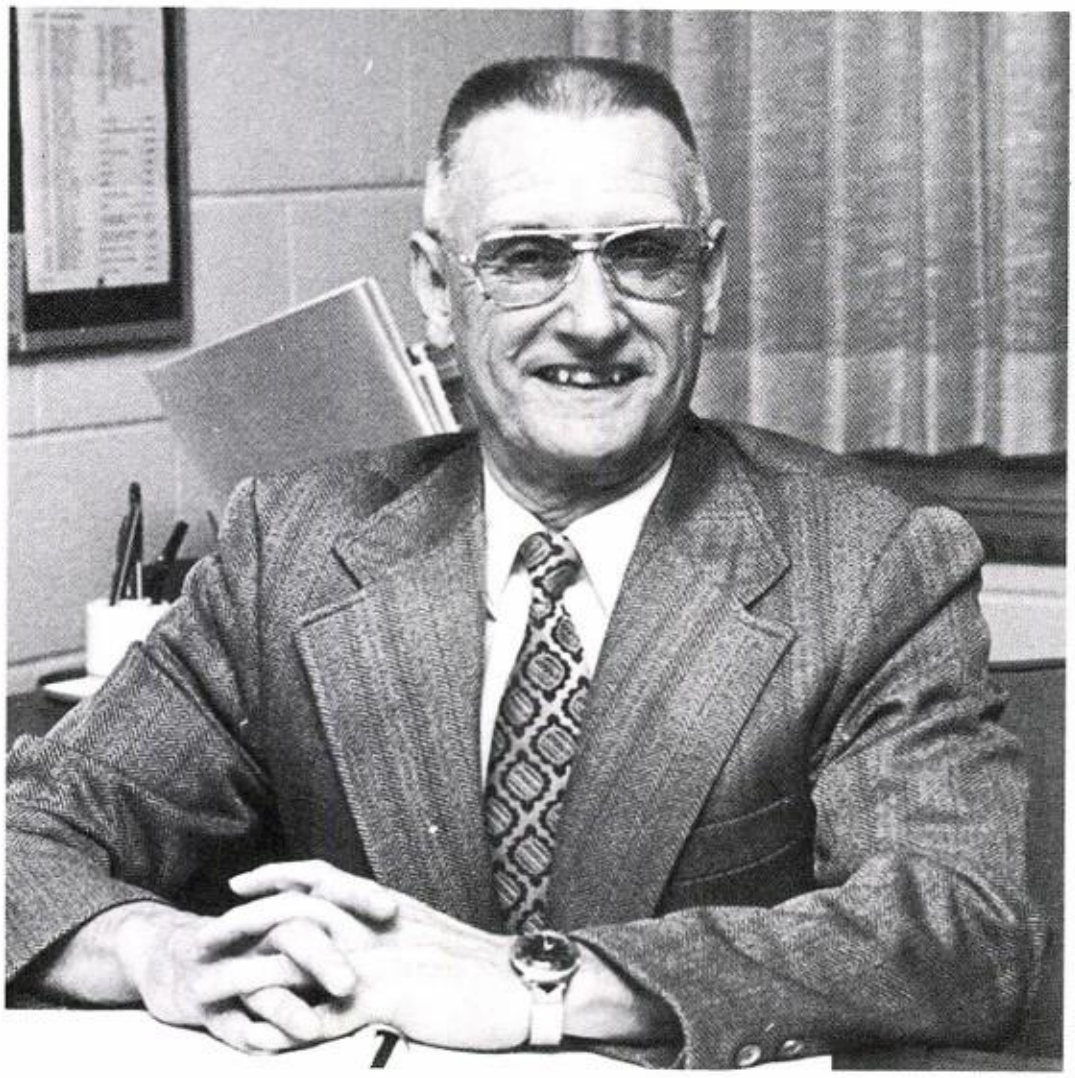
(ABOVE:) My hope for tomorrow's youth is a society that can live without the threat of war and without the fear of an environmental breakdown. Furthermore, I hope future generations will come to understand human nature more and conquer some of the ills of humanity that plague us today such as prejudice, drugs, alcoholism and hate.
BY: MR. DAN GASS, FACULTY

Board Works To Satisfy The People!

The Board of Education hopes . . .
. . . to maintain the quality instructional program presently offered to District Seven students.
. . . to expand the vocational programs available to students.
. . . to manage the finances of District Seven efficiently and maintain a balanced budget.
. . . to develop even further the pride of the students, staff and community in their schools.
. . . to promote a spirit of cooperation between the teaching staff, administrative staff and the Board of Education for the benefit of the students.
. . . to meet the desire of the parents of District Seven for an excellent school system.

Dr. Angelo Batsakis, Deputy Superintendent.

Mr. Edward McLean, Business Manager.



Mr. Gerald O. Steube, Superintendent.

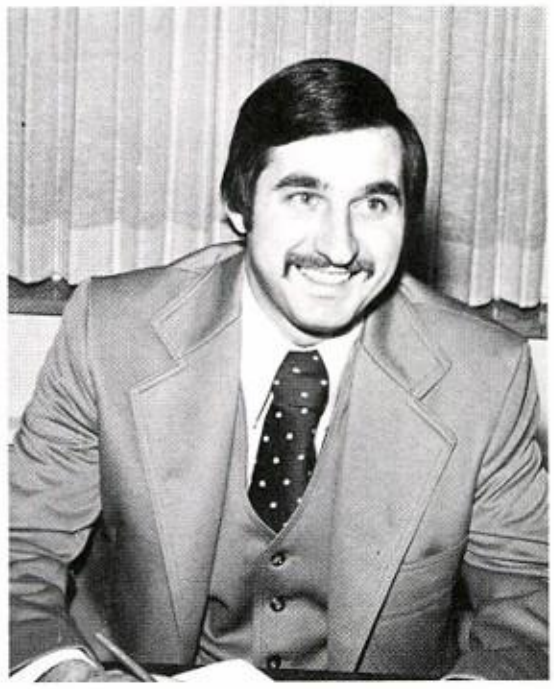
Buena Barr, President

Laurie Stronach, Vice President.

Larry Cotton, Secretary

Mary Sullivan, Treasurer

Andrew Kochanek, Trustee



Dennis Pysz, Trustee

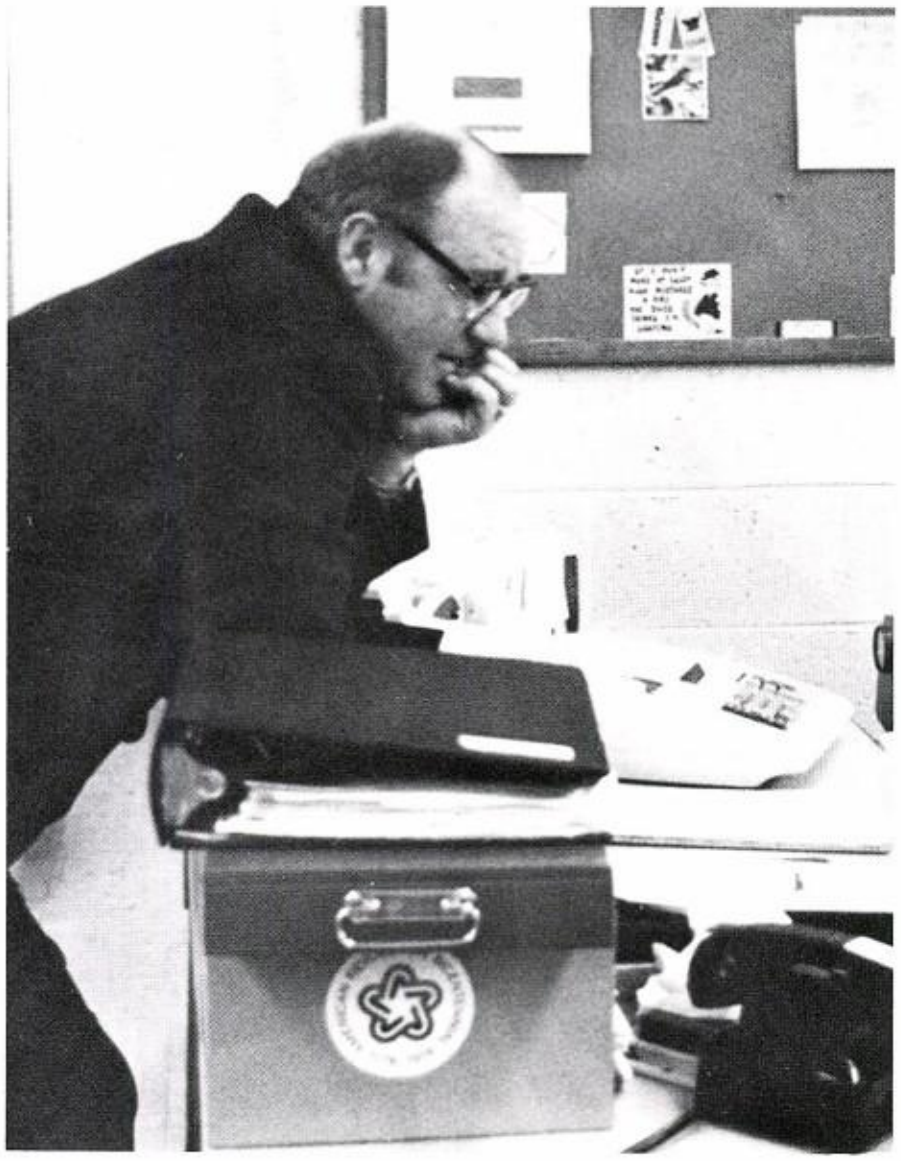
Lois Lambee, Trustee

BOARD OF EDUCATION: SITTING: Mary Sullivan, Buena Barr, Lois Lambee.
STANDING: Dennis Pysz, Laurie Stronach, Larry Cotton, Andrew Kochanek.

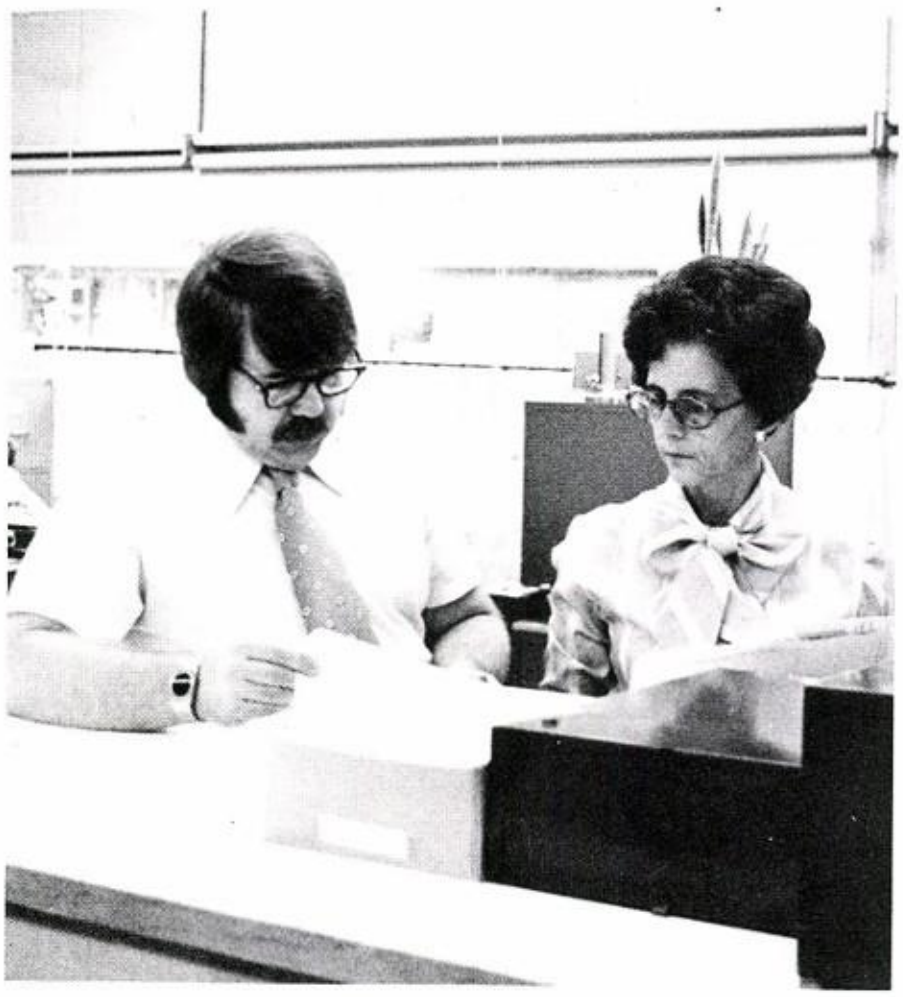
Administration Has Spirit Also

Mr. Martin Sviland has a tough job as principal of our school. He shows his great spirit by the way he deals with the trying situations he faces each day. He is responsible for organizing, directing and supervising all of the employees of the school. Mr. Michael Vogel works supervising the students. He is responsible for detention, arrival and departure of students, driver's education and many other important and necessary jobs. Mr. Terry Strome who along with his wife and family were honored with the dedication of the Homecoming last year, shares the responsibility of Mr. Vogel. These men are to be congratulated for the great job they have done in the past and will undoubtedly do in the future. Their great spirit will keep on shining.

The spirit of the students has tremendously risen. Each year it increases 100%. We have more students participating in school events. Spirit means a lot to how a school is run, and with the spirit that our school perceives, it seems much easier to get through the day!



MR. MARTIN SVILAND, principal, waits patiently for the daily attendance records.

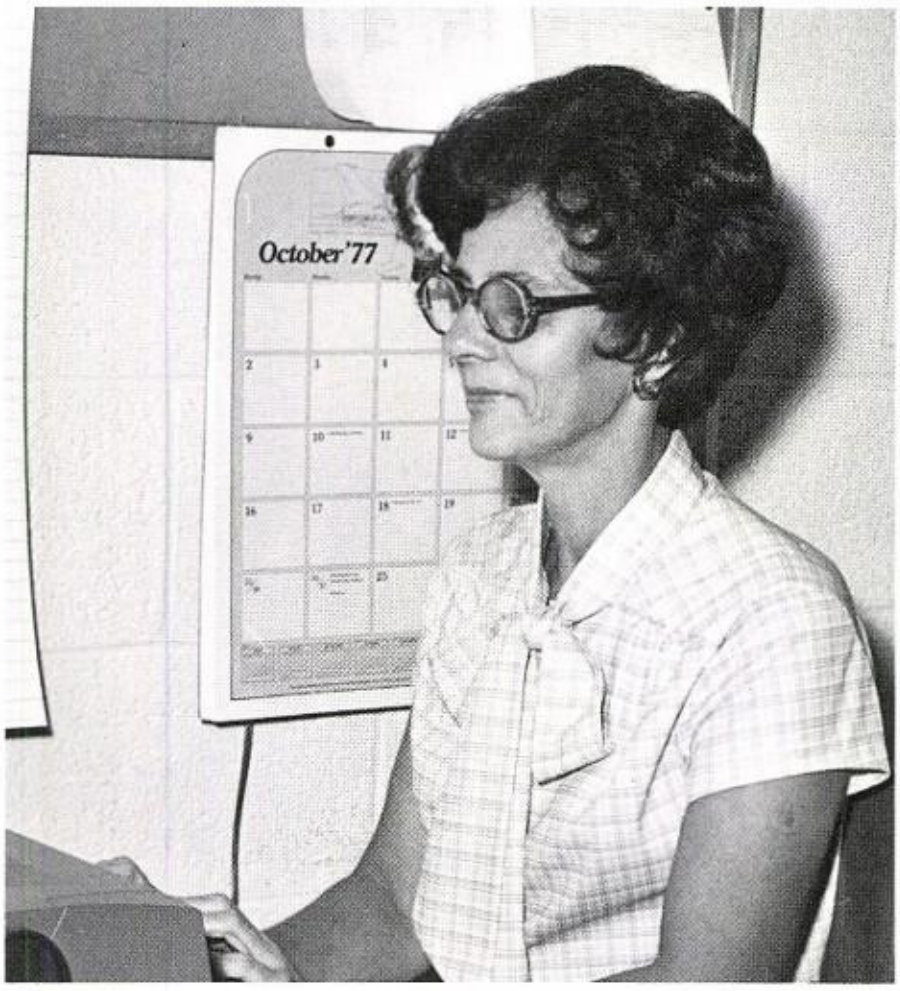


MR. TERRY STROME, who is in charge of student affairs, checks on a students' schedule.

MR. MIKE VOGEL, our assistant principal, works on school files with a smile.

MRS. SHIRLEY BAUMGARTNER, who is in charge of attendance records, signs a student in.

MS. SHIRLEE COOK prepares to type the daily attendance records and the announcements.



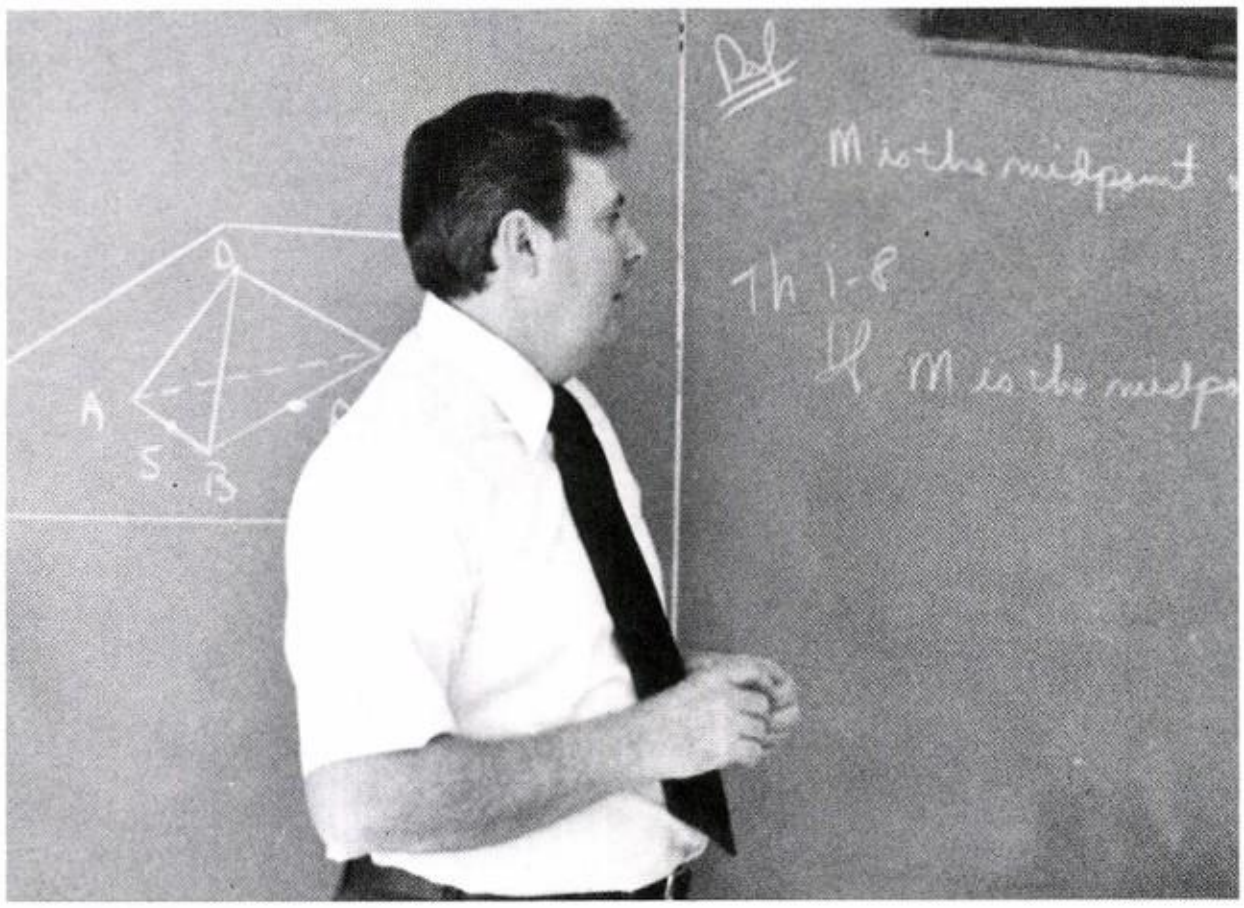
MRS. CAROL HELKA prepares to type a dictated letter for our assistant principal, Mr. Mike Vogel.

MRS. VIVIAN MOORE attempts to figure out the total earnings from the Homecoming Dance.

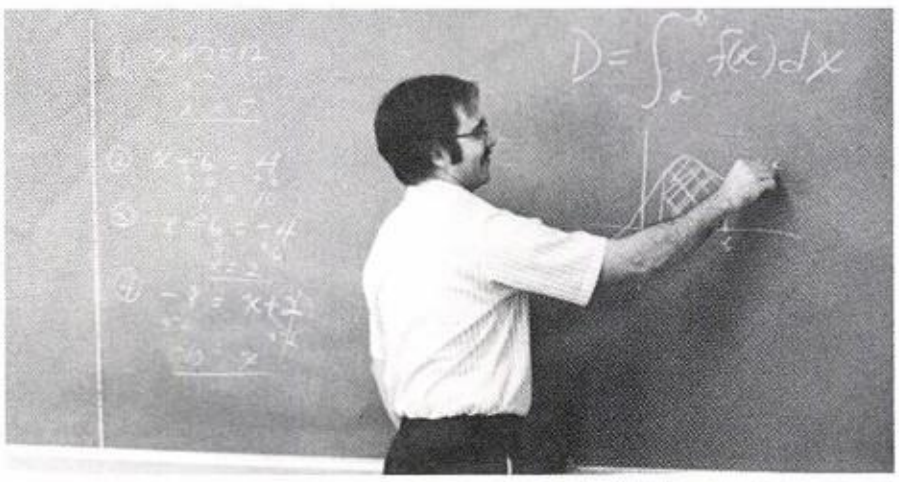
Math Brings Opportunities For The Future

Our mathematics department has a few changes at the present time. Mr. Joseph Ely has been welcomed as a fulltime teacher on our staff.

The department, headed by Donald Jeffers and including Anthony Scalzi, Jerry Stapleton and part-time Science teacher Karl Andrews, also has changed the requirements for graduation. It is now required for students to have successfully completed one full year of math. With so many math courses available, it is a great opportunity for the college bound student.



MR. DONALD JEFFERS explains the midpoint between A and B fully.



MR. ANTHONY SCALZI laughs to himself at a private joke.

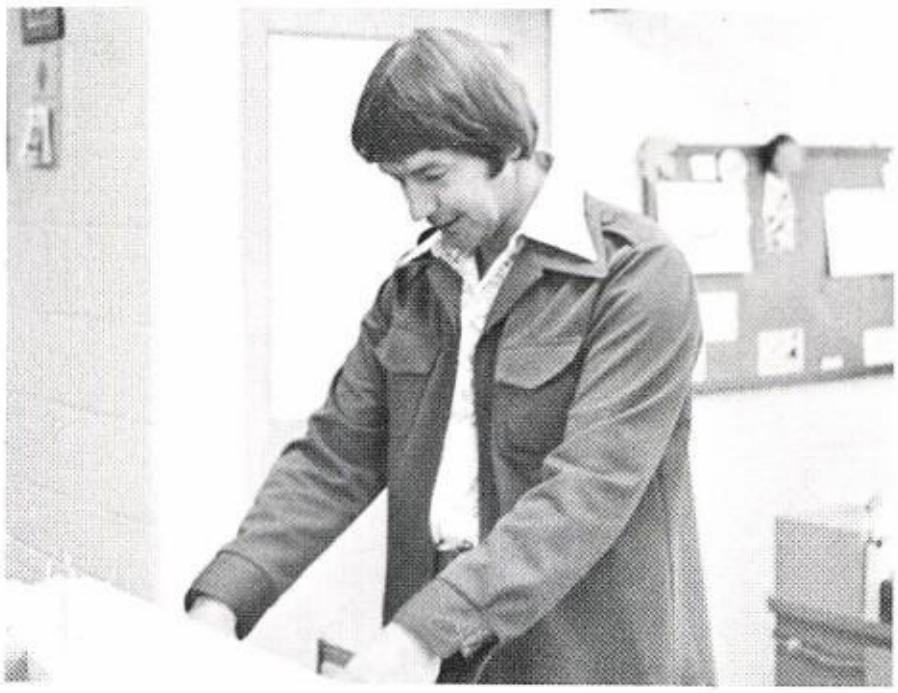
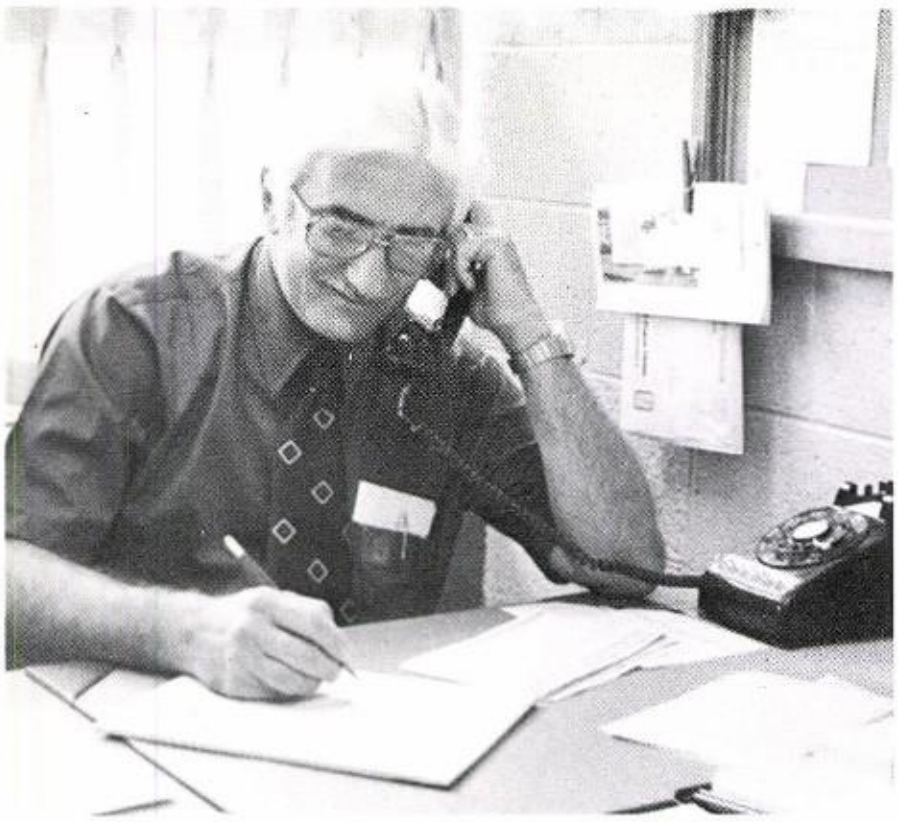
Counselors Always On The Go!

Our counselors are a great help to the social and educational program. The counselors are always ready to help a student with finding an occupation, furthering an education, or just listening to students complaints and helping to make things more fulfilling for both student and faculty.

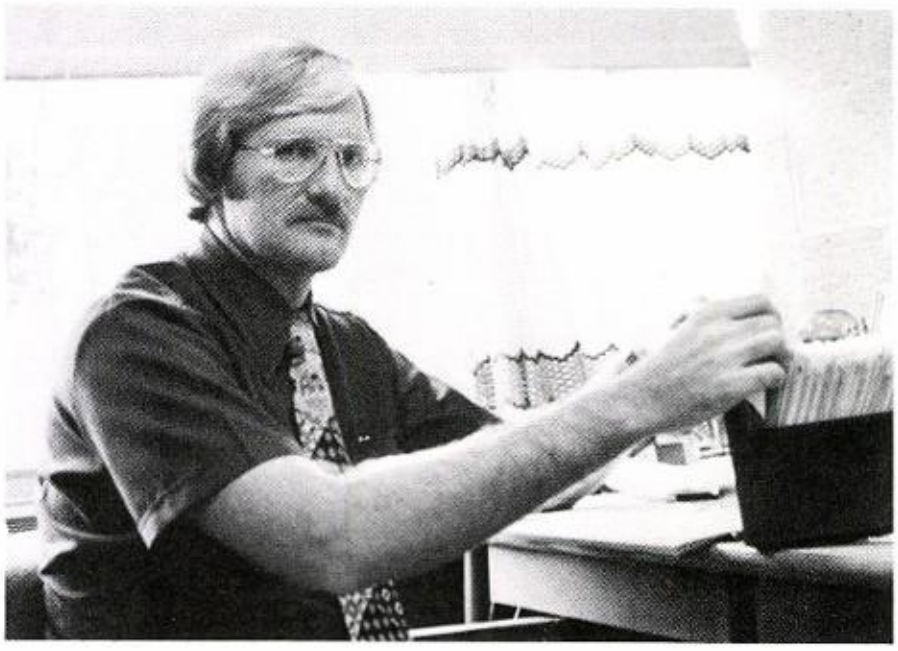
The counselors have many ideas for the future. One main idea is they would like to have a room similar to a library, for their display of material on careers and colleges. It would be open to any student at any time of the year. The counselors main concerns are really all in the students best interest.



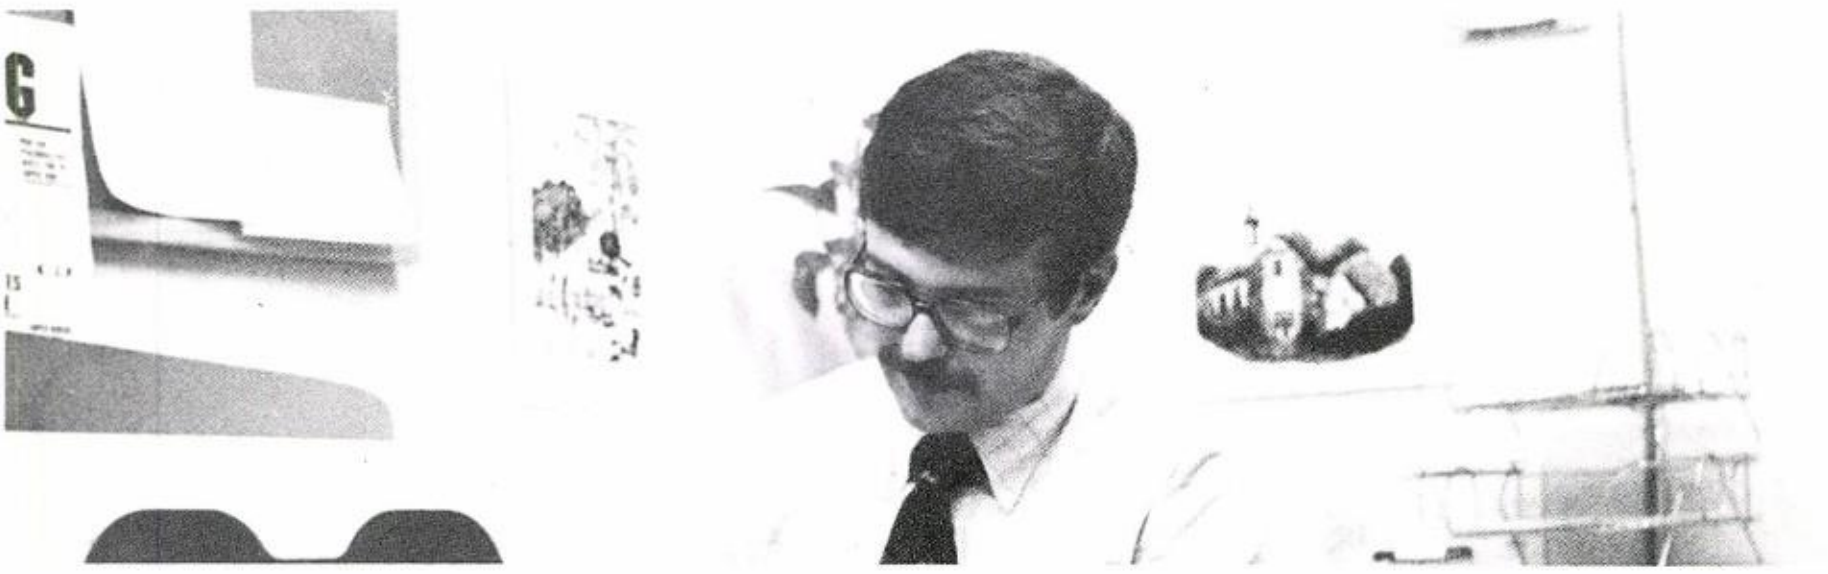
MR. JOHN SISSON smiles while getting ready for a conference.



MR. LOUIS BORTOLON telephones a parent concerning colleges.



MR. STEVE PACHY, also a English teacher, devotes time to look up a honors' students' files.



MR. ROBERT MACHNEE makes out a chart listing colleges within the state.

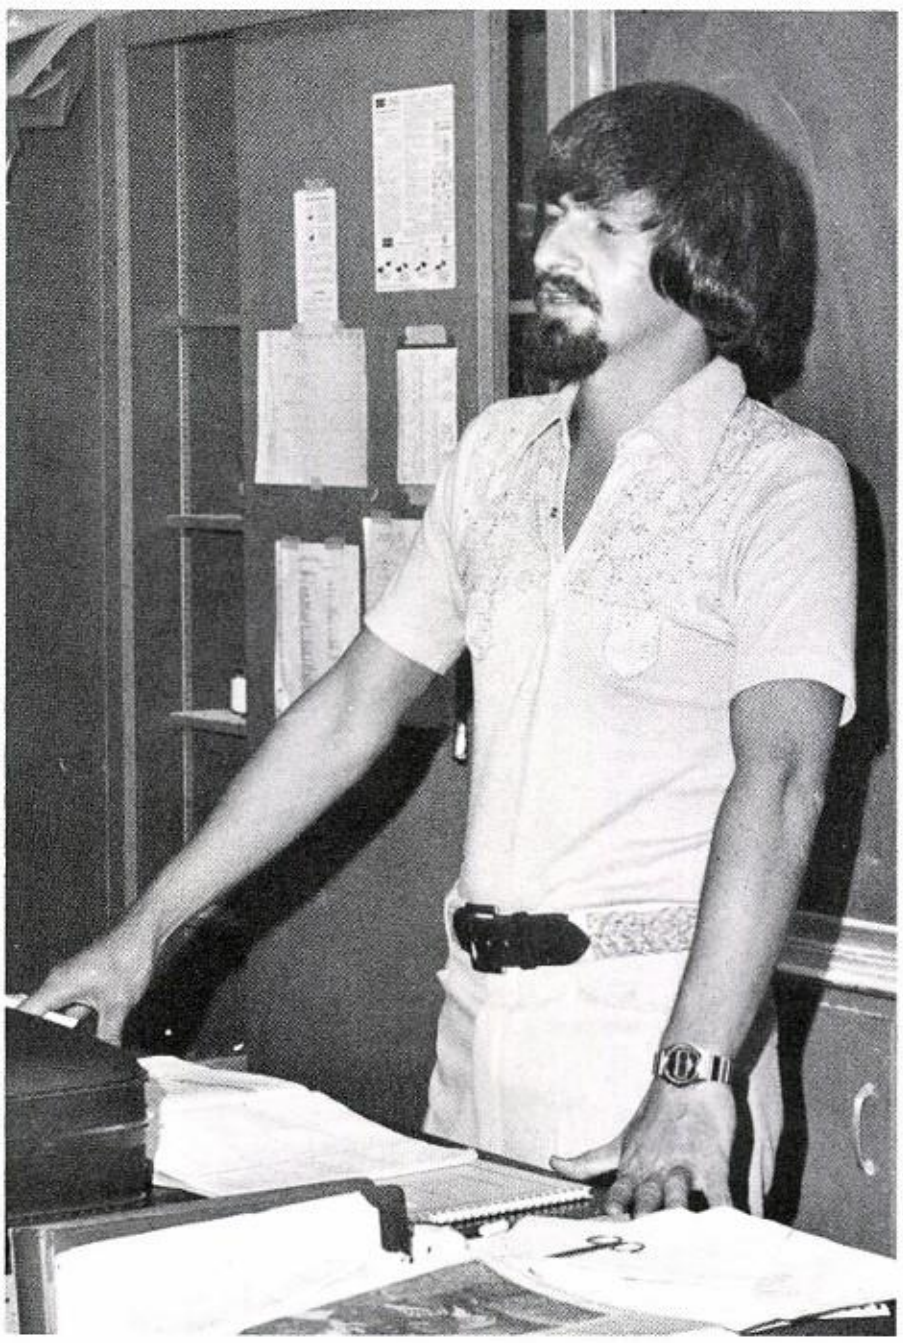
Science Touches Our Lives Every Day

The objective of the Science Department is to present the Laws of Nature to each student so that he may appreciate and preserve the resources of this planet we call our home. The student is taught the methods of science so that he may develop a logical approach in the solving of his problems.

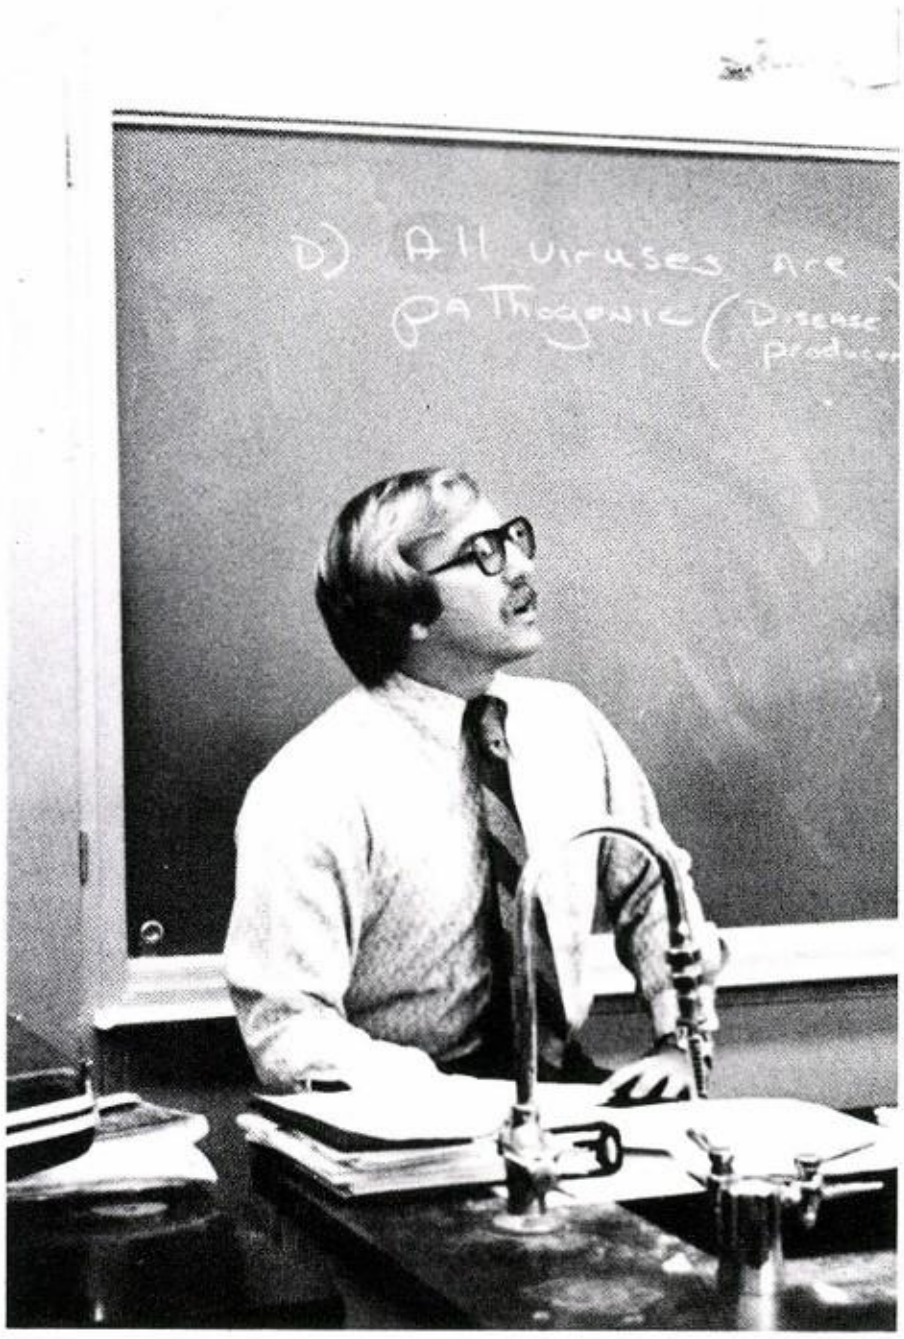
In biology and life science, the student is taught the nature of living things and how all life is in a precarious balance on this spaceship Earth.

In chemistry and physics, he learns of the composition and energy needed to conserve the resources of this planet.

MR. CHARLES SOULE, Ski Club sponsor and Biology teacher, shows Leslie Lobdell how to use the microscope to observe a mass of living cells.



MR. KARL ANDREWS, Biology teacher, lectures to his class.



MR. JAMES BRYAN, Biology teacher, gives his class a quiz.

Students listen as Mr. Frank Lupo, head of the Science department and Physics teacher, explains the inertia balance.

MR. KEVIN CLARKE observes while Ken Schweitzer and Mark Jenkins learn how to use a pan balance.

A Sense Of Good Sportsmanship

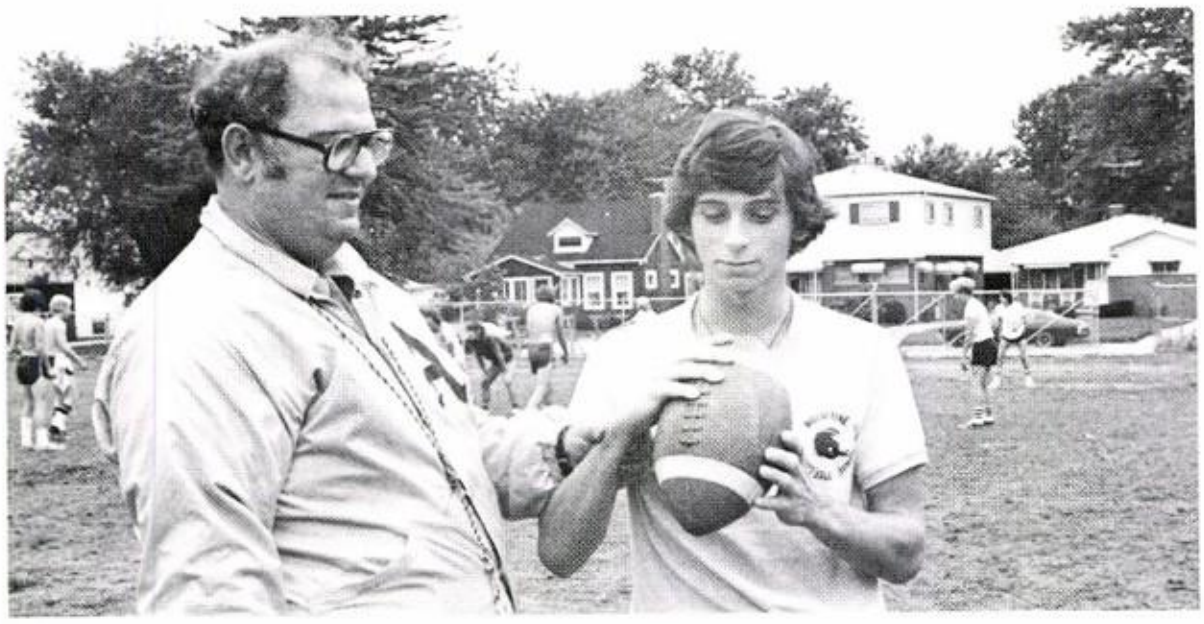
Physical Education has a definite spot in the future of our seniors. A good physical body, knowledge of rules and regulations and a sense of good sportsmanship is a carry-over for every graduate. Sports that can be played on a competitive and social nature are emphasized. Bowling, golf, volleyball and life saving classes are some activities which will aid students in their promises of tomorrow.

It is the hope of the Physical Education Department that through their efforts all graduates may have good athletic ability tomorrow.

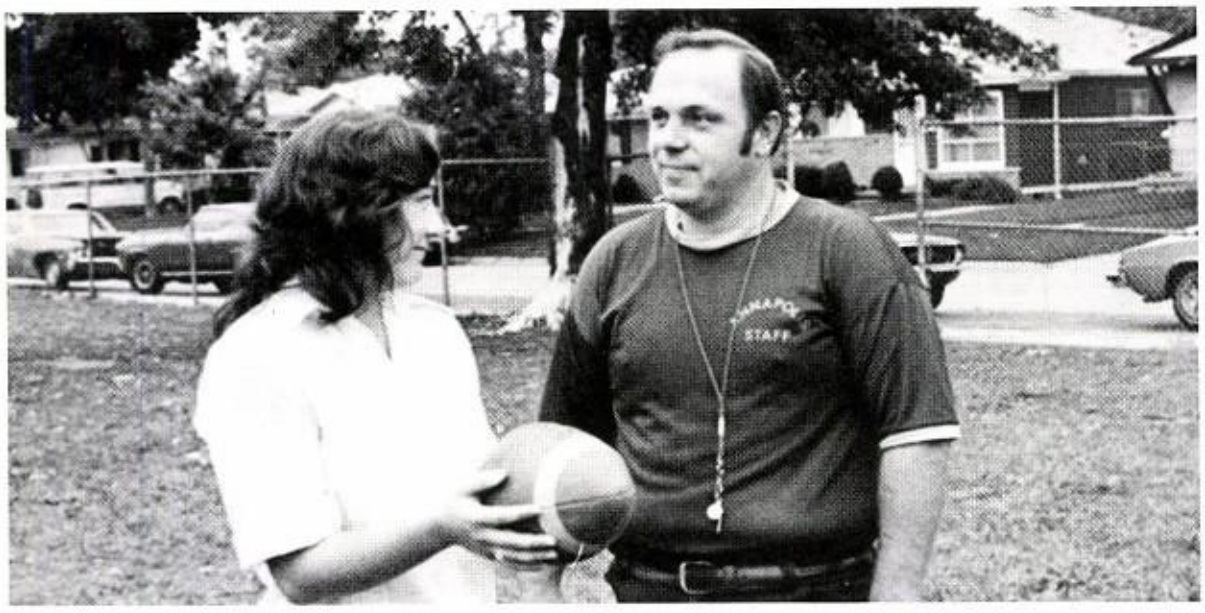
MRS. JOYCE DICK and ROSE BERTUCCI, who is an alternate member of the drill team, get anxious just before swim class.

MRS. JOANNE BLUM looks baffled as she wonders where the rest of her players have disappeared.

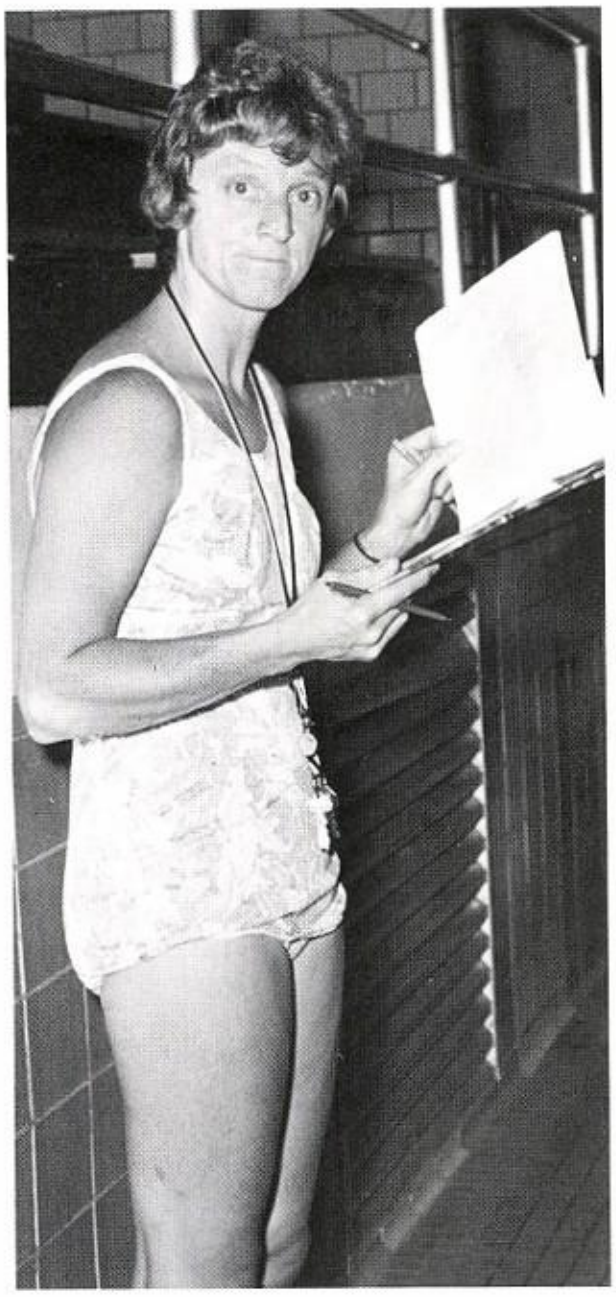
MR. MICHAEL BIRD demonstrates to his class the proper way to grip a football.



MR. RONALD BALES, Athletic Director, assists his gym assistant, Steve Shaw.



MR. JOHN O'DROSKI, track coach, looks disgusted with his student.



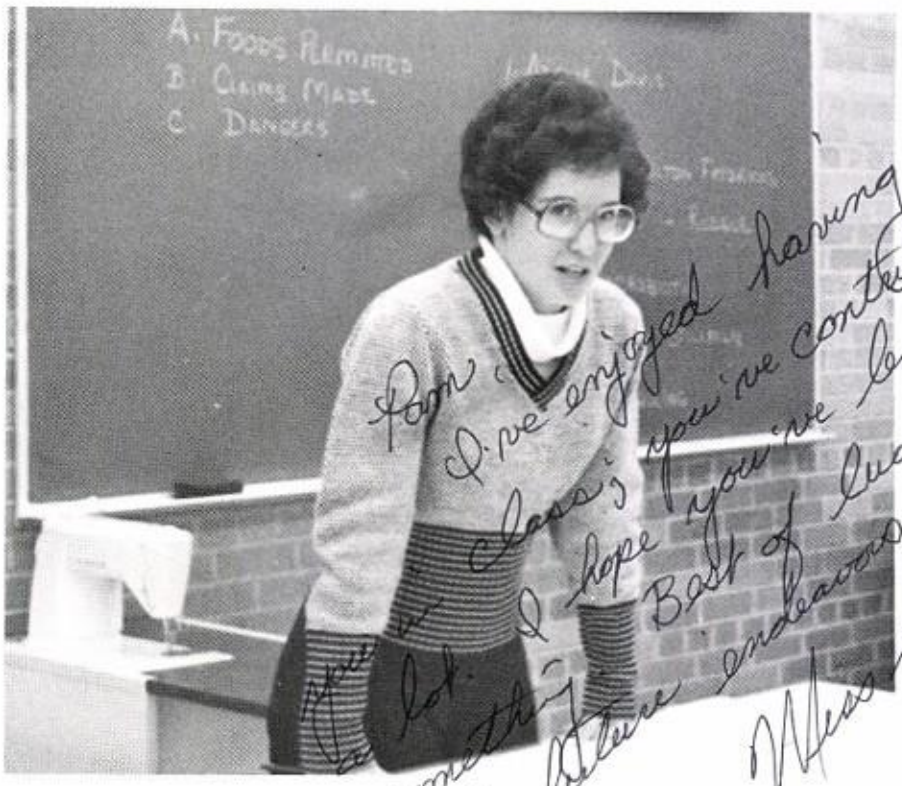
MRS. PRISCILLA NEWINGHAM, former volleyball coach, looks up from her papers.

JANICE SEAY demonstrates to Mr. John O'Droski her punting ability.

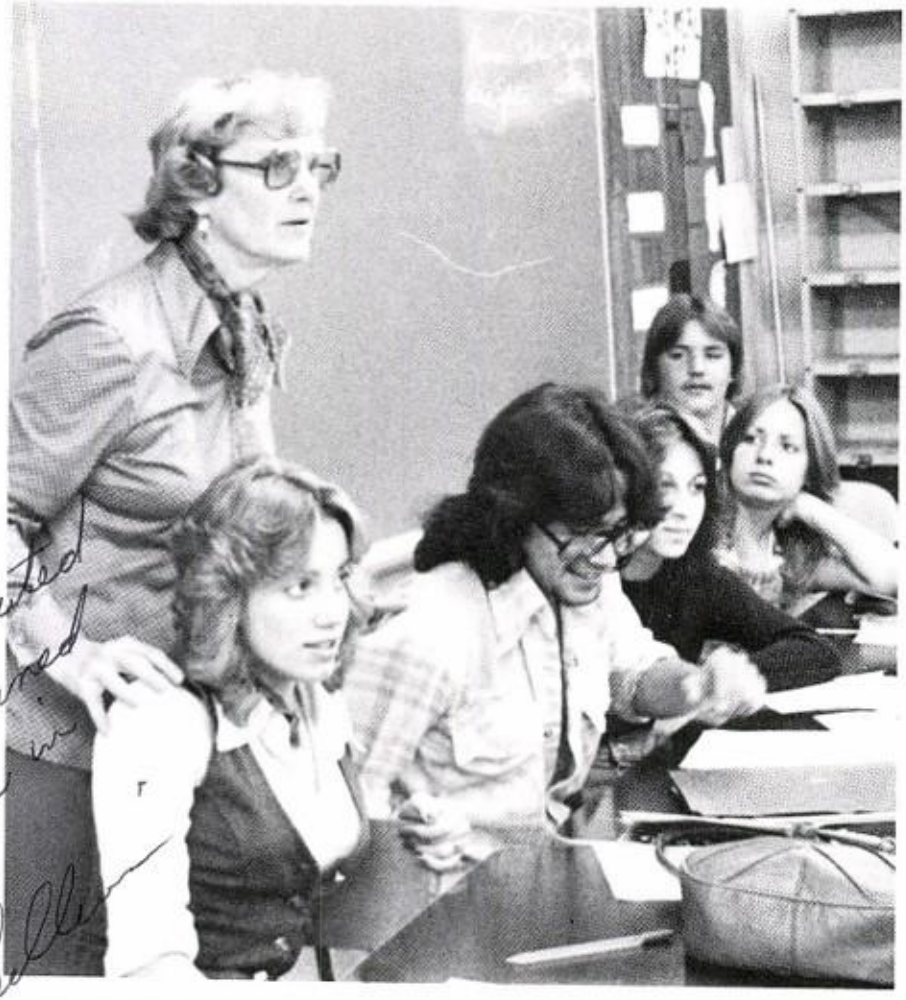
Coach of the girl's swim team, Mrs. Joyce Dick, executes the butterfly stroke.

Learn-By Doing, The Active Ingredient

In the future, our Home Economics Department would like to have a class for young student couples. Students would work as hypothetically married couples whose assignments would cover finding a job, planning a budget, buying a house, and getting a divorce. Learn-by doing would be the active ingredient in this course and the students would develop the ability to function as independent and competent adults.

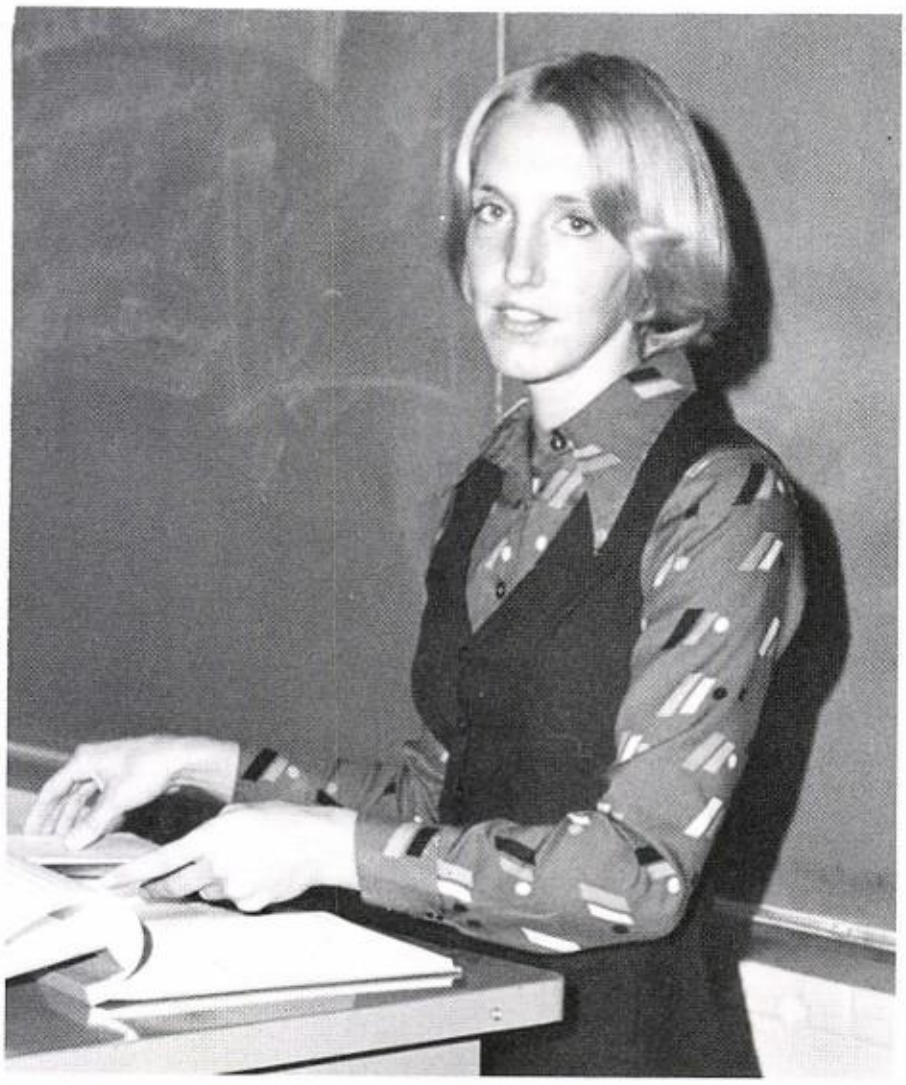


MISS PATRICIA SULLIVAN is sponsor of Drill Team and Cheerleaders.



MRS. EVELYN STOMP explains the important reasons for a career.

MRS. SUSAN KENYON shows examples of income tax forms.



MISS GAYLE CHRISTENSEN, a new teacher at our school.

MRS. ADRIENNE CONNORS explains to Todd Hitsman and Char Tricoff the proper placement of their beverage.

MRS. KRIS LEVESQUE skillfully lays out her pattern for cutting.

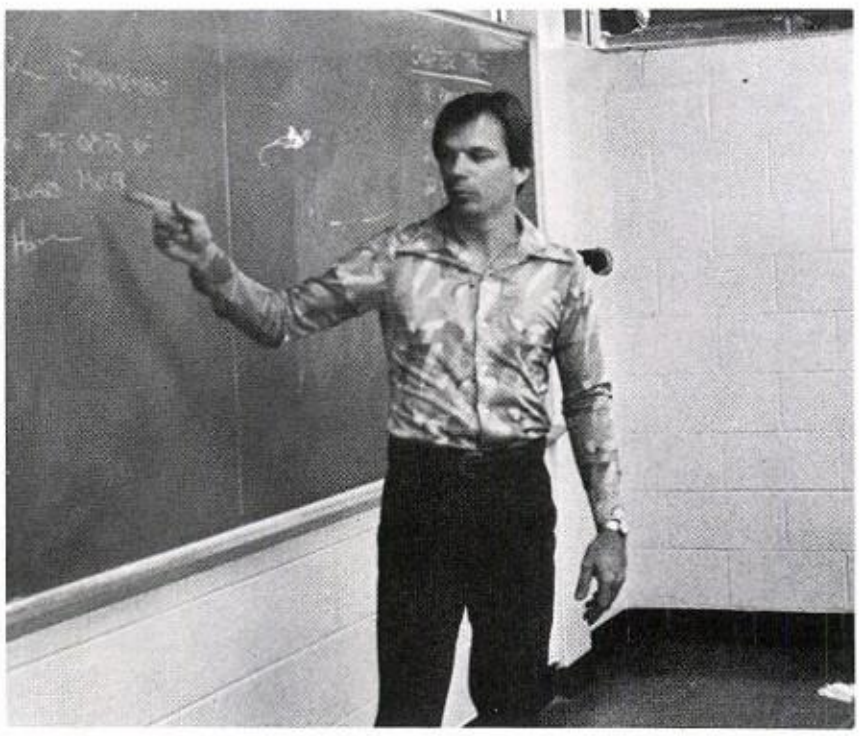
MRS. JANICE STEINMAN explains a crochet stitch to her class.

Business Department Comes Through Again.

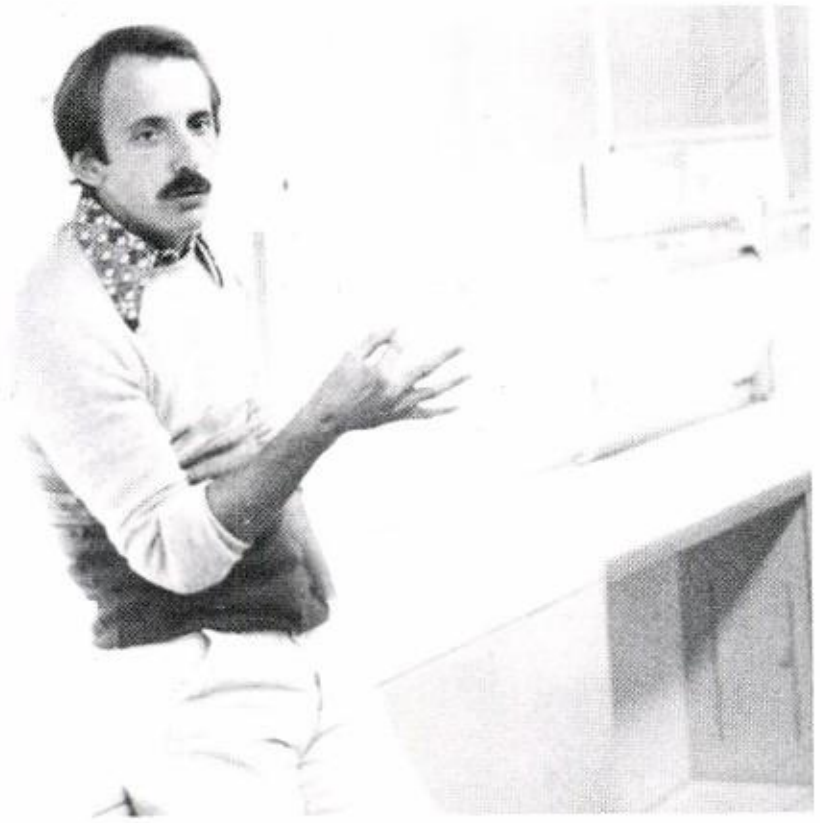
The business department will continue to offer a wide selection of courses to allow as many students as possible to participate in this area. The Office Practice Block and the Shorthand Block will contain updated materials to provide for the needs of the seniors, as they prepare to enter the business world of work.

All of the subjects taught will provide for the expections beyond the normal high school years------those of the future.

MR. AL HELNER, also Co-op instructor, waits for answer.

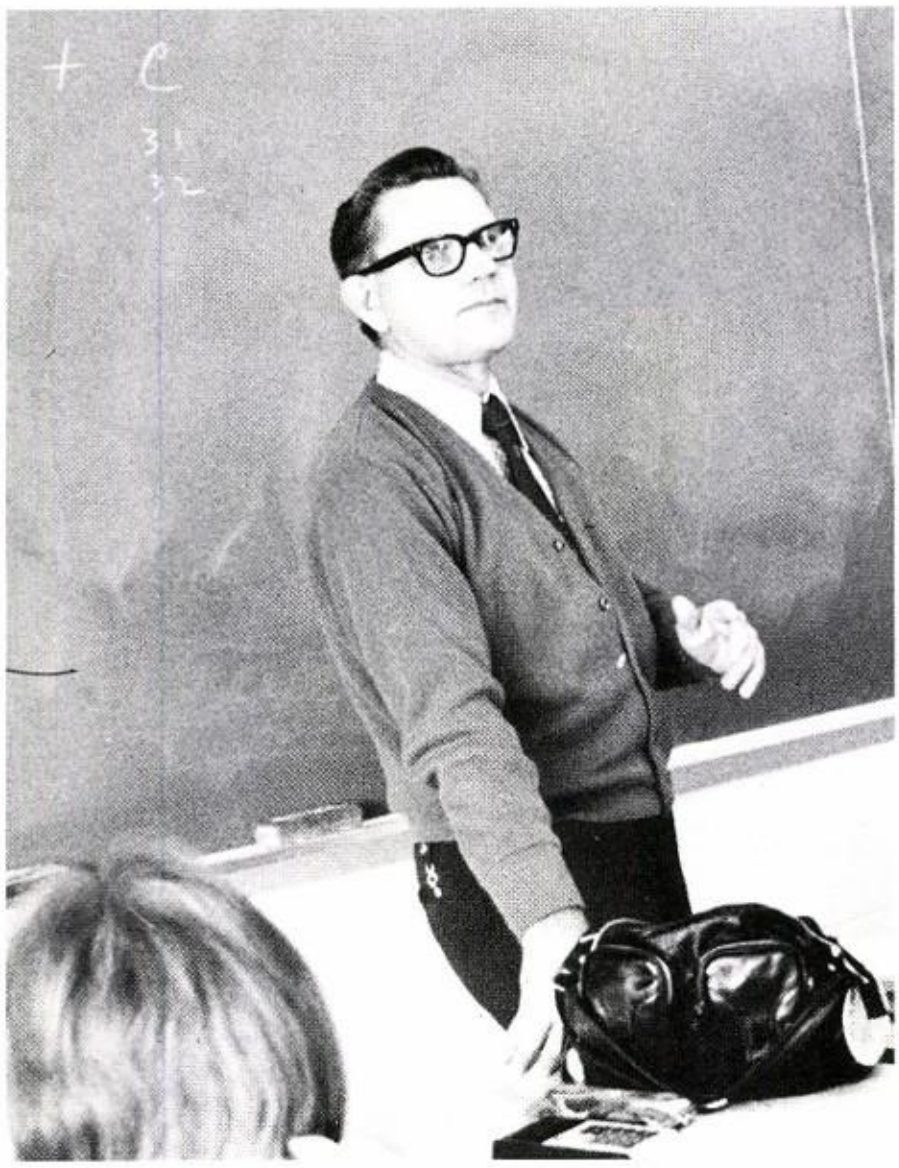


MR. RONALD WRUBLEWSKI explains the proper way one should endorse a check.



MR. WILLIAM NICKEL calmly explains legal aspects of libel suits in his Business Law class.

MRS. SANDRA RESZCZYK, former drill team sponsor, aids a student in briefs in shorthand.

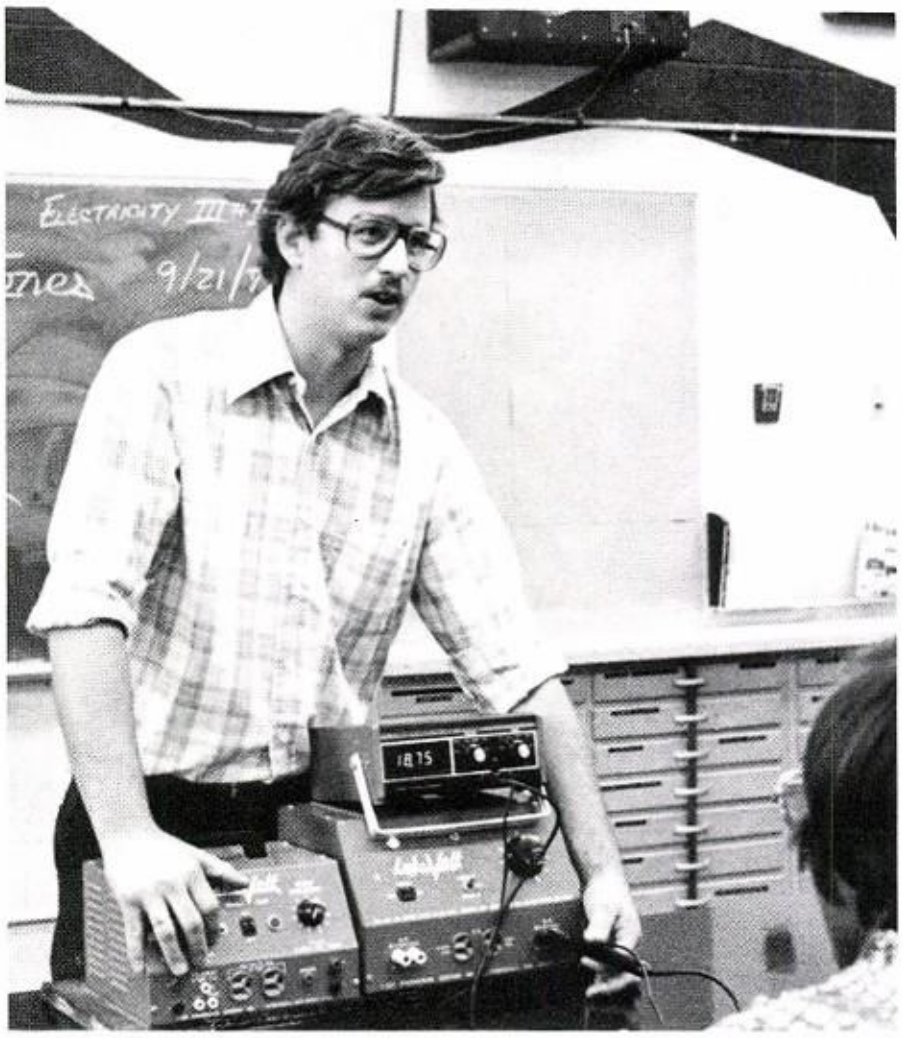


MR. EDWARD MIAZGOWICZ explains accounting to his class.

MRS. SANDRA RESZCZYK shows her Office Practice class the fundamentals of shorthand.

MRS. DOROTHY ROBINSON assists one of her students, Denise Piccoli, with some office filing.

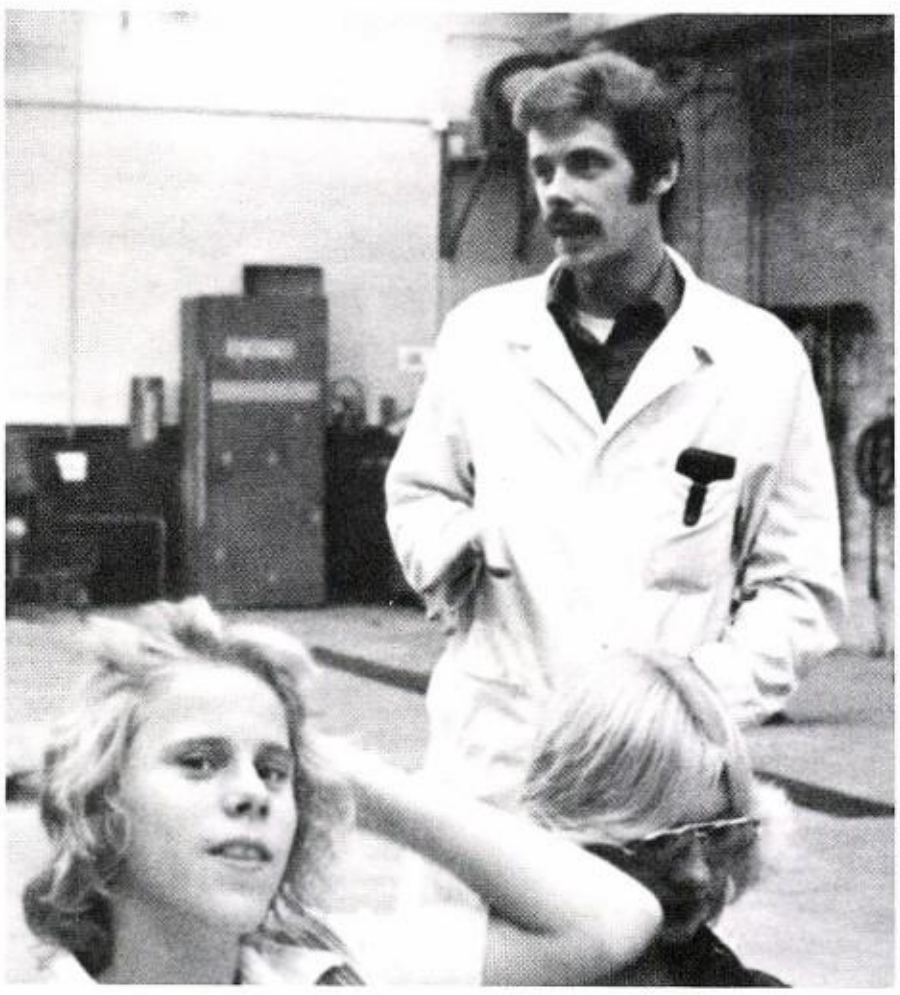
Students Gain Technical Experience



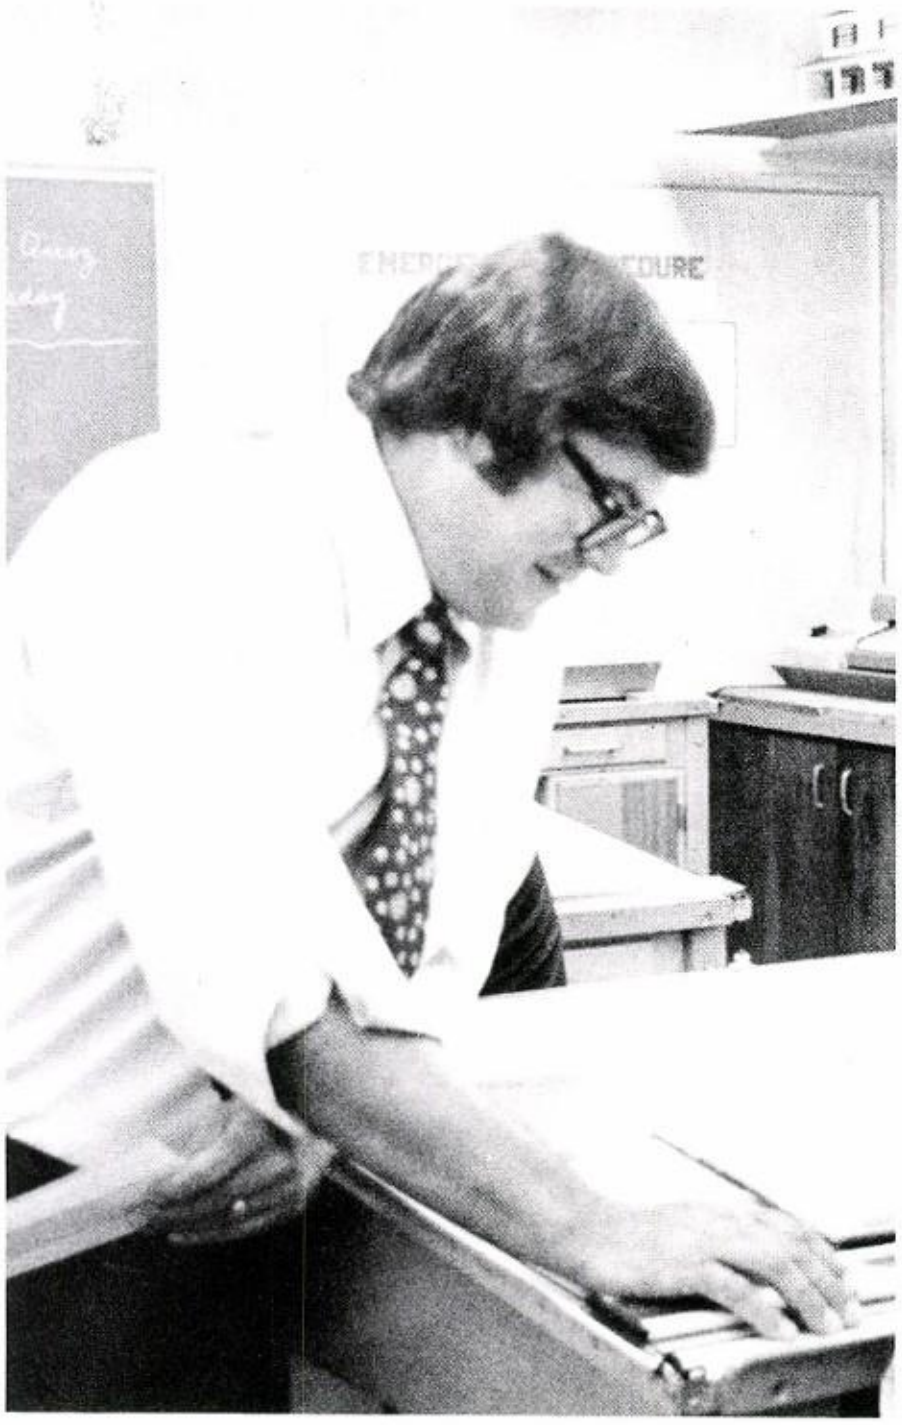
MR. LARRY ROOT explains proper technique in using a digital meter.

The need for Industrial and Vocational Education in today's world is becoming more important with the development of a more technical society. It is our goal to keep up with this demand in our course offerings, equipment, and curriculum.

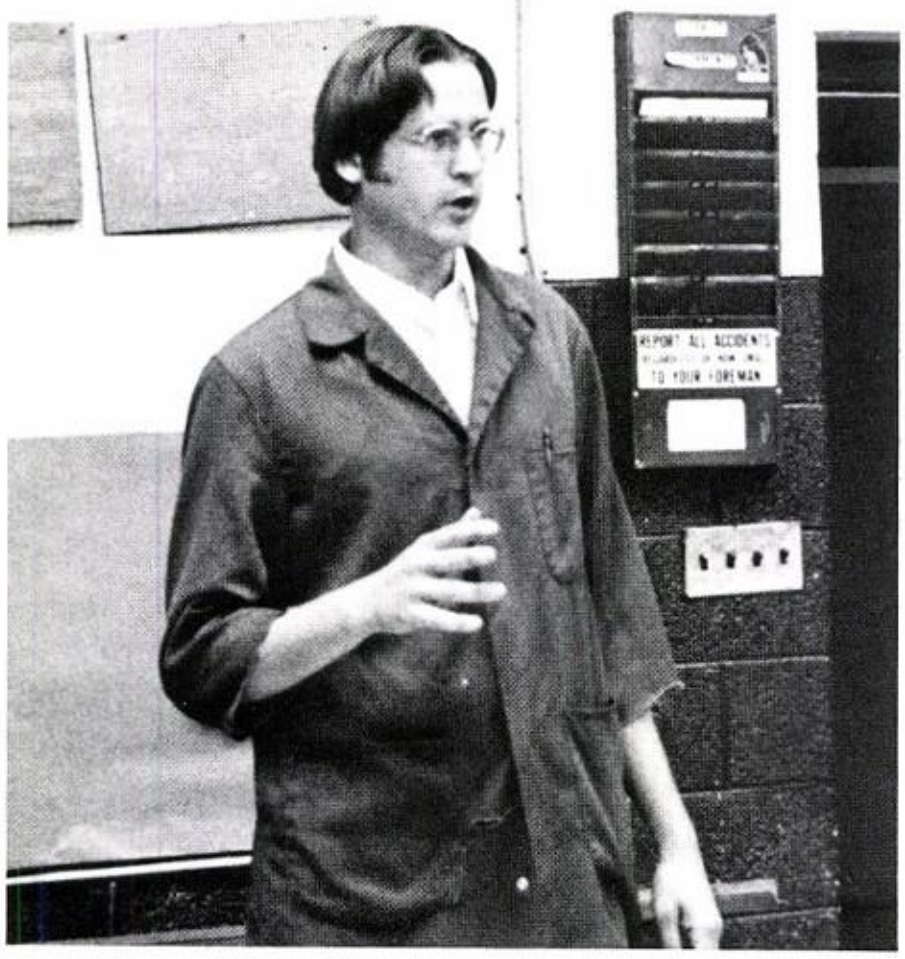
The courses are designed to provide entry-skills into a given field of study. The student, through practical experience and on-the-job training, with the right attitude and motivation, should become a first class technician.



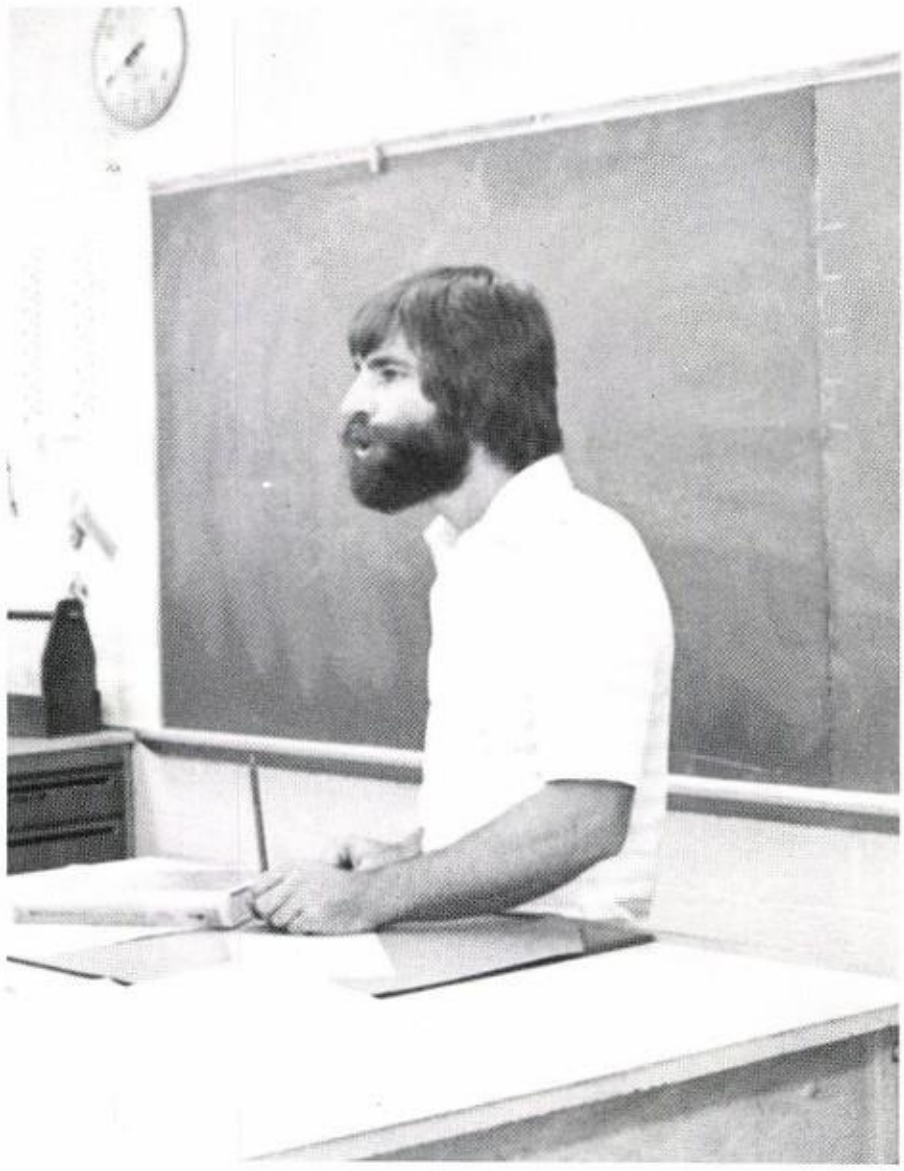
Auto 3&4 teacher, Mr. John Borovsky, explains piston compression and the main cause of piston ring trouble.



Department head, Mr. Terry McDonald, looks over a World of Work students' homework assignment.



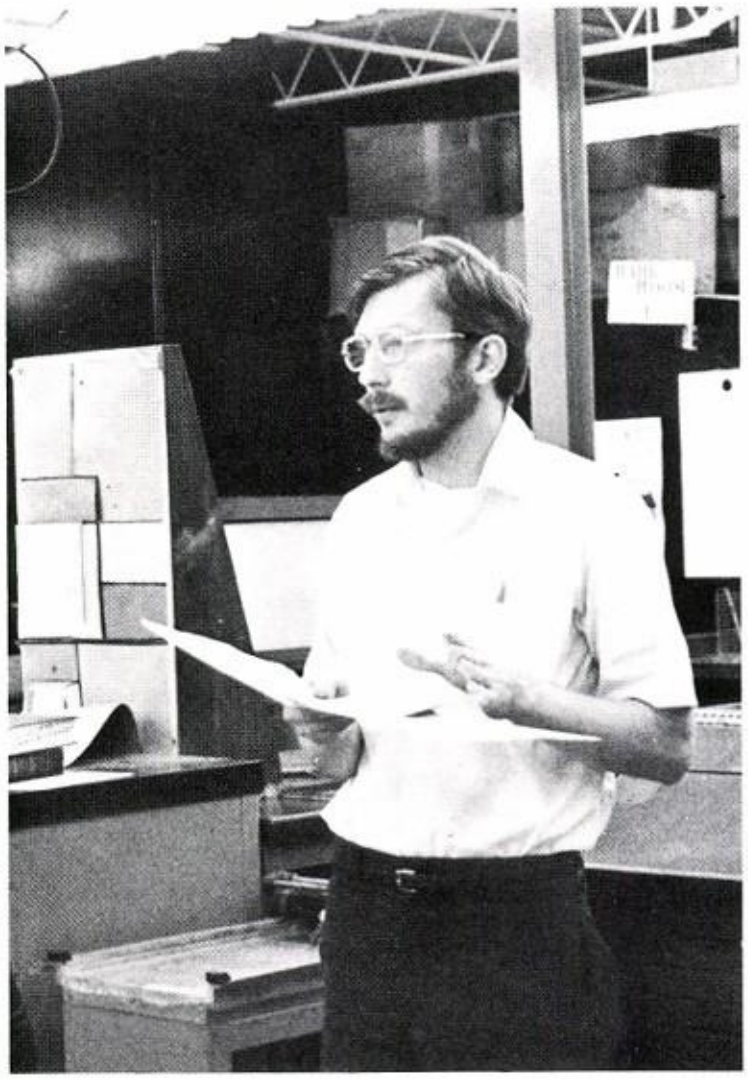
Metal and auto shop teacher, Mr. Dan Boase, discusses alloys.



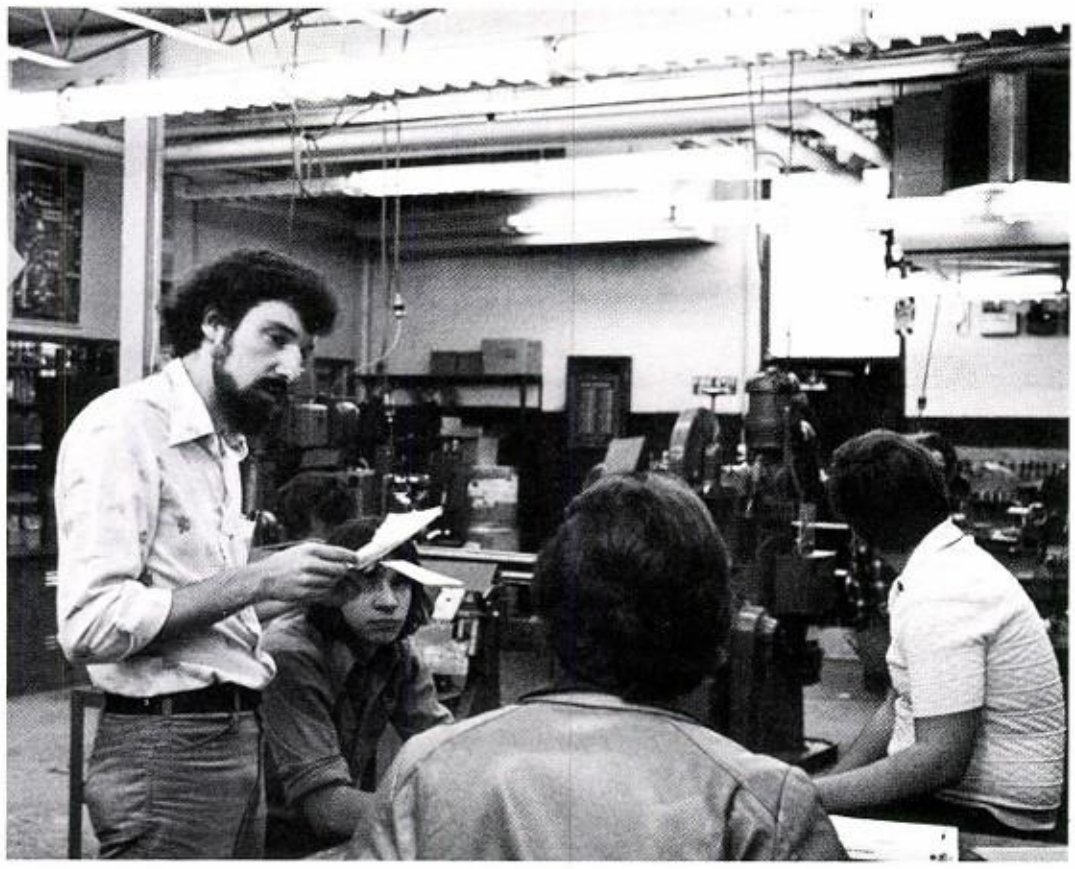
Explaining about isometric construction is Mr. Blake Logue.

Sophomore class sponsor, Mr. William Dyda, reminds his students about keeping neatness an important factor in making a layout.

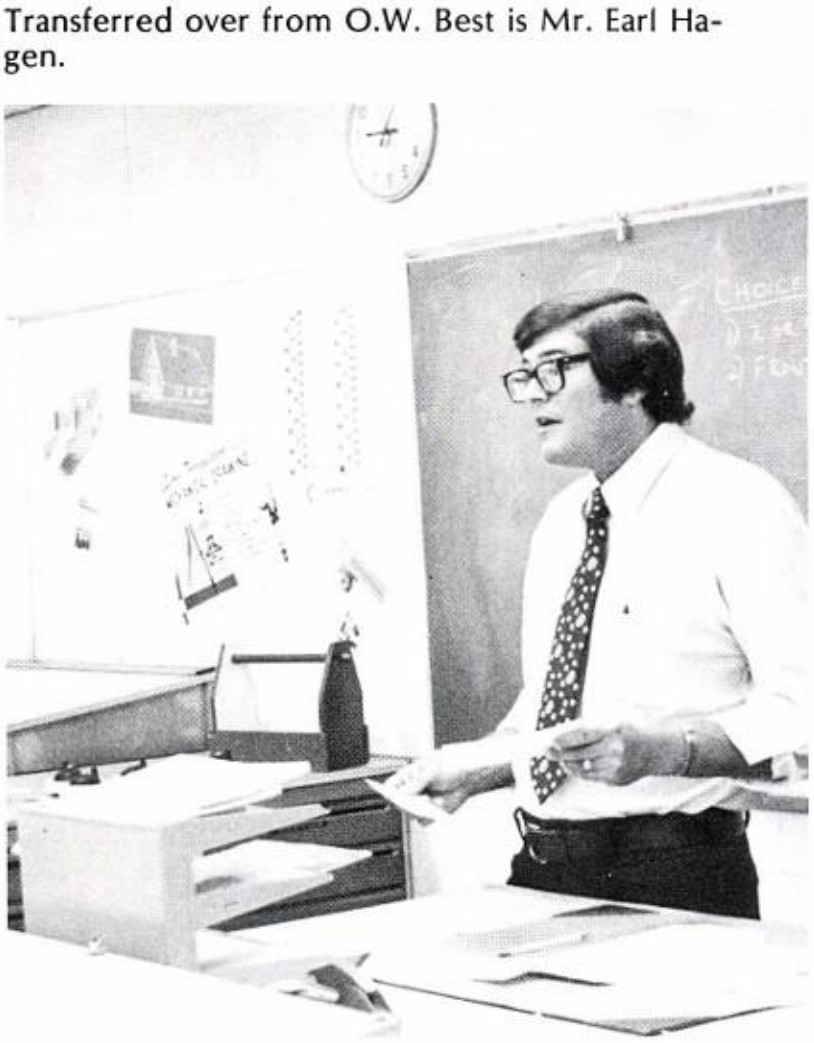
Industrial Education Strives For Excellence.



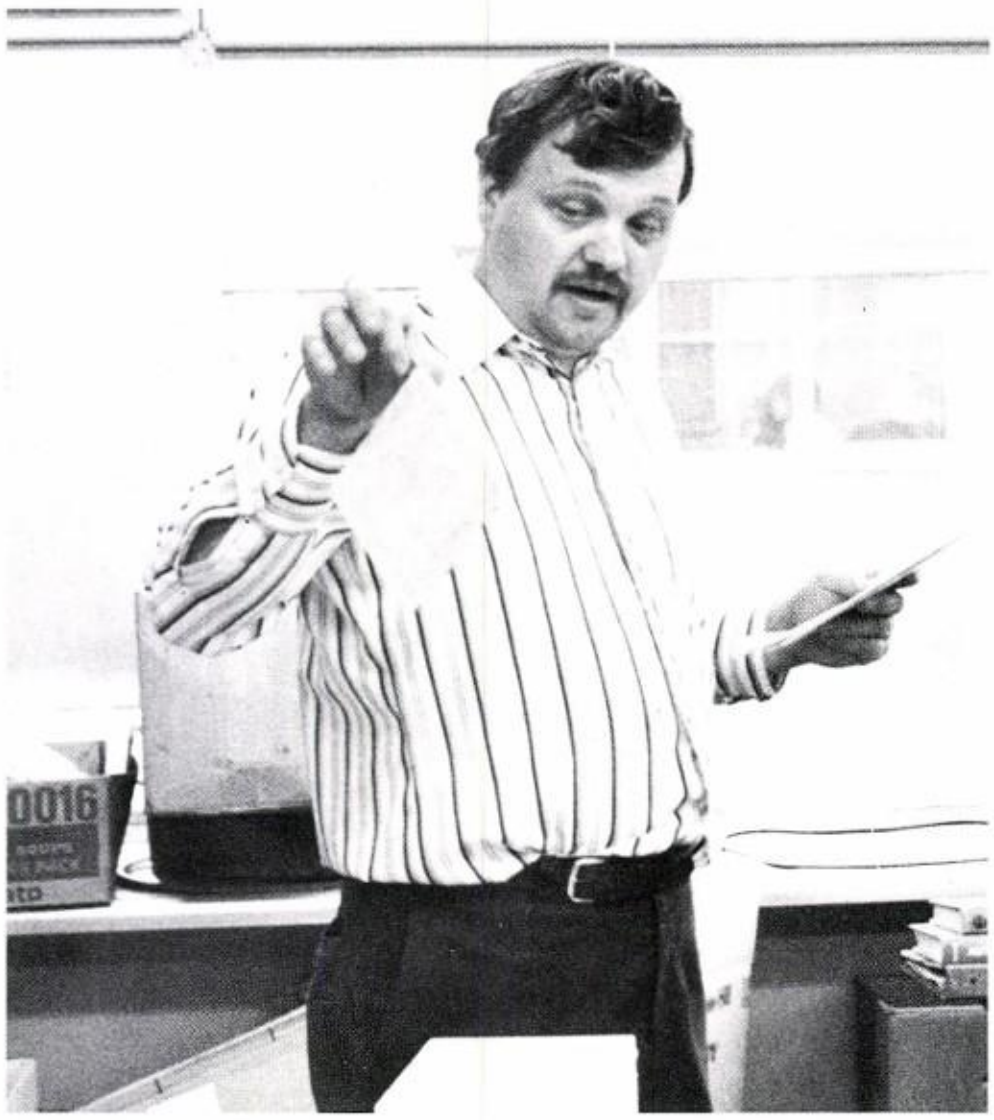
Transferred over from O.W. Best is Mr. Earl Hagen.



In metal shop, Mr. Dave Langdon stresses important safety factors.



Co-op Coordinator, Mr. Terry McDonald, asks a question about jobs.



Auto shop teacher, Mr. Dennis Patrick, lectures on all aspects of the automobile in Auto 1&2.

Art, Music, Show Great Talent

The Cougar band, choir, and art classes show great talent and school pride. The band has added a flag corp and has become a precision marching unit, which added more interest to the Homecoming game.

The choir has improved much this year with many new faces. They worked hard to perform their concerts with much spirit and enthusiasm.

The art classes show many great talents as you may have seen in the art showcase. They would like to have semester classes that specialize in individual fields.

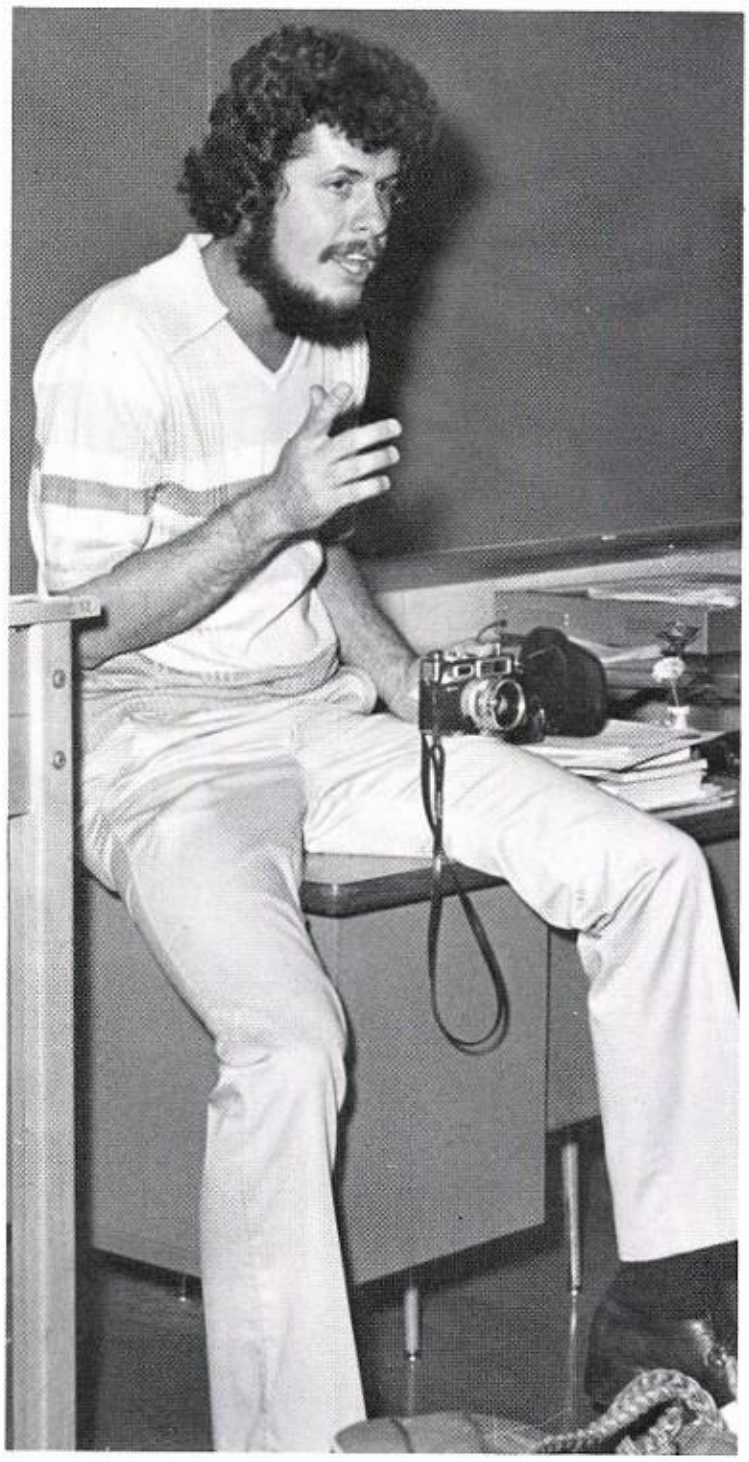
MRS. PATRICIA BIRDSALL takes a deep breath before starting.

MR. THOMAS MUSSON gives direction to the concert band.

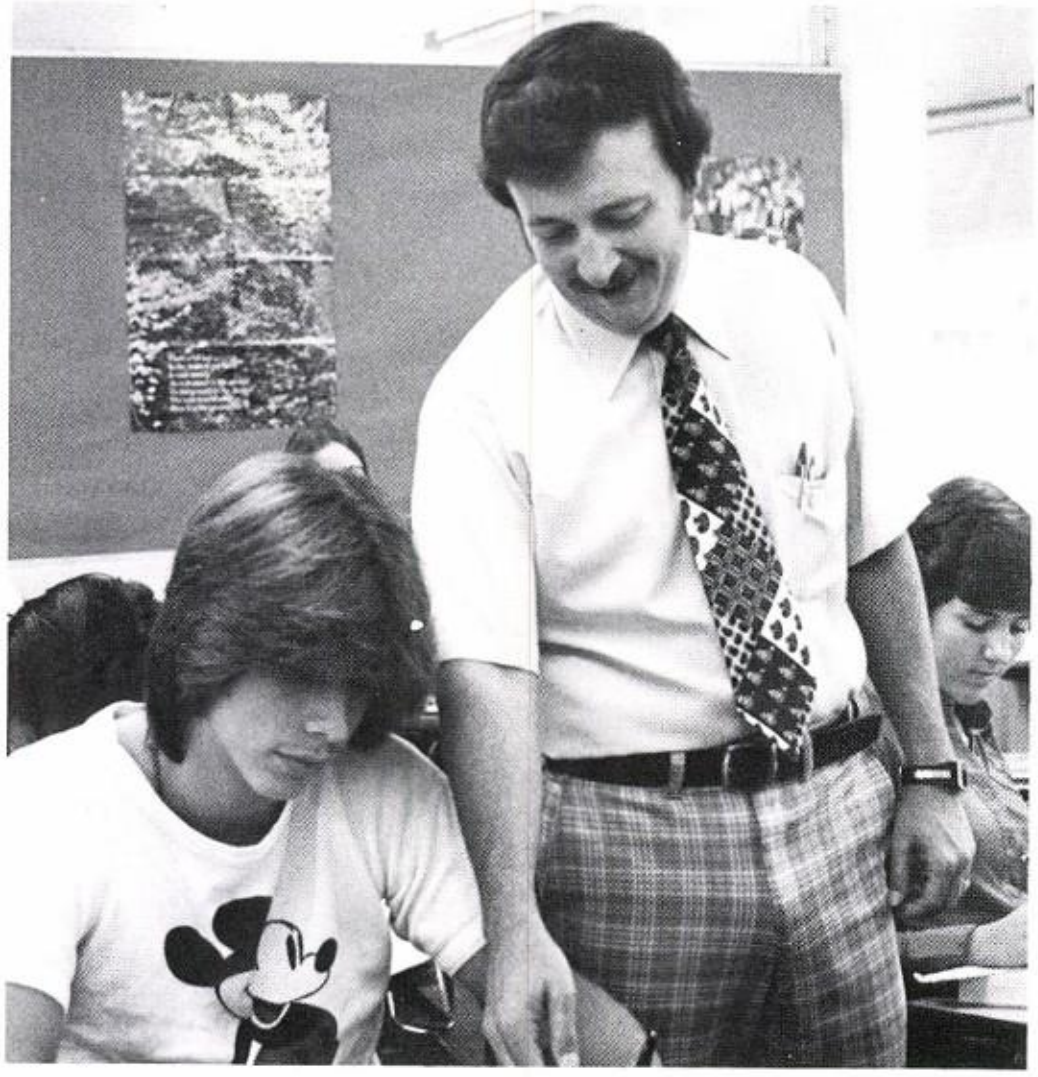
MS. CAROL BOURASSA smiles at a talented students' work.

Communication Skills: The Key To Tomorrow

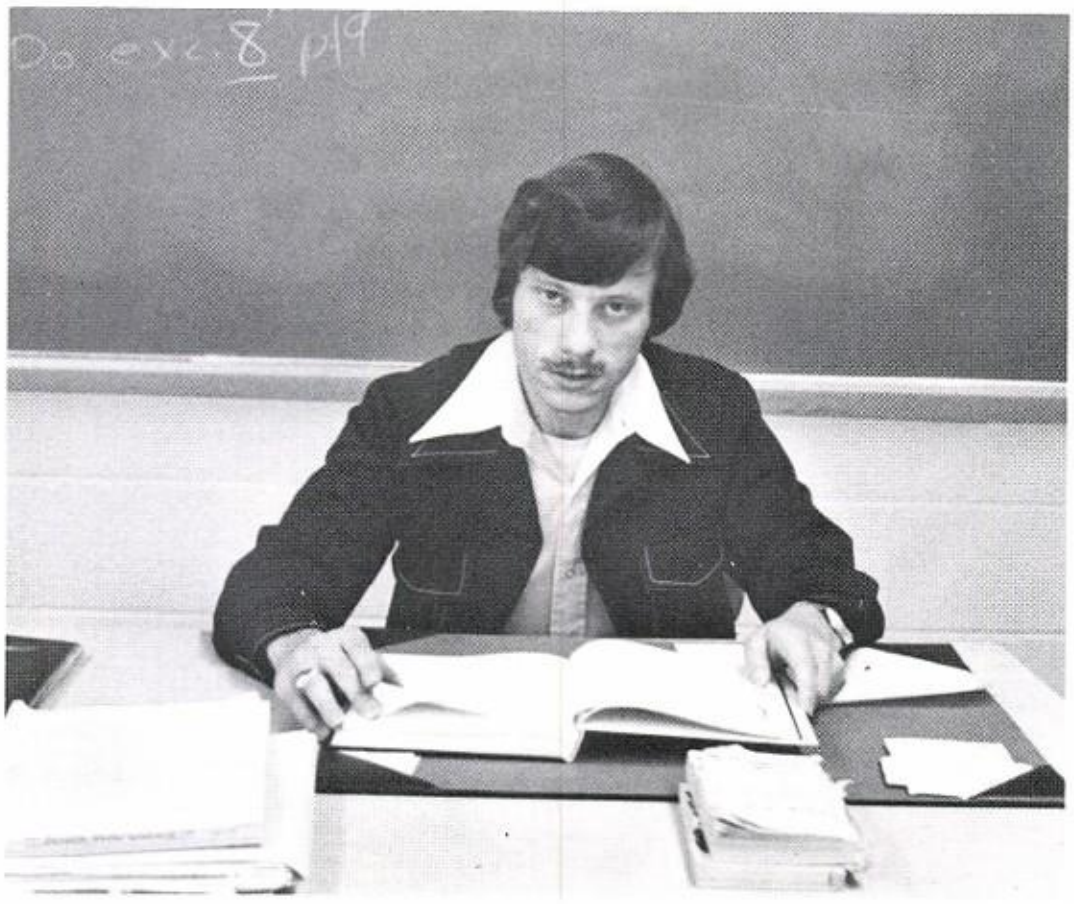
With the increasing demand across the country to place a greater emphasis on fundamental skills such as writing, reading, speaking and even listening; the English courses like the language they're named after, are being altered where necessary to meet the needs of the times. The English department feels strongly that when a student graduates, he should be equipped with these essential communication skills so that the future can indeed hold promise and not false hope.



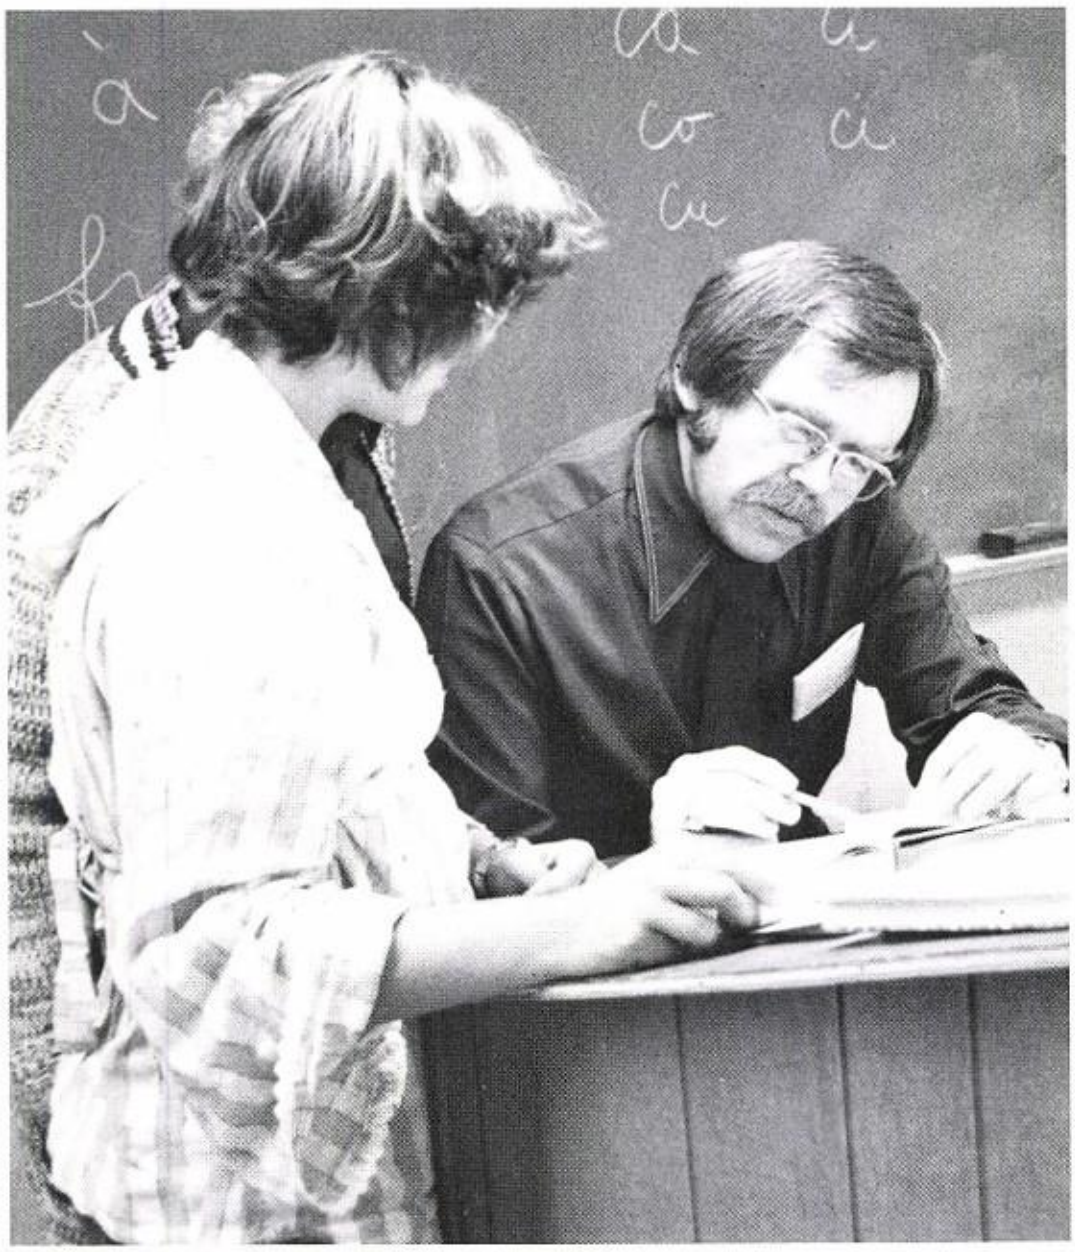
MR. DANIEL GASS, an interesting teacher, shows his Newspaper class the way to use a camera.



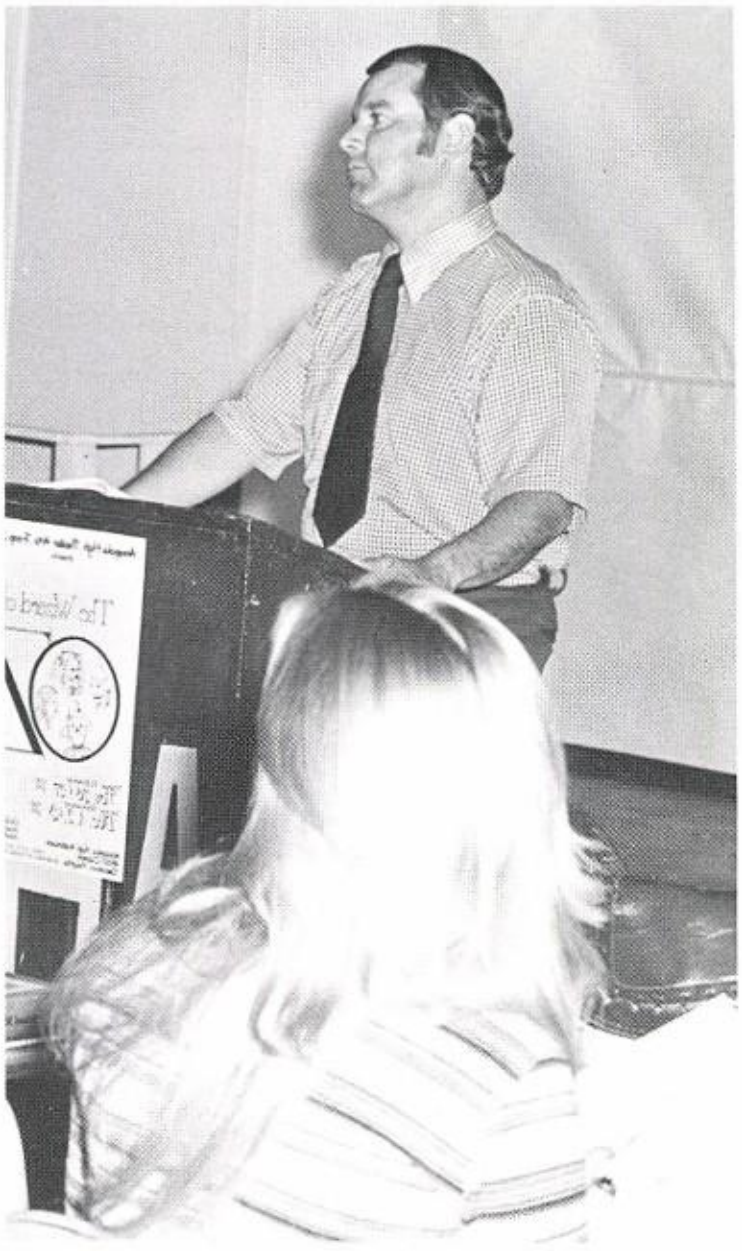
MR. GERALD RADUS, head of the English Department, shows Jim Connett an interesting way to begin his next paragraph.



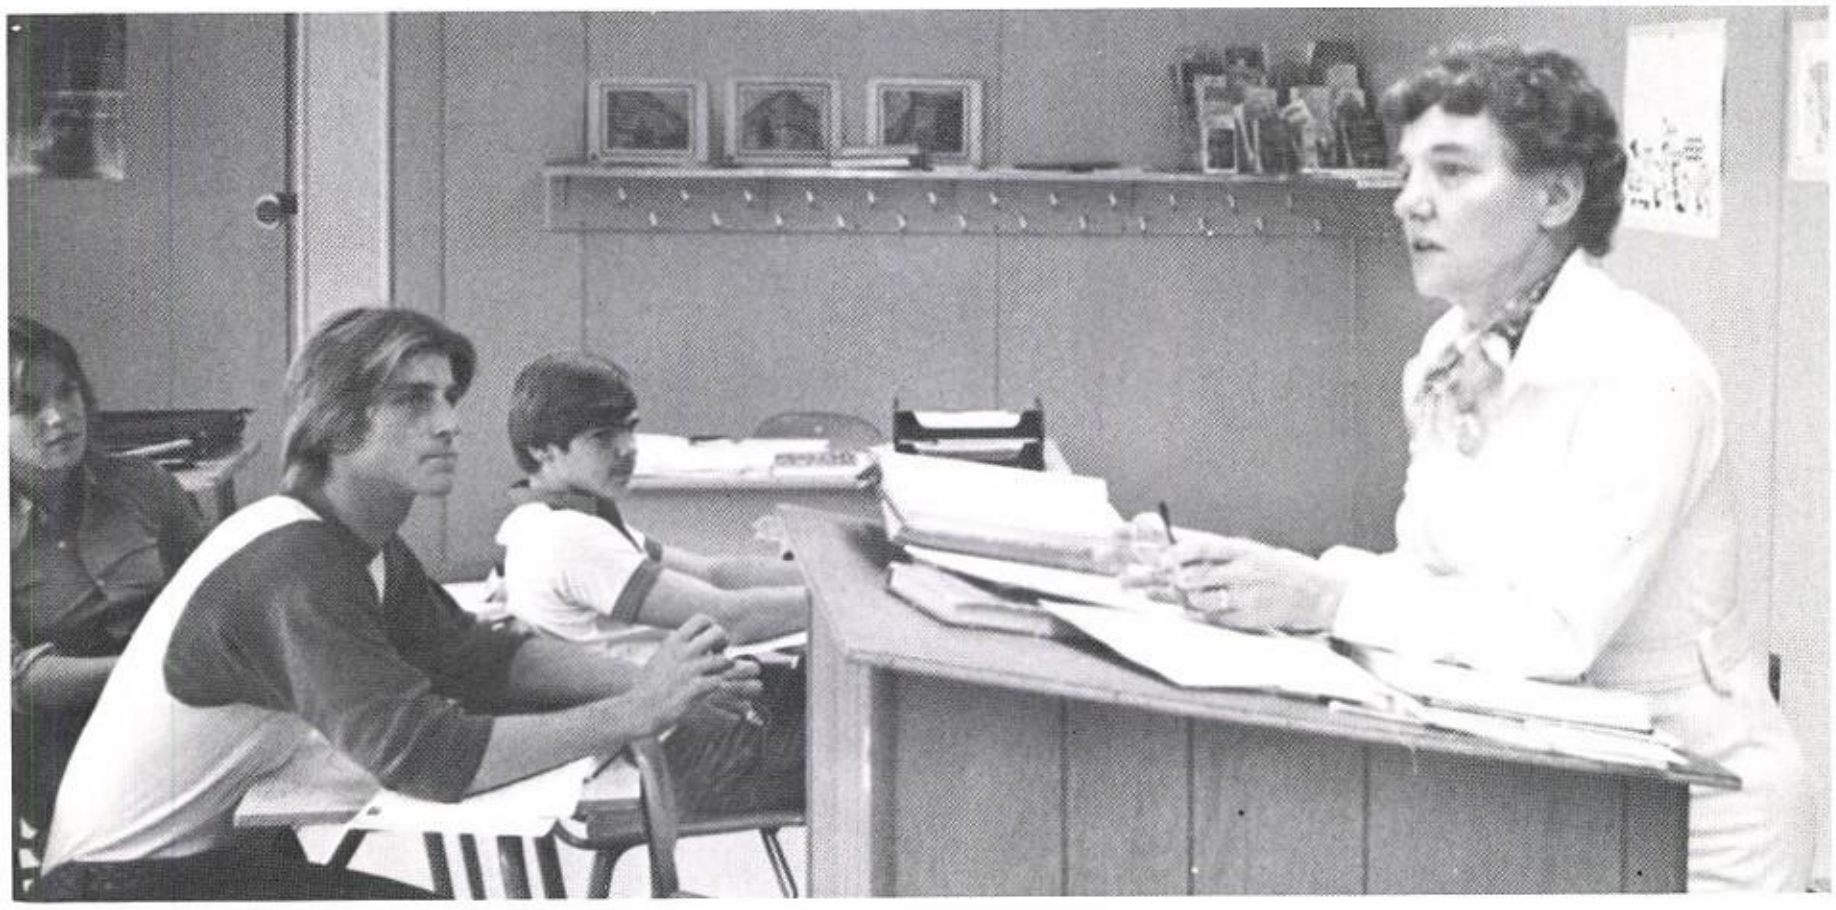
MR. DARRYL GONCHAROFF, our Publications and Student Council sponsor, returned as Assistant Football Coach after a one year retirement.



Our foreign language teacher, Mr. Willard Grant, takes time to explain a students' assignment.

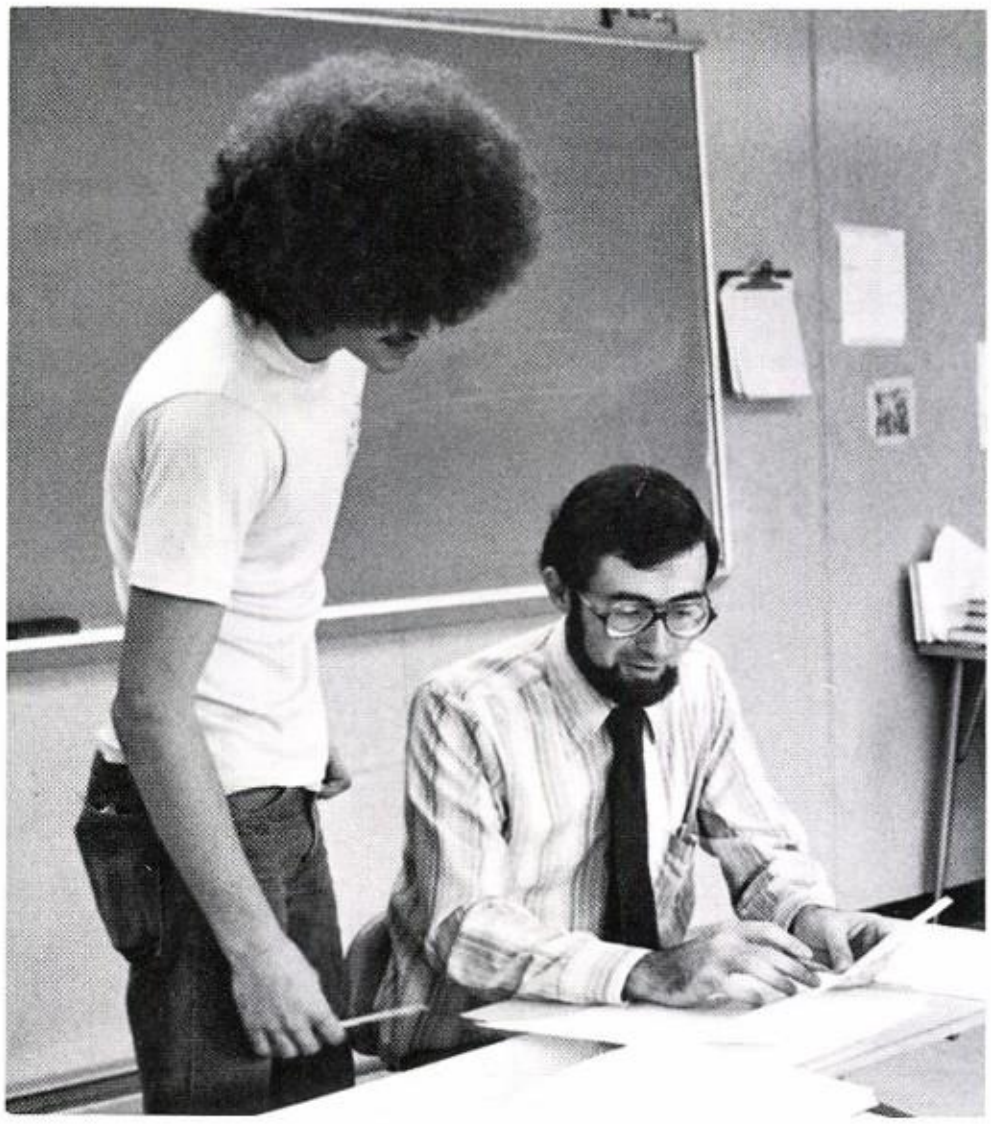


MR. ROBERT NANNI, our theatre arts instructor, lectures on the importance of speech communication.

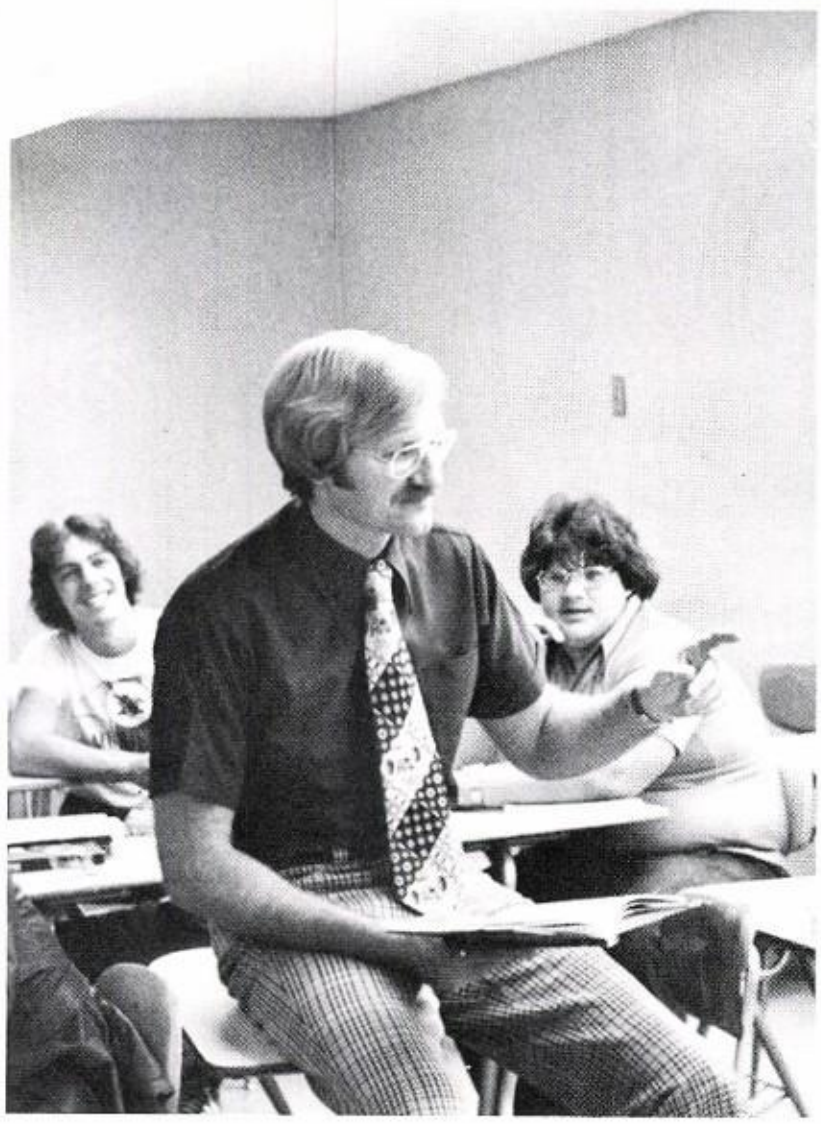


MRS. MARILYN KREAGAR listens attentively during her 20th Century Novels class.

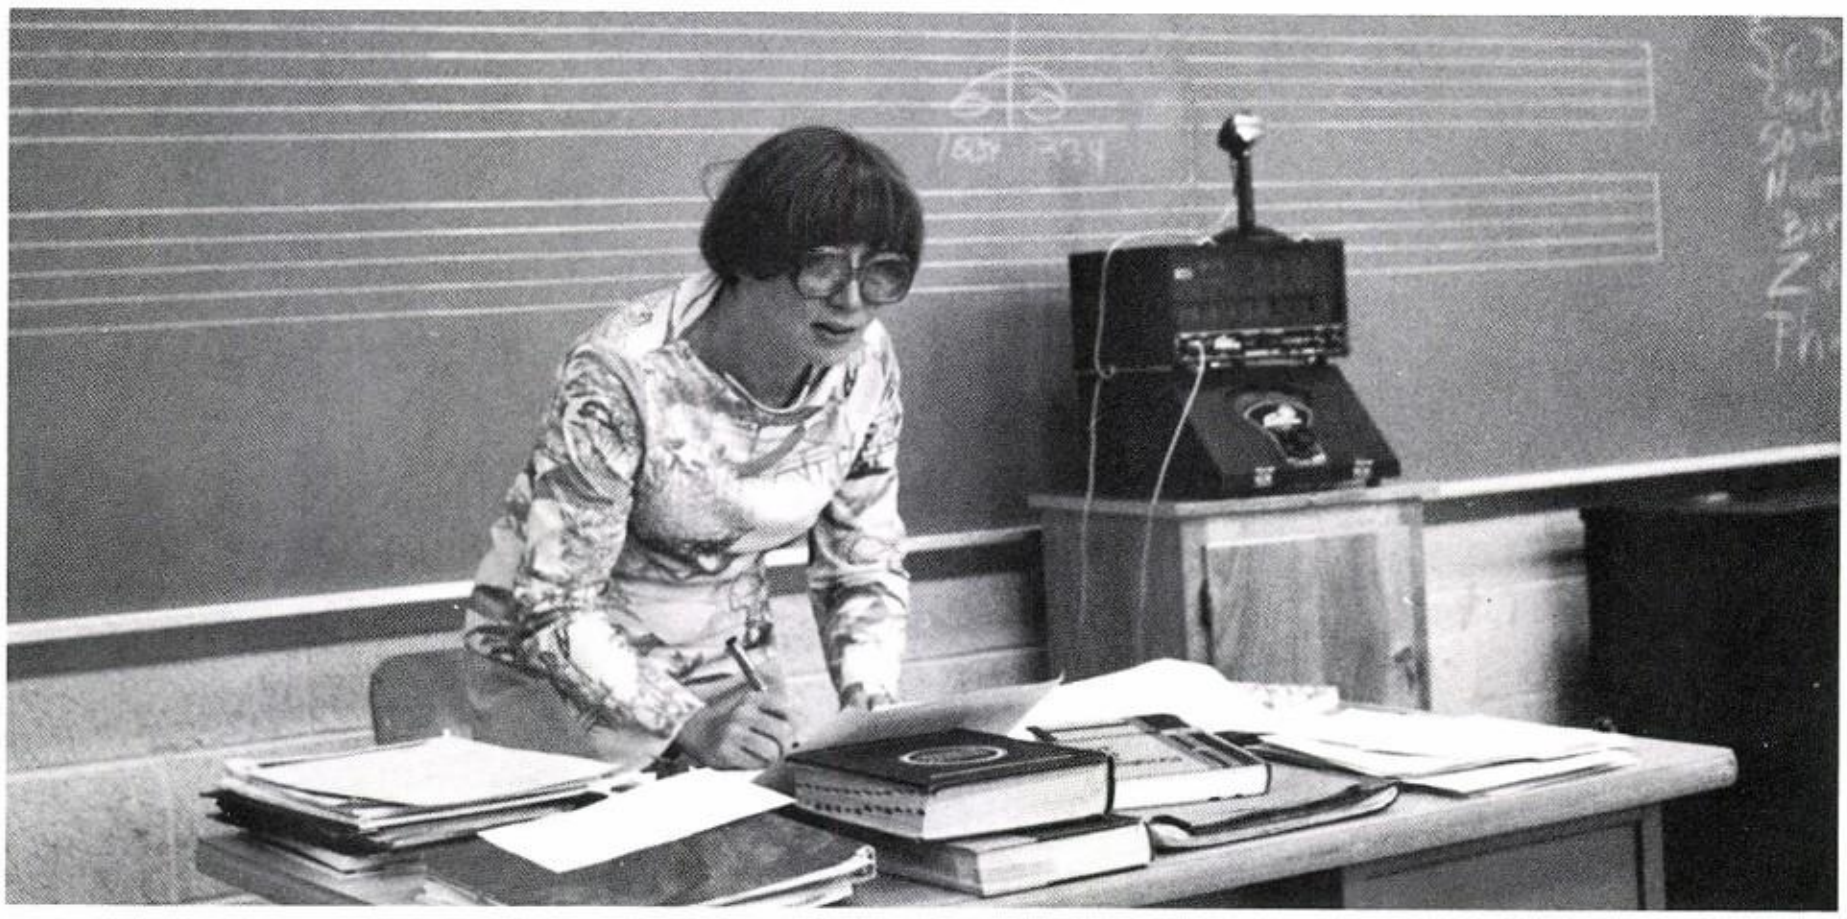
Striving For Better Fundamental Skills



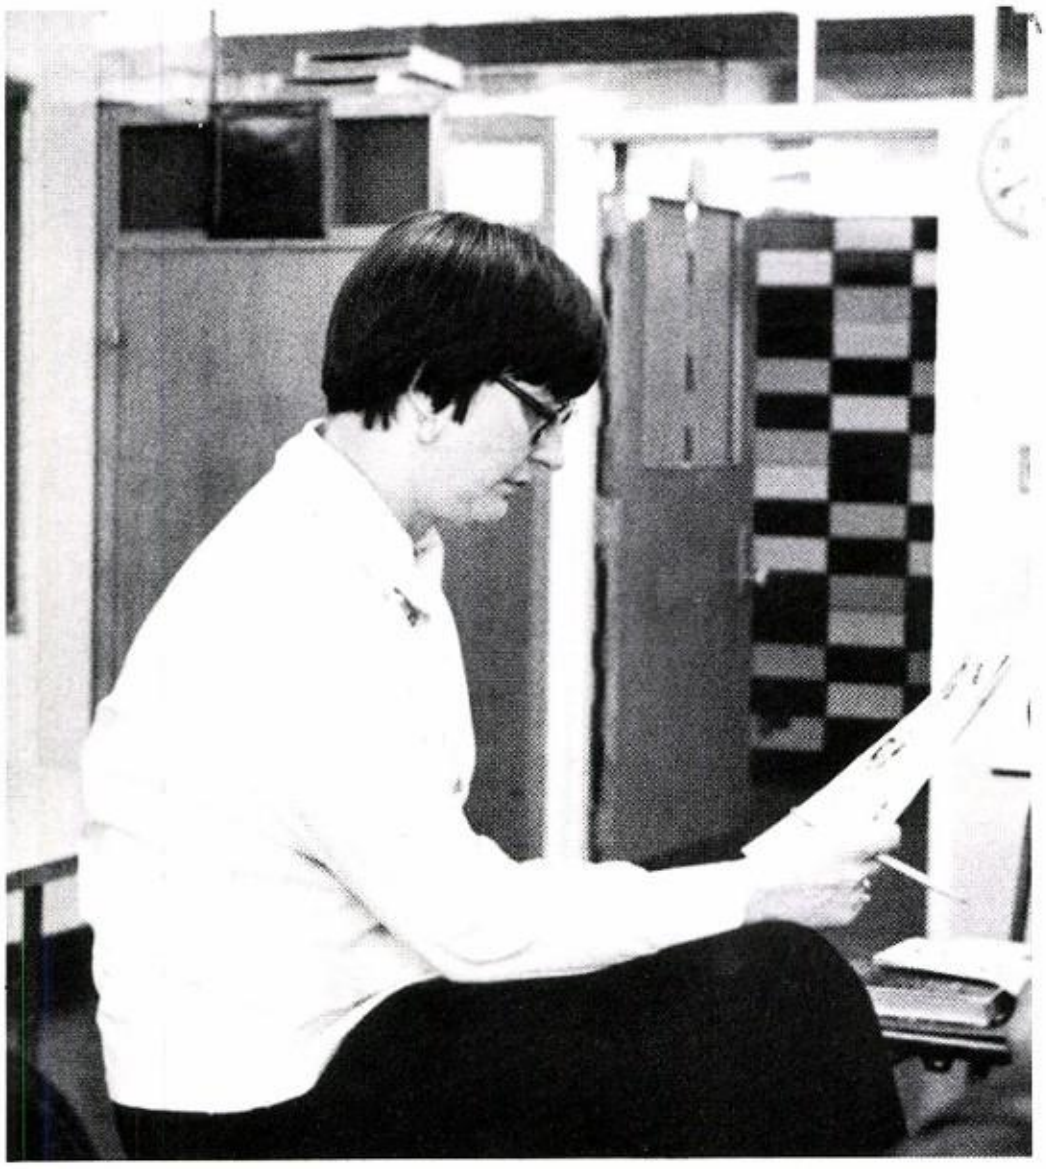
MR. JON PILON corrects a punctuation mistake on Darryl Podzervinski's paper.



MR. STEVE PACHY proves a point to suspecting seniors on a test day.

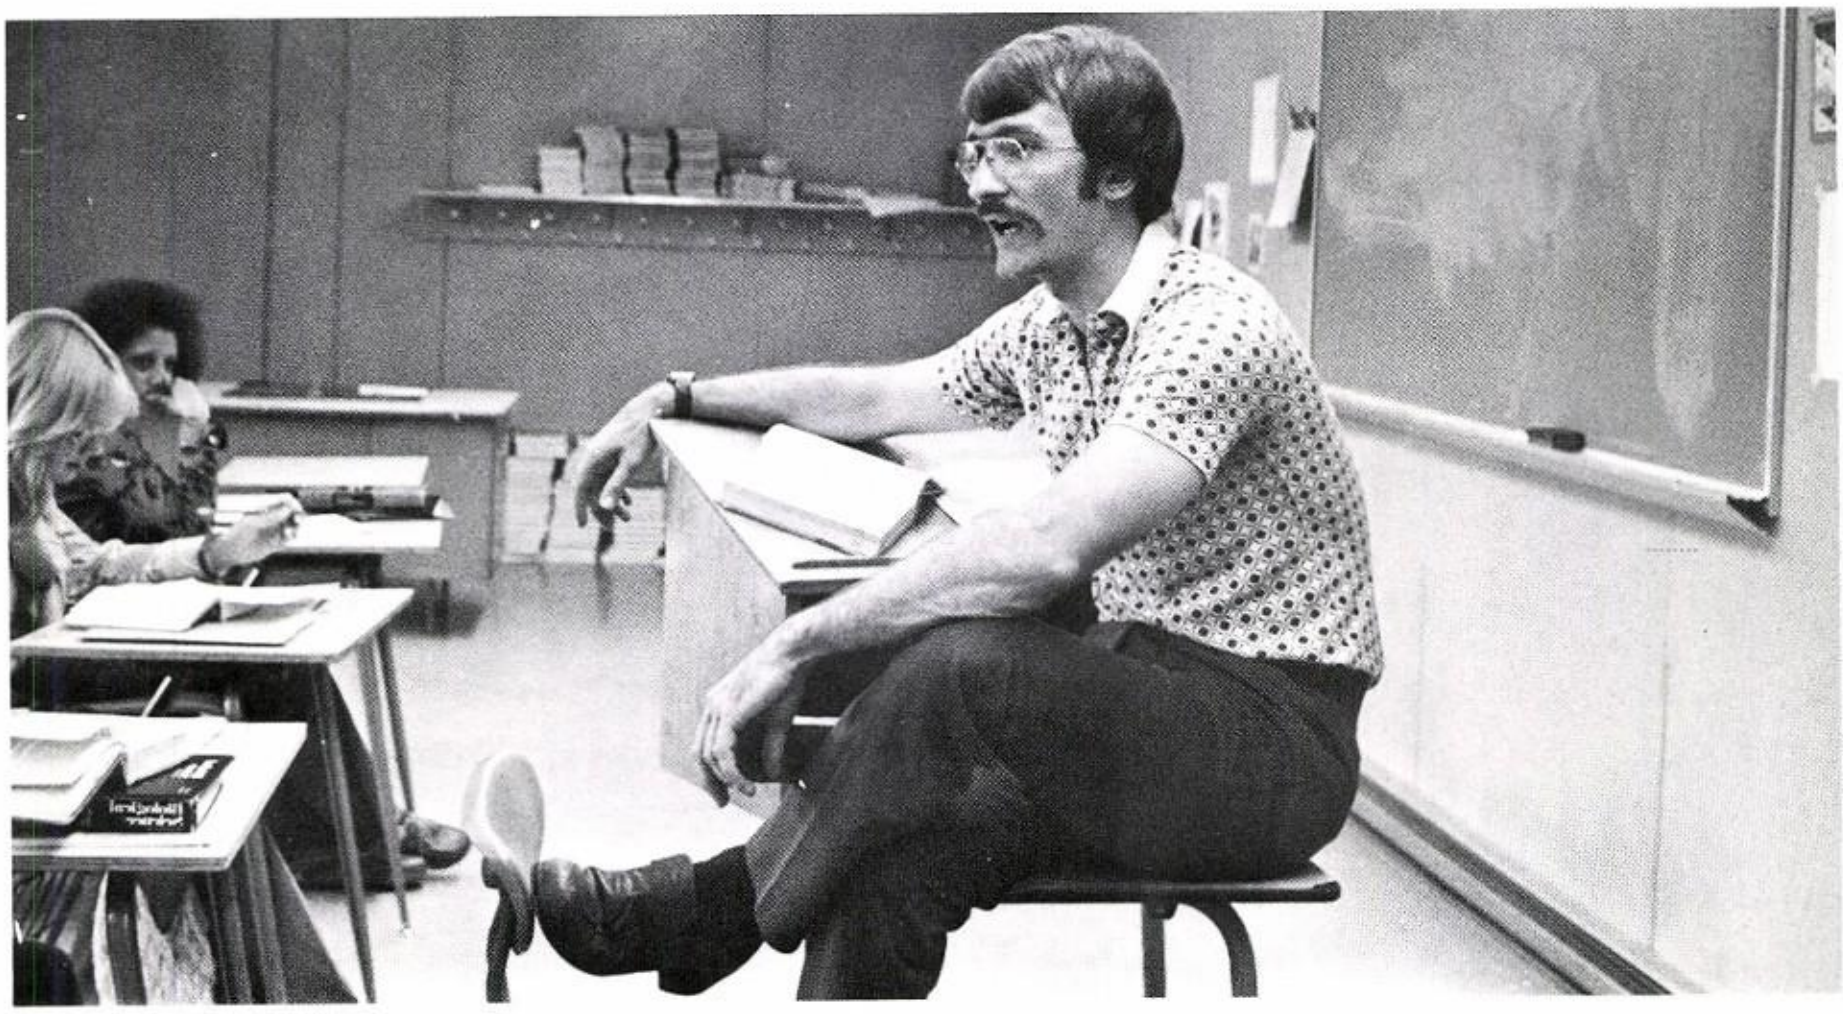


MRS. PATRICIA BIRDSALL gives the results of the passed short story quiz.



MISS NANCY LEHNERT looks over some composition papers prepared by her students.

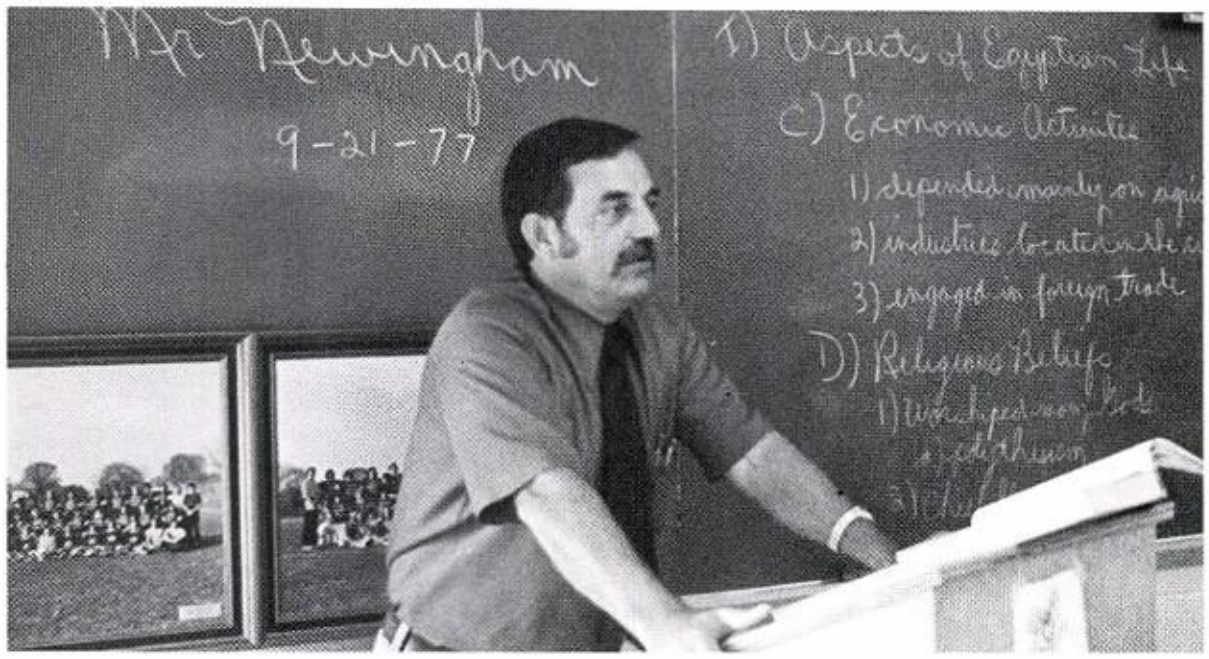
MRS. RITA STEIN answers various questions on paragraph structure.



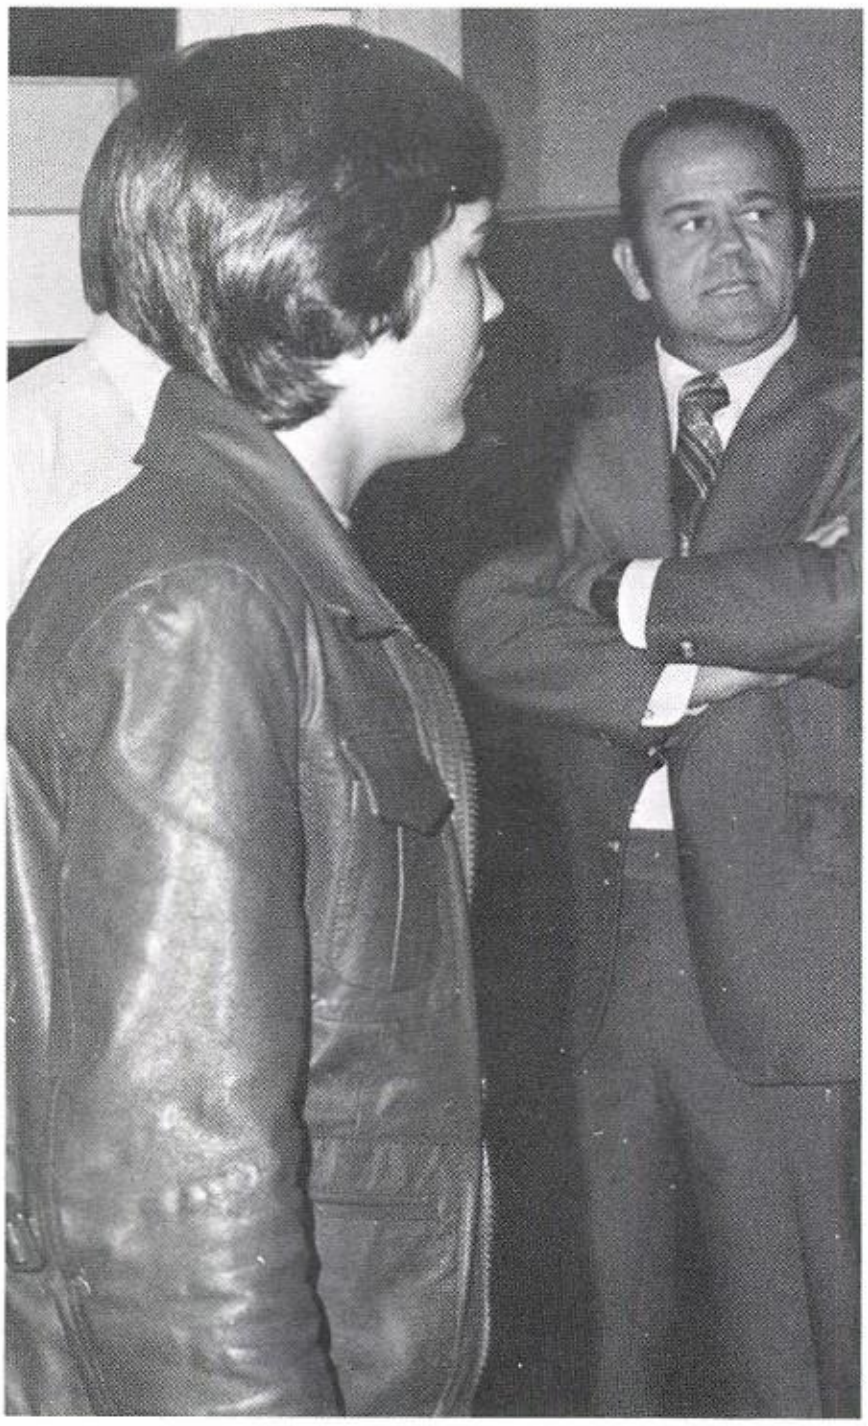
MR. COLIN CURTIS lectures on verb and noun usage to his 2nd hour sophomores.

Studying The Past Aids The Future

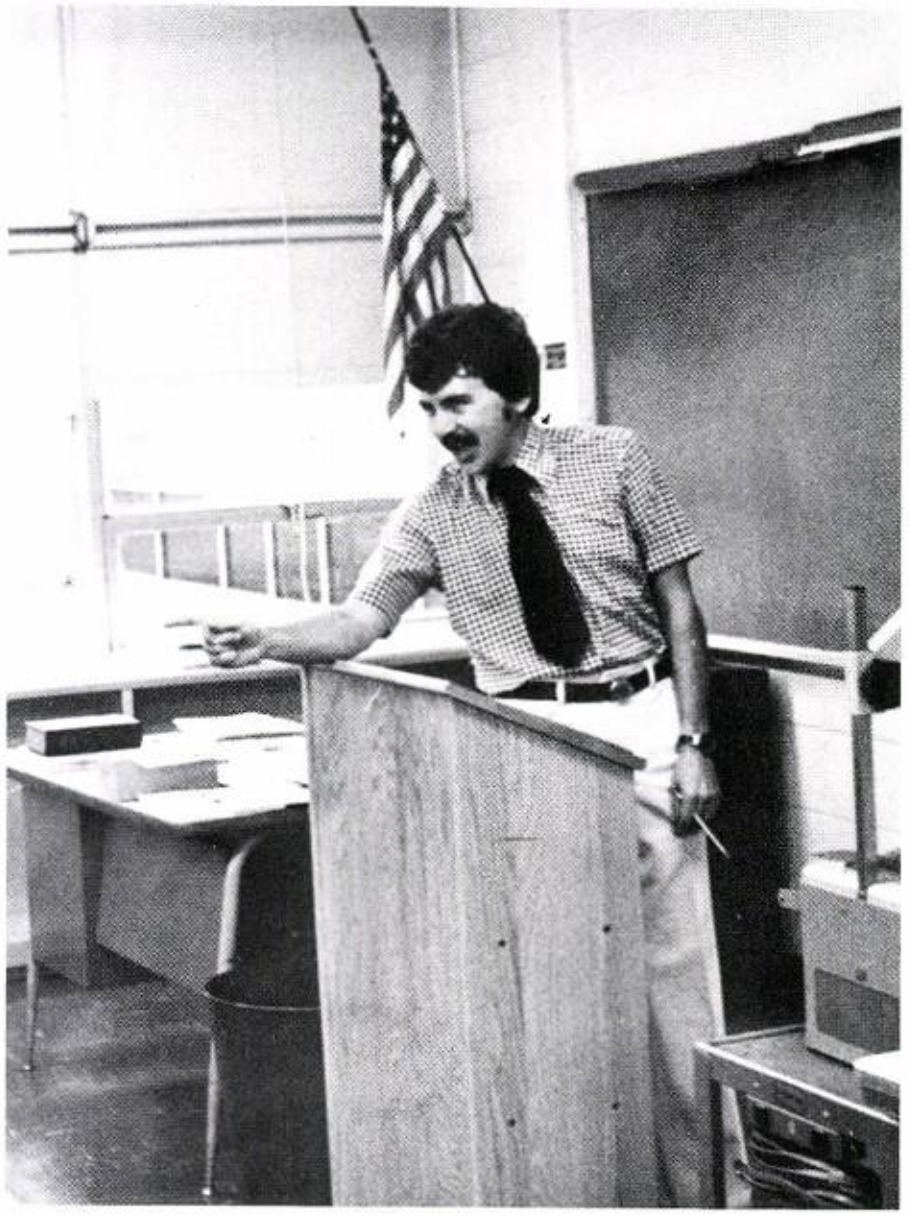
The History Department will be cutting down on the number of electives offered to the students in the years to come because of the declining enrollment in the district. We do hope however to keep those classes of the most student interest as part of our curriculum, such as Ancient History and Medieval History.



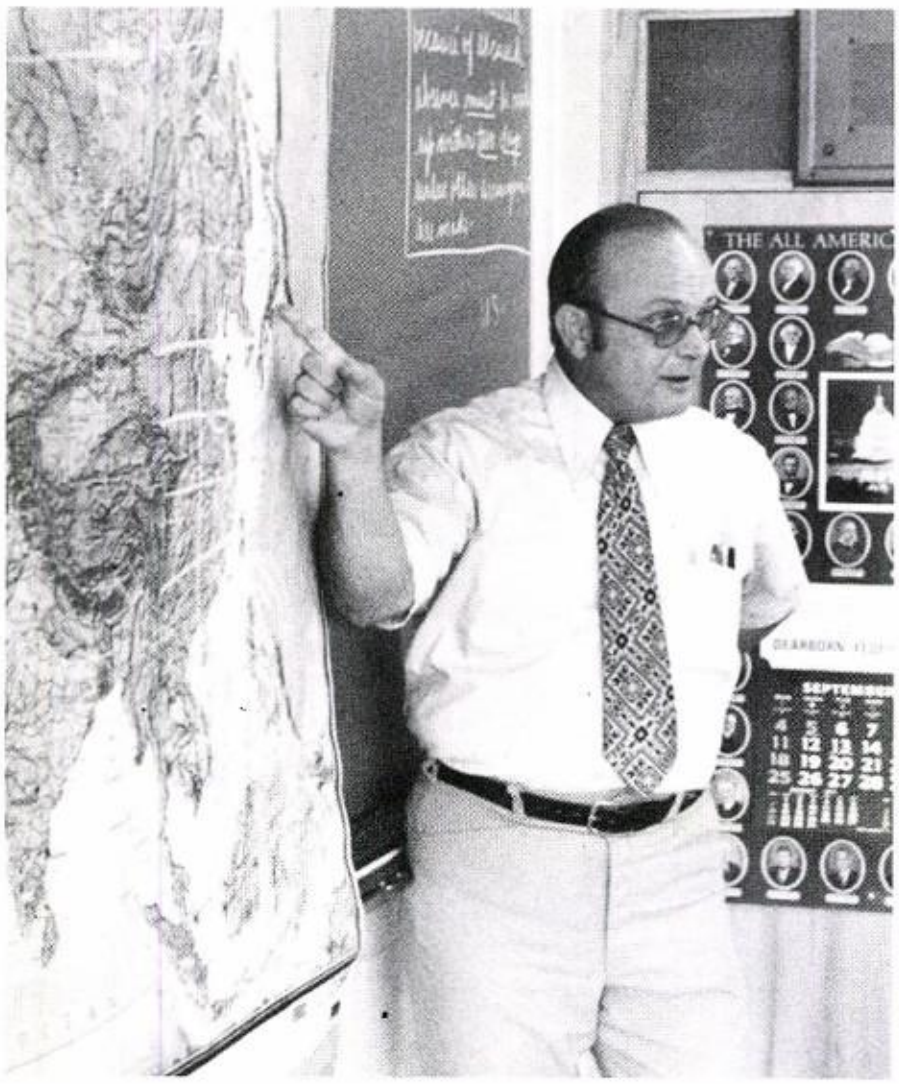
MR. JACK NEWINGHAM head football coach, gives a promise of a winning Homecoming Game.



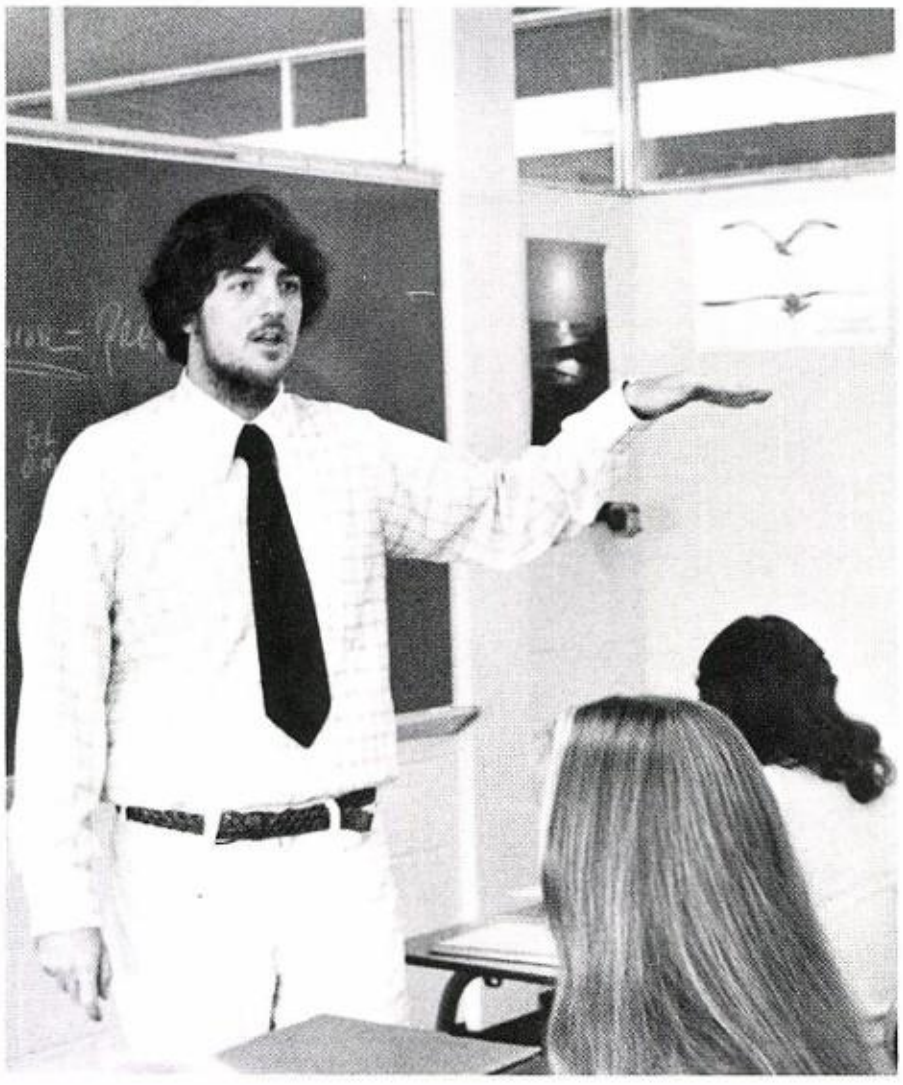
MR. WILLIAM QUIGLEY is well known for a barrel of laughs.



A familiar face like Mr. Bill Dummer, is not only found teaching government during the day, but also after school giving time for National Honor Society.

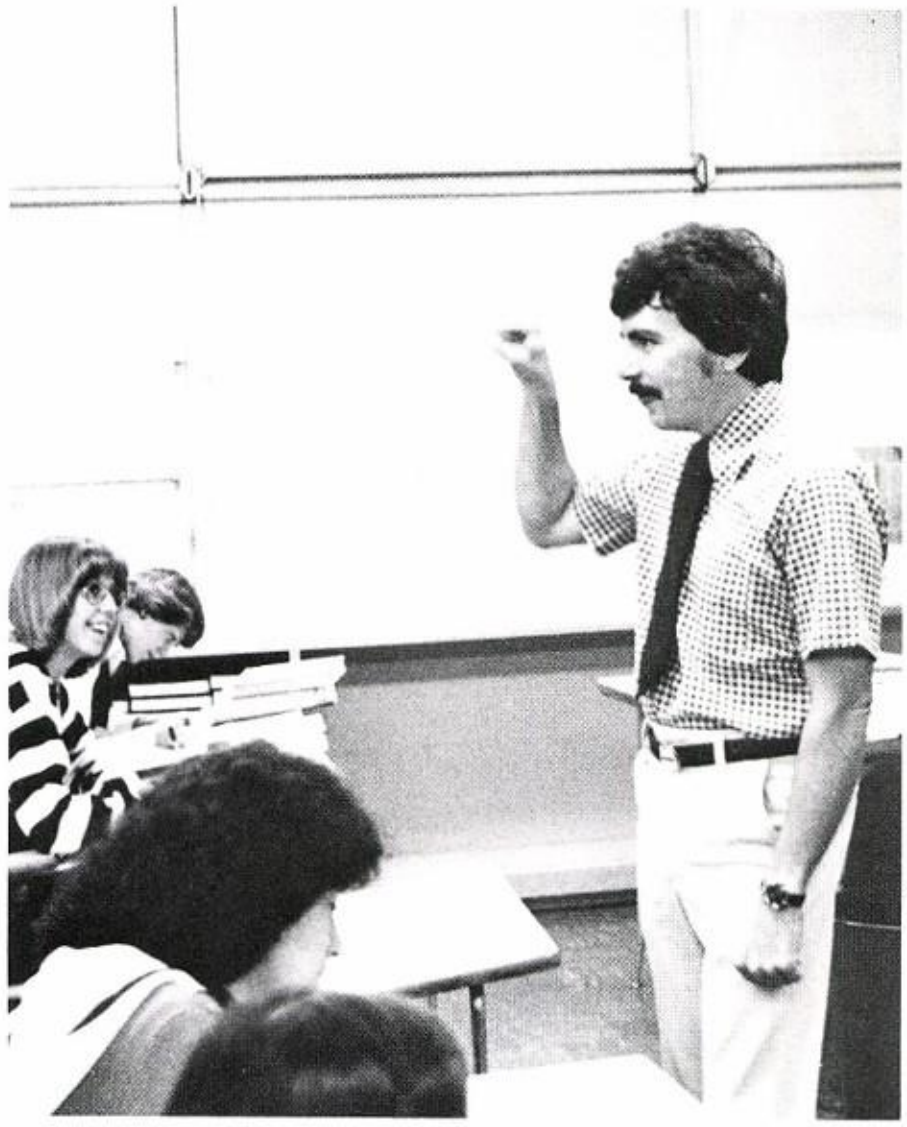


MR. EDWARD EGLINTON teaches his class about American History.



MR. DAVID SIMOWSKI shows his class just how far he can go.

MS. JUDY MCCARTHY teaches the basics of government.



MR. BILL DUMMER stresses a very important point.

Helping Hands Build Futures

Our cooks and custodians do alot of work to benefit our future. The hot meals our cooks make daily are satisfying as well as filling. The care and quality that goes into our lunches are appreciated. The Head of the cooks is Maxine Jeters and head of custodians is Mr. Leonard Baggett.

MRS. MARY ANNICHINI, mother of former band leader, Mr. Vincent Annichini.

Evening custodian, Mrs. Marge Revoir, takes a break from cleaning the Biology room.

MRS. MAXINE JETERS, our head cook, is getting ready for lunchtime.

MRS. VIOLA SPAZZARINI helps prepare the kitchen for lunch.

MRS. JEANNE STEFFES makes our hot lunches.

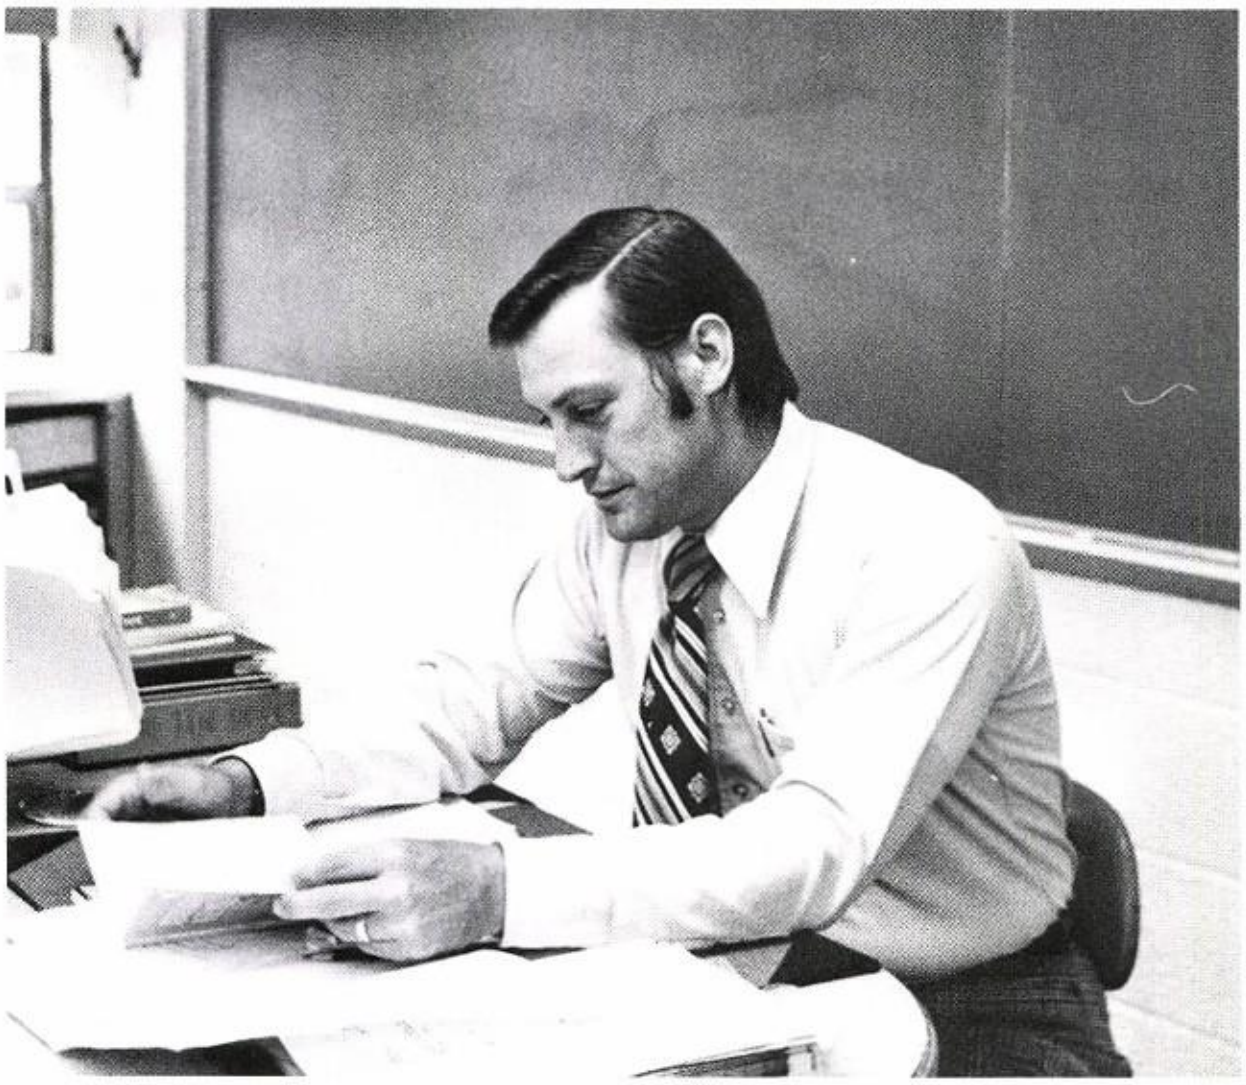
Co-Op Program Is Added To Meet Future Needs

With the implementation of Public Act #198, Dearborn Heights School District #7 has begun to upgrade its overall special education program.

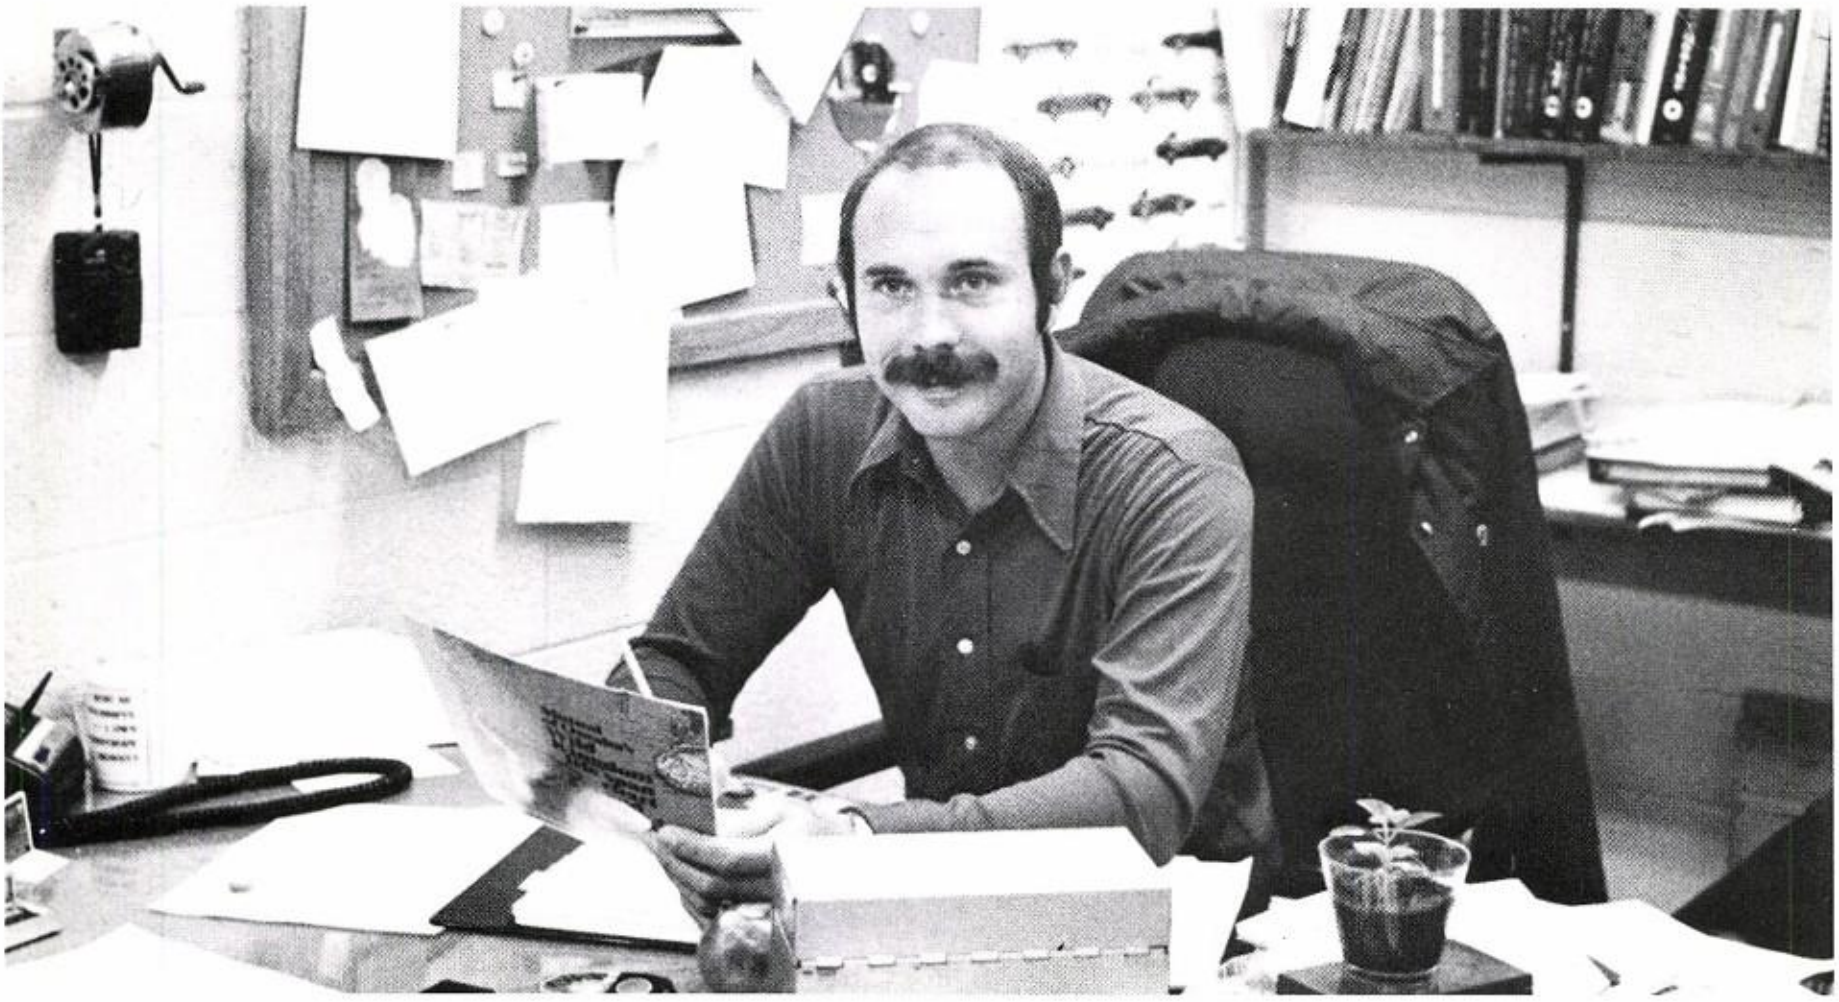
At Annapolis, a teacher has been added to meet the needs of the growing program. With the added teacher we have been able to lower the class load, thus, allowing the teachers to work individually with the students.

To meet the vocational guidelines of P. A. 198, we have also established a co-op program. Mr. Oldham has taken in the task of placing those who must have vocational experience prior to graduation.

The hopes of our special education department is that through close understanding of our student, we have prepared them for a productive and satisfying life.



MR. WILLIAM PARKER has devoted much time to this expanded program.



MR. NEAL OLDHAM, who assists Mr. Parker, also serves as Junior Class Sponsor.

AS WE GO THROUGH LIFE WE

LOOK TOWARD THE FUTURE

If we could just learn to live, love, and laugh
all along life's winding paths;
To look back at what we were yesterday and know we've changed in many ways;
To look at what we may be tomorrow and aspire to great heights and wonder how.

If we could only see what tomorrow will bring we'd then have the knowledge of everything;
And knowing then what tomorrow could hold we'd strike out anew, brazen and bold;
Making life something worthwhile in the world
then the promises of tomorrow would surely unfurl.

Drill Team Starts As Winners!

Lots of spirit and the qualities of a hard-worker are needed to be on the Annapolis Drill Team. The Drill Team practices all year starting from June until the new squad is picked the following year. In June the four officers went to a camp in Ohio, bringing back a first-place trophy. One month later the entire Drill Team went to camp in Rochester also bringing back a first-place trophy. The credit for the new uniforms goes to their ex-sponsor Miss Attard. The Drill Team is always on the look out for new ideas and outstandng routines.

Striving For Number One!

TONY MARIJANOVICH and DAVE MORGAN explain their layout to Mr. Goncharoff.

With only three returning members from last year, the 1978 Publications Class was faced with a vastly inexperienced staff of 17. But in the final analysis the group proved to be quite competent headed by the Editor-in-Chief, Karen Miller. The theme "Promises for Tomorrow", was developed by the staff. Also, for the second straight year the Catamount features the senior pictures in a glossy color print with the help of Arella Studios.

Other notable changes for this edition included: the use of name slugs on each page for easy identification, the expanding of our daily life section whereby a large representation of the total student body was captured, and the adoption of a community life section featuring students away from the school. Next years staff will have more experience with at least five returning members.

Wrestlerettes Encourage Crowds

The Wrestlerettes provide encouragement for the crowd and wrestlers. They sold candy this year to raise money for their activities. Many of the wrestlerettes are sophomores with new and interesting ideas. Patty Phillips, captain of this year's squad, has enjoyed her three years with the club. This is Mr. Bryan's second year as sponsor.

Spirit, Pride, And Enthusiasm

With help from their new sponsor, Miss Pat Sullivan, the cheerleaders have achieved great success this past year. They started out by bringing home many ribbons and awards from camp. Out of fifty-two squads they were nominated for the Award of Excellence.

Next came football season, pep rallies and a winning Homecoming float. After these, came a very successful basketball season.

Promoting school spirit, pride, and enthusiasm are just a part of what these girls are dedicated to.

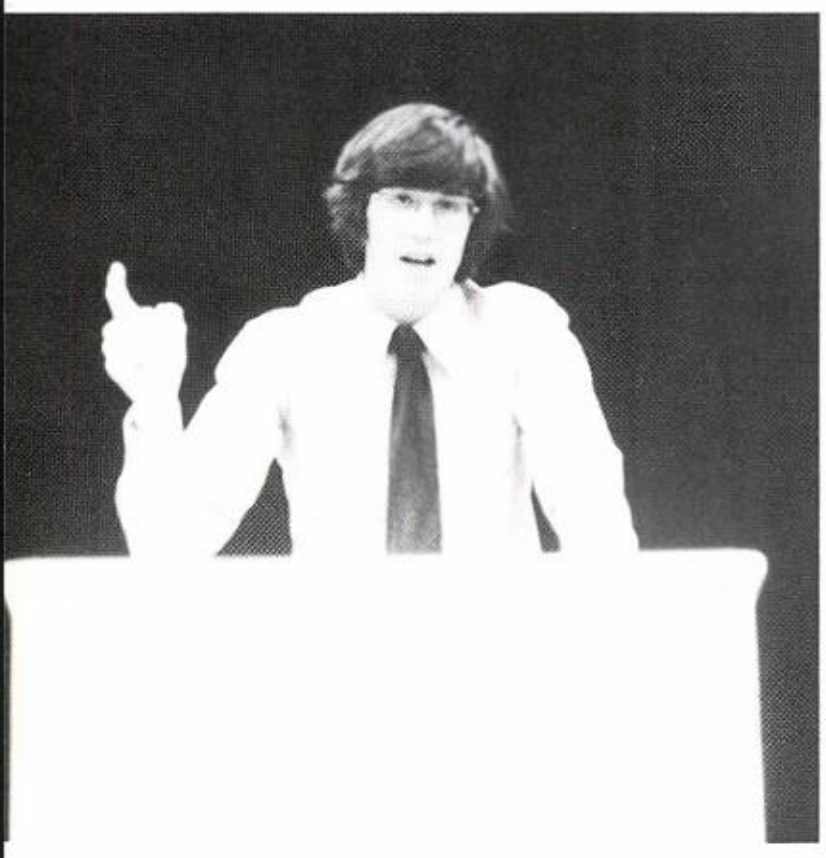
The National Honor Society: Not Totally



BILL GIOIOSA, also a member of the Debate club, stresses a point during his rebuttal.

It is an honor to be invited to join the National Honor Society. It takes at least a 3.3 average and extreme involvement in school activities to be asked. But the N.H.S. is not totally based on academics. This Society deals with much more: the sincere smile of thanks from an elderly patient when we visit a nursing home during Christmas; an appreciative glance from a mentally disabled child at the zoo or the joyous scream of a student who receives a scholarship at the Honors Assembly.

Flexibility And Hard Work Reflect Council

Council member, Sue Cetnar, arranges decorations for hallway.

A major revamping of Pride Week was one of the major accomplishments of the student council. The nominating of Pride Queen and King was changed to allow more flexibility on giving each organization the right to elect candidates. Amongst the events sponsored by the council during Pride Week were Parents Day; Secretaries Administration Day; Faculty Breakfast; All Night Basketball Dribble and the Pride Week Kick-off Dance.

Homecoming 1977 also kept the council busy earlier in the fall. The dedication ceremonies to the late Mr. John Blum, The homecoming alumni reception, the festive parade, half-time ceremonies of the football game and the dance the same night were coordinated by the council.

Newspaper: A Cry Of Success

The Newspaper staff works hard meeting deadlines to put out the Cougar Crier. Each issue offers a fresh outlook on editorials, school, local and even national news. Mr. Dan Gass, advisor for the staff, attempted to make this years paper better than ever. Improving the paper to the point of entering competition is under way.

"Dorothy" Visits Annapolis

The Theatre Arts Department started out this year with the musical WIZARD OF OZ, which was a great accomplishment for the cast and crew. The musical was primarily aimed more toward our youth or young at heart. The costumes and scenery reflected this with grossly exaggerated features.

The variety show THE SANDS OF TIME, which was put on for the student body, portrayed different types of dramatic talent. These ranged from pantomime and comedy to a fast moving tap dance.

The smash-hit Broadway musical FUNNY GIRL was put on in the spring to end a great year.

Sorceress of the North, played by Lucy Plata, calls upon Dorothy.

PAUL WHITE, an active member, is seen helping out.

First Year For Competition

Debate is an area that requires many hours of tedious research and the team adhered emphatically to this very point. This hard work brought something totally new to Annapolis; it was the first year in the school's history in which the Debate Team participated in inter-scholastic competition. Debate is a mental wrestling match which takes up much time and dedication.

Our idea of service is the "desire to be useful to others without the thought of recompense."

Paraphrase of Swedenborg, from "Arcona Caeleslu".

The accomplishments of this club have been great. They have canned food drives annually. The cans go to needy families. These girls had a May Day Party for the elderly people in a convalescent home. A Christmas party was put together for the Salvation Army kids. They collected money for a toy drive. It was a great project; for they loved the toys they received at Christmas. They also sponsored a dance. The clubs membership is lower but, in the years to come, they are hoping to keep the club together and have a greater turn out for the future. This group hopes that the clubs to come will accomplish; and feel as proud as they do at the present.

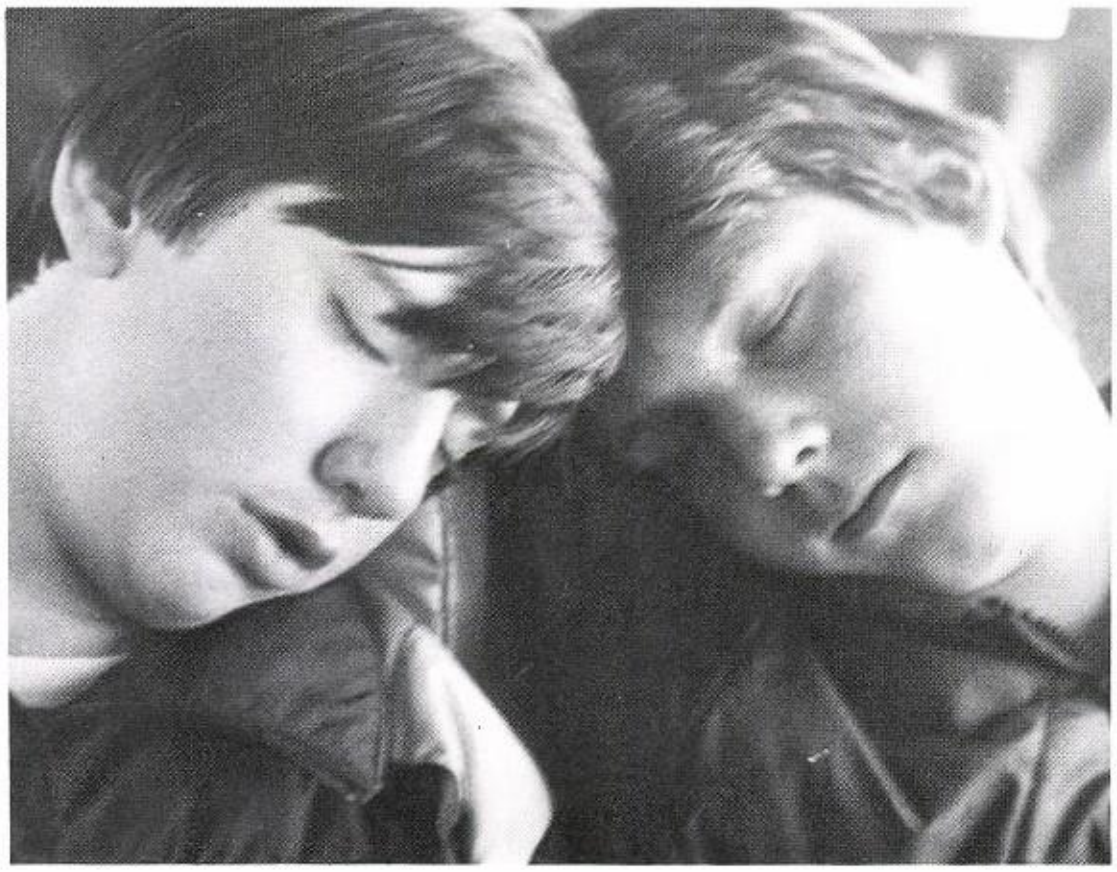
Two Weekends Highlight

The 1977-1978 Ski Club was the largest ever. Enthusiasm was high with over fifty students going skiing every Thursday night to Pine Knob when there was snow.

In addition the ski club went to Collingwood, Ontario to ski the weekend on the enormous hills of Blue Mountain. The ski club stayed in a Holiday Inn, which has an indoor swimming pool and sauna.

A second weekend trip was planned for Boyne Mountain. Spring skiing in March is very enjoyable.

This years ski club was the best ever with high participation and enthusiasm. The ski club is sponsored by Mr. Chuck Soule. He spends as much time with the ski club as he does teaching Biology.



After a long day on the slopes at Blue Mountain, Juniors Glen Ashlock and Dave Plecha, find it hard to keep their eyes open.

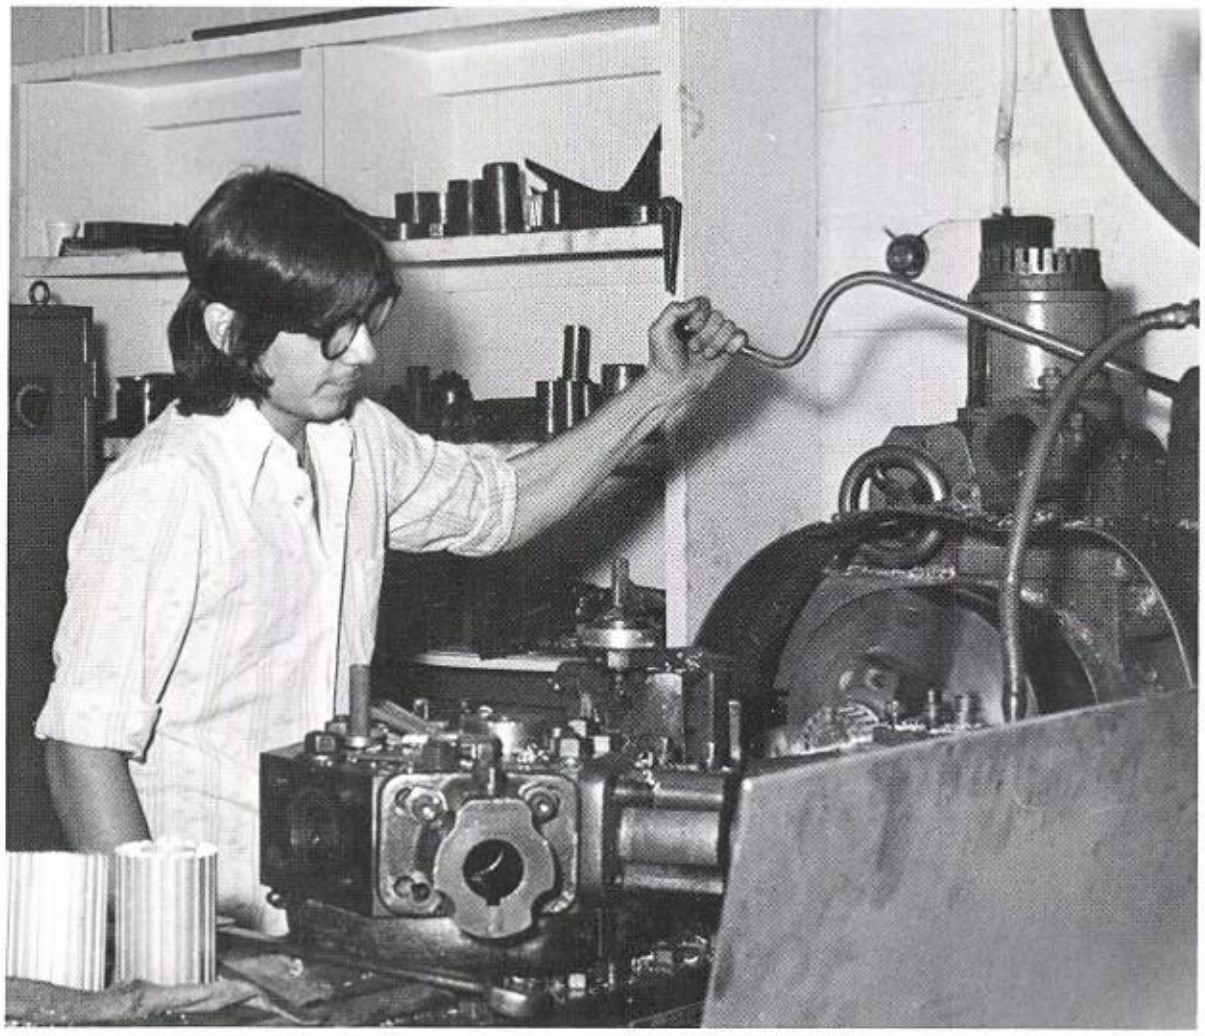
Co-Op Helps Mold The Future Employee



Employee of Iverson's, Dan Williams, mills a part at work.

Industrial Education Co-Op offers the student to work and receive credits toward graduation. It is only offered to seniors with acceptable grades and records.

The student has a great opportunity to learn and choose his or her occupational choice. Between the school and the employer, they work together to provide services for each other. The student gains on the job training, while the employer is provided a better all- round employee than he could afford to train himself.

Mr. McDonald, Co-Op coordinator, hopes that in the future the program will be increased in size. He feels improved pre-Co-Op training will definitely upgrade the program.

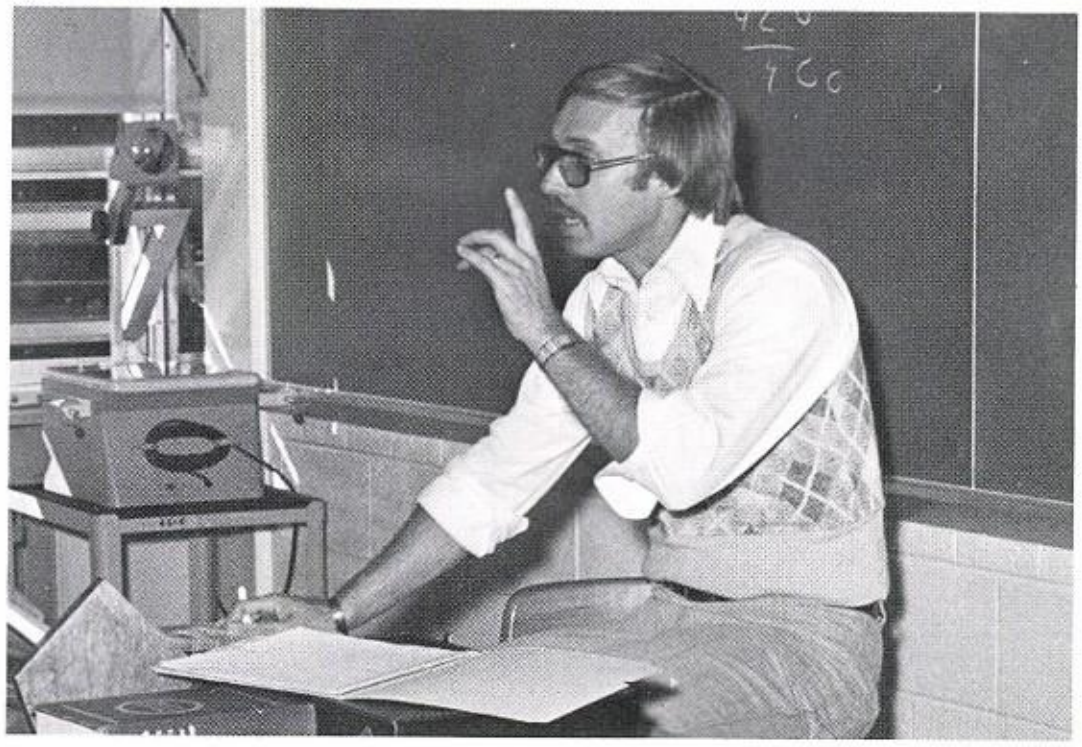
Co-Op Leads To The Beginning Of A New Career

The Co-op Program at A.H.S. helps students to form a career goal. By combining classroom instruction with supervised on-the-job training, one begins to investigate his capabilities, interests, ambitions, and goals, to see if what he has chosen is really the career for himself. Many advanced opportunities in sales and offices are open to Co-op students. Usually these jobs require a high school diploma or to be 18 years of age.

Certain qualifications must be met before the students are selected for the program: 16 years of age, senior, minimum preparatory business courses, satisfactory discipline, absence, and tardy record.



MR. AL HELNER, business co-op sponsor, also teaches basic sales.

. . . And The Band Plays On

LORIE GATTYAN waits for the command from the drum major.

The band plays their opening song at the Homecoming Pep Rally.

The marching band, which is now under the direction of Mr. Thomas Musson, has changed its style. The band has gone from a military style to a jazz style. This is not only apparent from the way they march, it is also noticeable in their song selection. The band has added a flag corps to its ranks. The flag corps performs at pep rallies and marches with the band in parades and on the field. The band has made an addition to its uniform. They now have yellow T-shirts which they wear at pep rallies.

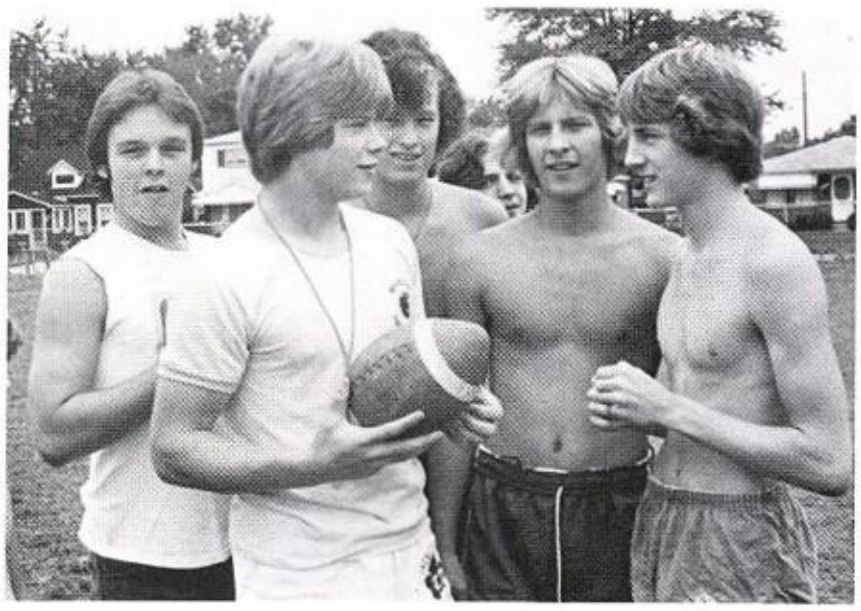
Assistants Make Teaching Easier

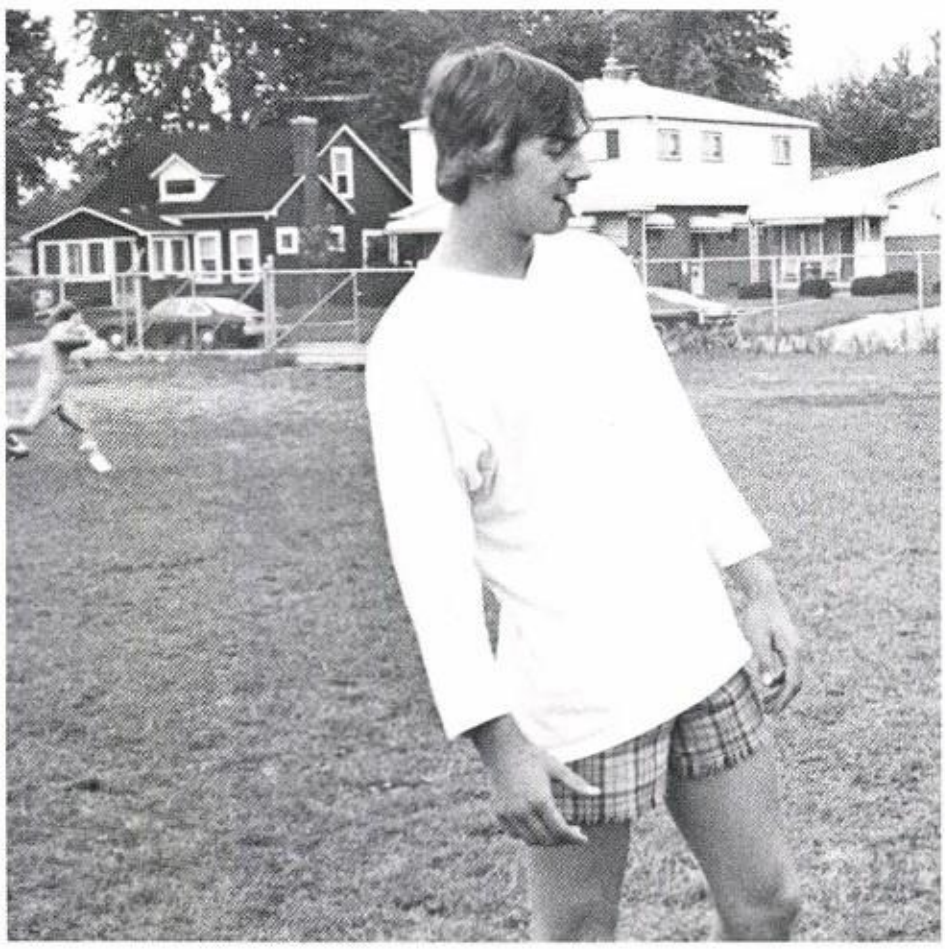
Assistants are students, mostly seniors, who aid and work with a teacher. It is an elite and credited class that involves many responsibilities. It is split into four major categories: Gym, Library, Office and Lab assistants. These young helpers become a big help to the teachers and also obtain an extreme sense of responsibility for the work they do.



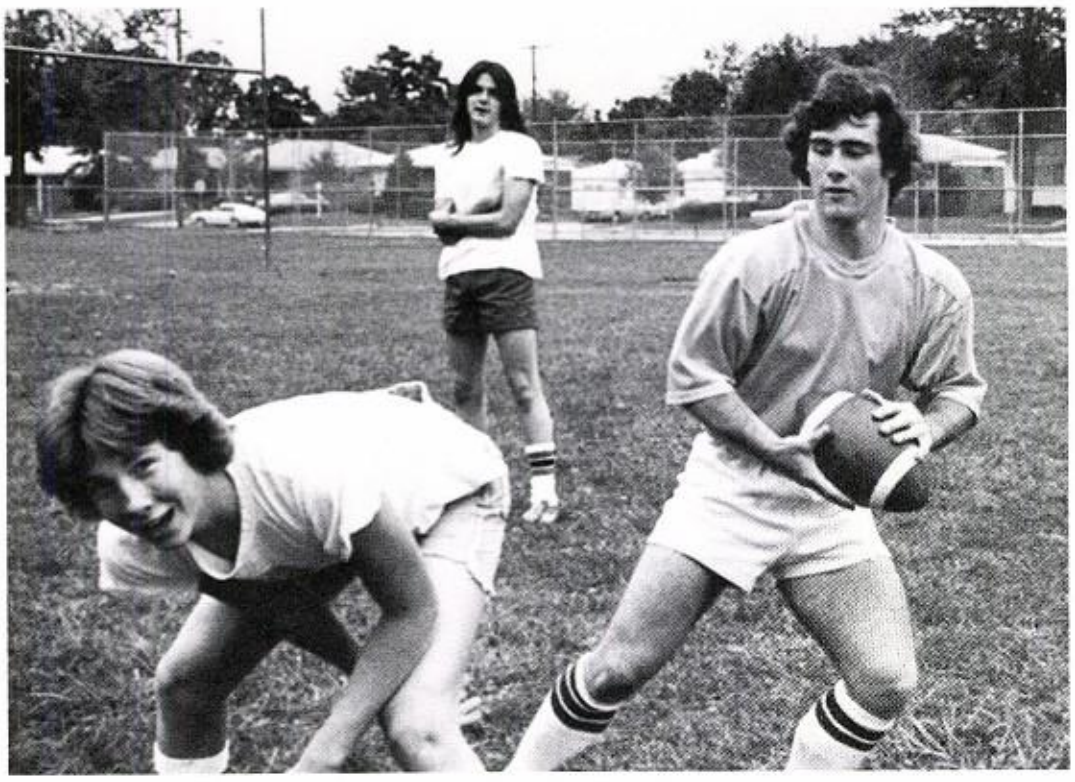
GREG SALATA, offensive end, helps to get early morning classes started.

By taking attendance, Frank Price lends a helping hand.

Library aid, Karen Tamm, gets valuable experience for future librarian positions she may pursue.

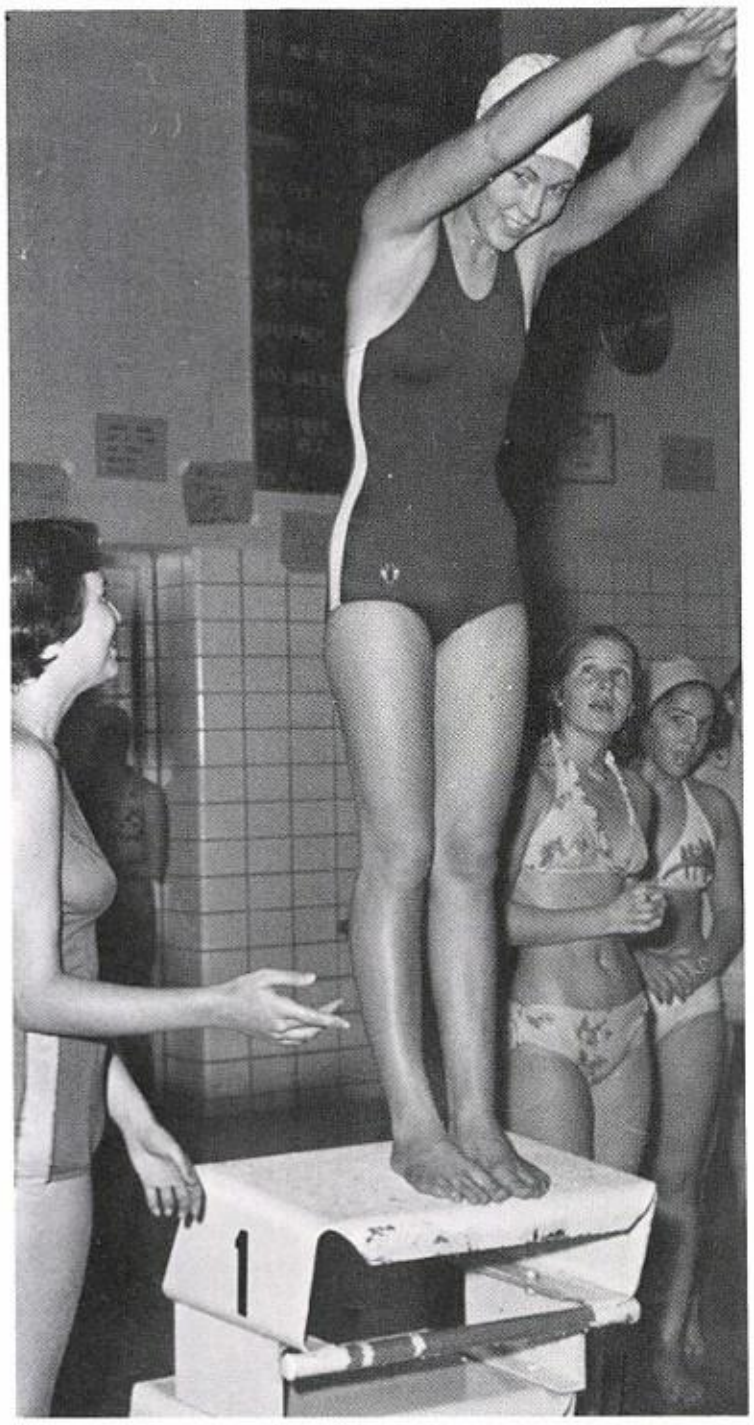


Gym assistant, Tim St. Andrew, usually is playing on the football team, but as gym assistant he is the referee.

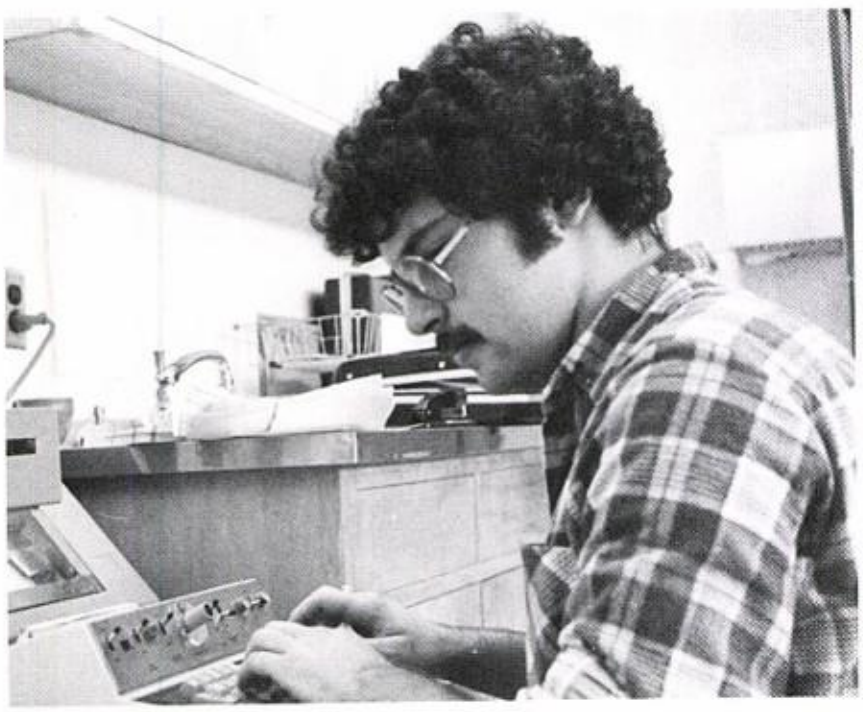


Football co-captain Paul Croteau is quarterback as well as gym aid.

Lab assistants Dave Morgan and Marie Dowd joke with Mr. Frank Lupo.



Girls gym assistant, Linda Williamson shows Jane Sell correct forms for diving.



Office aid Mario Falconetti feeds the computer information which is one of many duties.

CAROL GRIFFITH and Martha Steffes take well deserved breaks.

Band And Choir Perform In Style

The three trumpeteers do a fine solo at the annual Christmas concert.

The concert band is once again conducted by Thomas Musson. The group presented their annual festive Christmas concert to the delight of both parents and students. A few of their selections included "A Christmas Festival" by L. Anderson and "March of Carols" by Bilik. The jazz band also participated during this affair. Moreover, the choir under the direction of Patricia Birdsall added the finishing touches for the evening. In fact, she was presented a gift near the conclusion of the concert. Even though this year's choir was smaller than those in the past, they were singled out for their determination and excellence by their sponsor. New sounds like the "Monotone Angel" and old favorites as "Silver Bells" highlighted the night.

Doing Those Special Jobs

The 1977-78 Vocational Printing Class has jobs coming in every day. The students are picked by the instructor, Mr. Dyda. The members of this class have had previous printing experience, either in junior high or the beginning of high school. The Vocational Printing Class produces many things for this school district, such as; memo pads, office materials, the school newspaper, play programs, and all sport programs. The class also does the Senior News for senior citizens, which is an outside project.

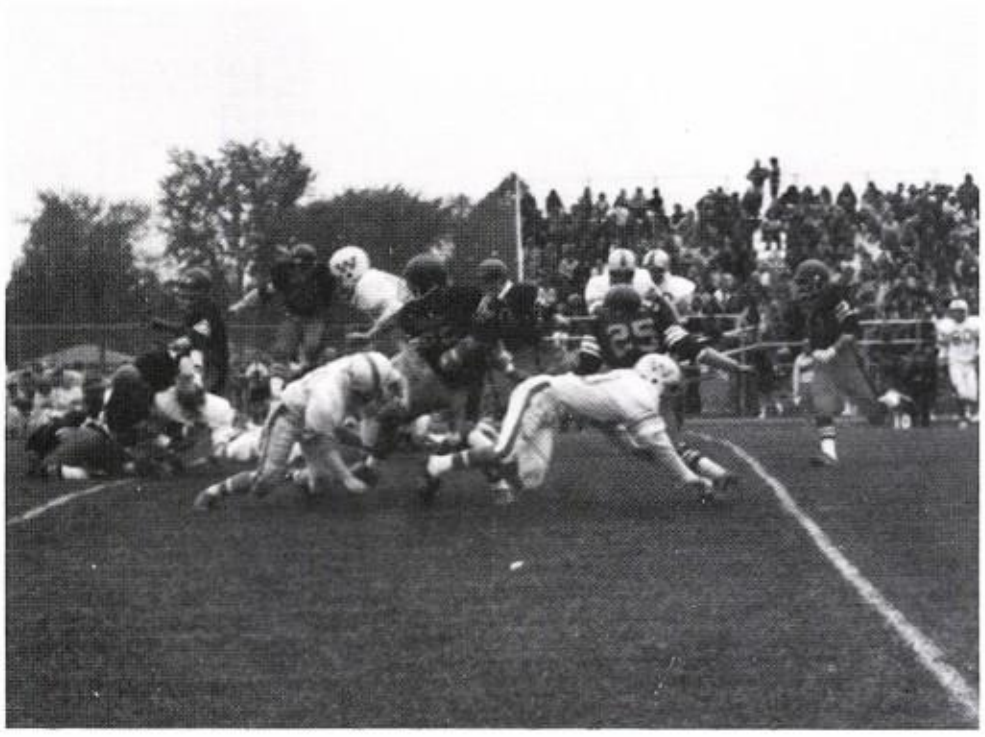
Homecoming Is . . . Pride And Excitement



Homecoming week began with the excitement of the first evening pep rally. The sophomores displayed their spirit by winning the prestigious spirit stick. To highlight the evening, the court and queen were announced. Paula Korejwo was officially named Homecoming queen.

The game was a perfect compliment to a fine week. The Cougars trounced Woodhaven 26 to 0. The Cougars displayed their defensive aggressiveness by not allowing the Warriors to score. Besides the defense, the offense exploded for four touchdowns. At halftime, Mrs. Joanne Blum received a special dedication in honor of her late husband John.

Cougar defense shut out Woodhaven, while the offense exploded for 26 Points.

Tribute To Disney Spotlights The Parade!

1977 HOMECOMING COURT: Terry McCarthy and Doug Norton, Michelle Kochoff and Steve Tofan, Karen Miller and Jim Peters, Joan Thostenson and Mark Fisher, Queen Paula Korejwo and Jimmy Cole, Janice Kerchen and Ken Butler, Gayle Delong and Tom Weatherholt, Denise Piccoli and Jeff Barr.

Our Homecoming Parade held on October 15, was led by two spectacular Grand Marshalls, our own Mickey and Minnie Mouse. The theme of our Homecoming was "Walt Disney". The class float competition was won by the juniors, who built the Mickey Mouse Club House. The cheerleaders constructed a Pinocchio Workshop and took first place in club competition. Also participating for the first time was the alumni class of 1977 with their own float, a huge inflated "Tigger", which everyone enjoyed immensely.

After such a successful parade, our great football team defeated the Woodhaven Warriors by a score of 26 to 0. The Homecoming Dance held in the gym was decorated in green and yellow streamers with over 250 couples swaying to the tunes of "Bridgewater".

Pride And It's Rewards

The key highlight of the past Pride Week was the dedication awarded to counselor, Mr. Louis Bortolon. Decided by the Student Council, the honors were given to him at the February 3rd pep rally kicking off Pride Week.

Pride King and Queen were voted on by the student body and the result was Gary McDermott for Pride King and Marilyn Kitt for Pride Queen.

The Pride Week Essay contest, an important part of the traditional week, was won by senior Donna Kramarz who defined pride to the greatest of detail.

The 24 hour basketball dribble also was a feature as the different clubs dribbled throughout the night. McDonalds furnished free certificates and orange drink at the all night affair.

Finally, the Junior Class captured the Pride Week Trophy for most spirit amongst classes as Isabel DeMarco received the honor from Student Council President Kevin Sullivan at half time of the Pride Week basketball game with Woodhaven.

Metro-West League Expands In Scope

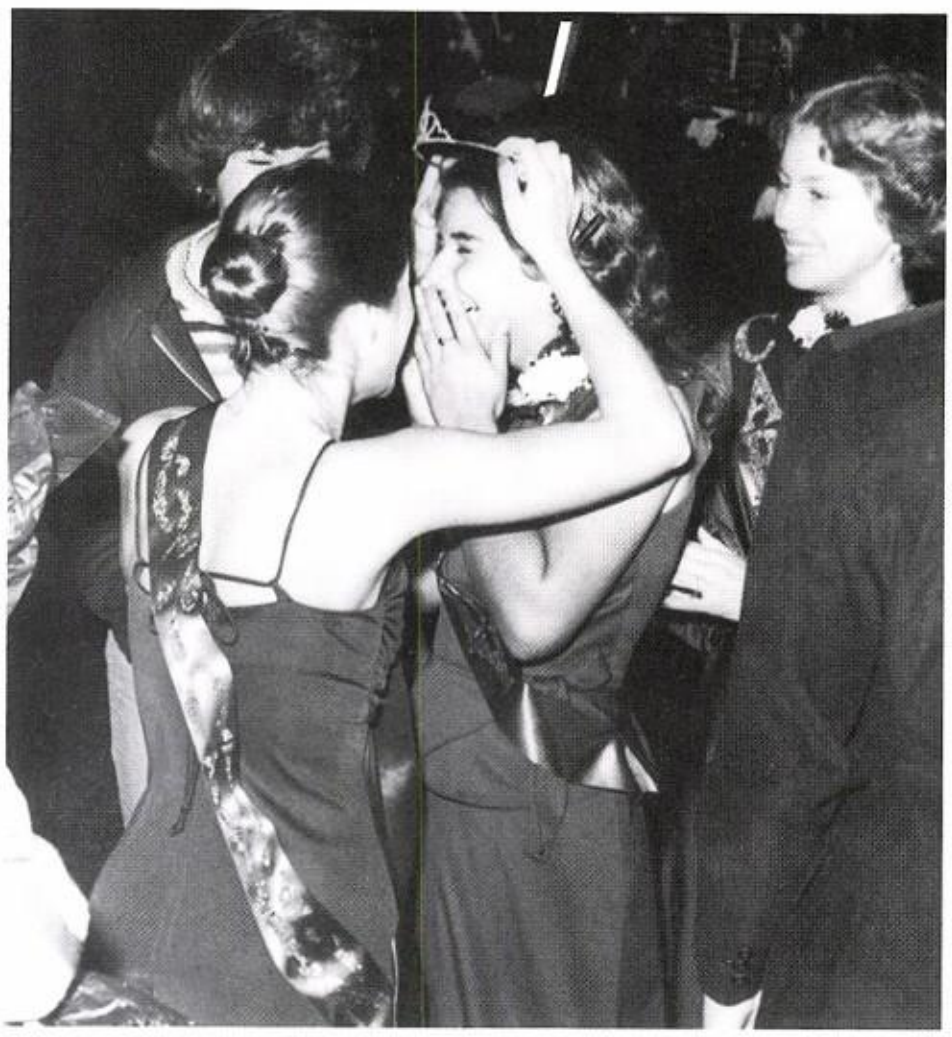
The Metro West League consists of four high schools: Annapolis, Clarenceville, Oak Park, and Woodhaven. The four schools are geographically spaced out; thus, reflecting different attitudes and values amongst the student bodies.

Nonetheless, the league is in its fourth year of existence and hopes to expand with more schools in the future.

The league annually holds a kick-off banquet at a host school where coaches and club sponsors can share ideas and offer advice to improve the standards of the organization. This year's banquet was superbly held at Oak Park.

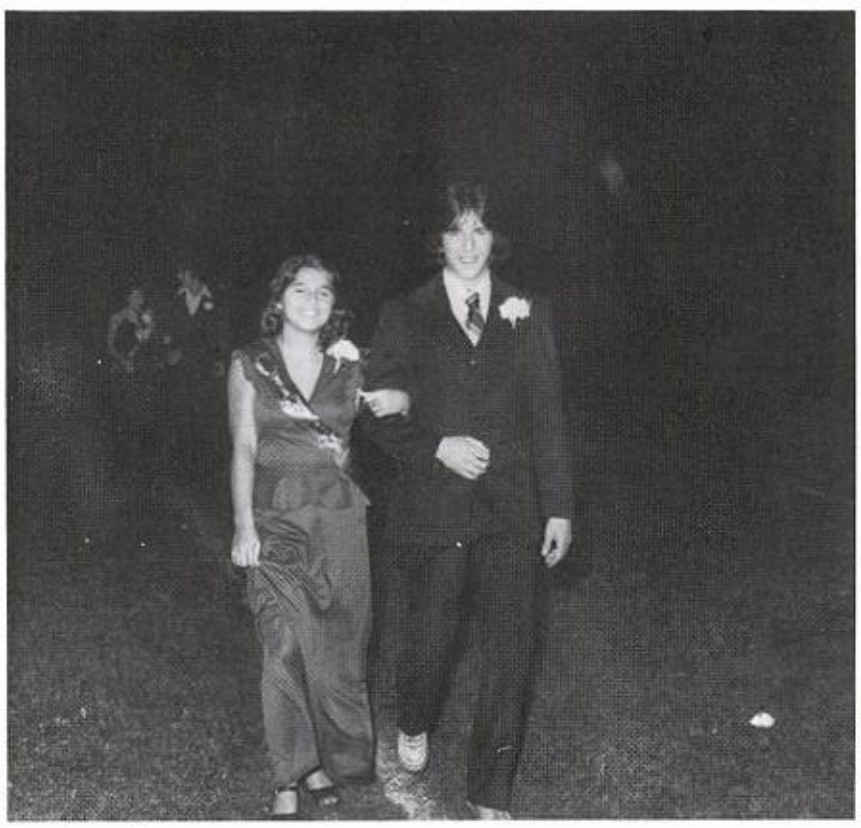
The league also presents yearly a trophy to the school whose combined sport squads capture the most points. Last year's went to Clarenceville.

There are also annual student exchange days amongst schools for the purpose of comparing the rules and values of the distant schools. Last year, the four schools got together for an All-League Student Council Day for the purpose of discussing the chance for constructing such a council.

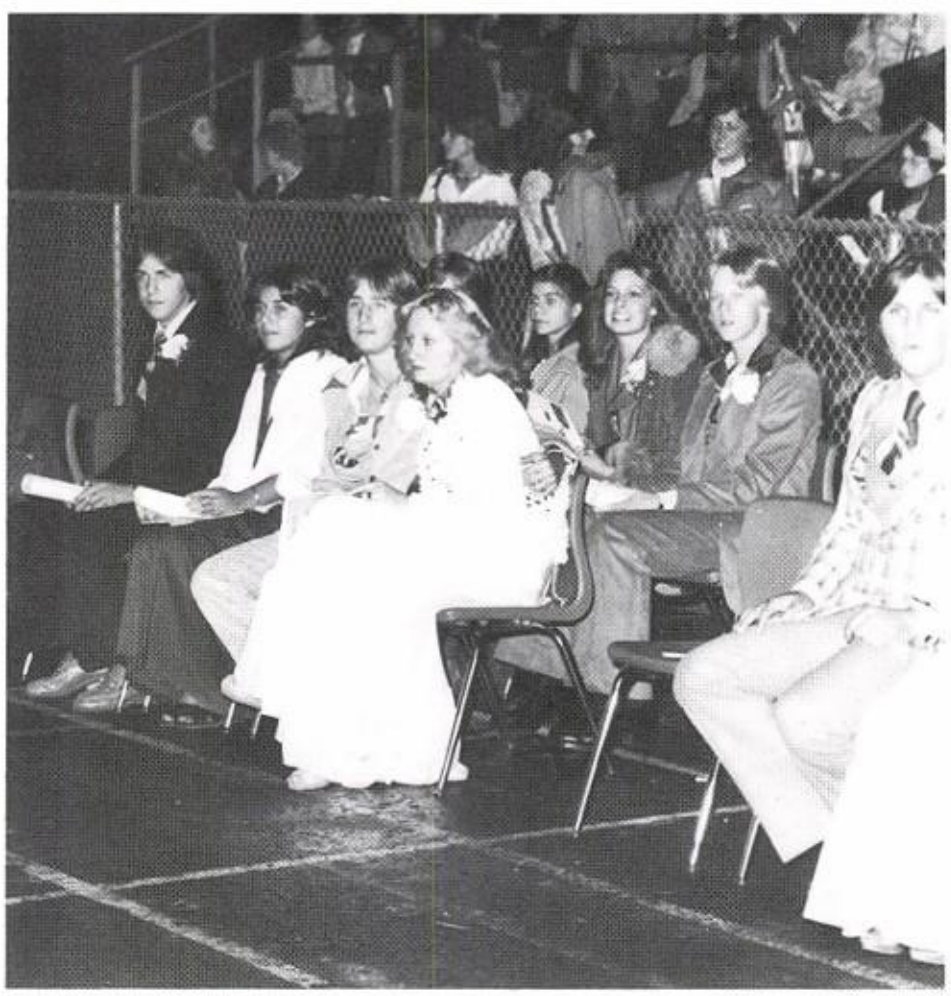


CINDY KAPLAN, Clarenceville's Homecoming queen, gets crowned.

The yearbooks and newspapers of the schools are also exchanged for the objective of acquiring new ideas and perspectives.



Homecoming queen Cindy Kaplan is escorted across the field by Darroll Olson.



Clarenceville's Homecoming court sits (as tradition) at the football game.

Disney Characters Highlight Homecoming

The 77-78 Woodhaven Homecoming was both exciting and disappointing. The theme was Walt Disney characters. The sophomore float received recognition for the best looking float in the parade. During half time the band performed and Kay Ripple was crowned as Woodhaven's Homecoming Queen. The game was a disappointment for Woodhaven as Oak Park scored 38 points. Woodhaven's only touchdown was made by Jim Simpson. The dance, led by the band "Squeeze", was a success.

A Conservative Community But

The students life doesn't center around the school. But if they don't study and do homework twenty-four hours a day, what else do they do? Well, what about cruising Annapolis Ave. and looping McDonalds, trips to Camp Dearborn, Saturday afternoon football games at Chircop Field or working out at the South-end Weddel Community Center.

The Accent On Living

Students at our school seem to accent their own style of living in different ways. Outside of school many enjoy boxing at the community center, others join clubs like our new geneology club which is sponsored by Mr. Willard Grant or others enjoy the debate team with Mr. Robert Nanni. No matter where you look you'll find a wide variety of activity in the daily life of each student here at our school.

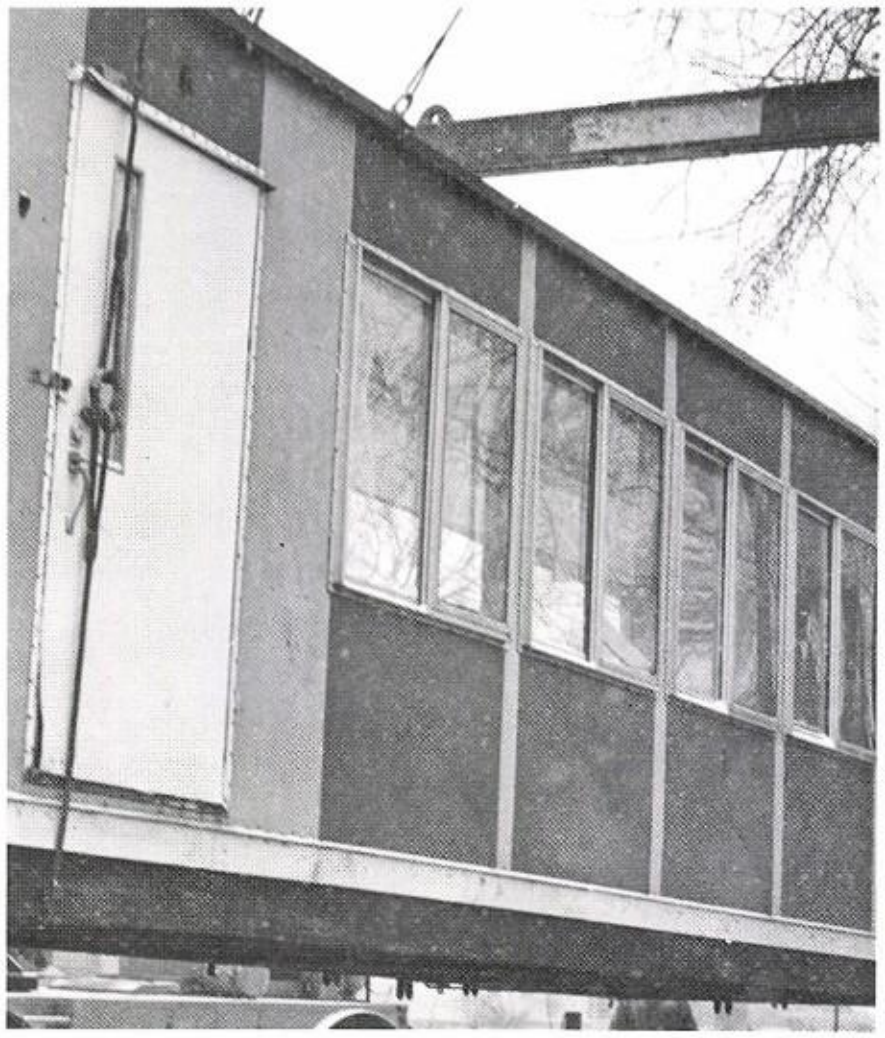
People Work To Improve Their Community



Annapolis students say goodbye to portables.

The working life of the students reflect a style of living in the community here. Jobs can vary anywhere from a gas attendant to working in an apparel shop. This year we exchanged our style of living in school with a handful of students from Clarenceville High School on exchange day. This experience proved to be a beneficial and successful event.

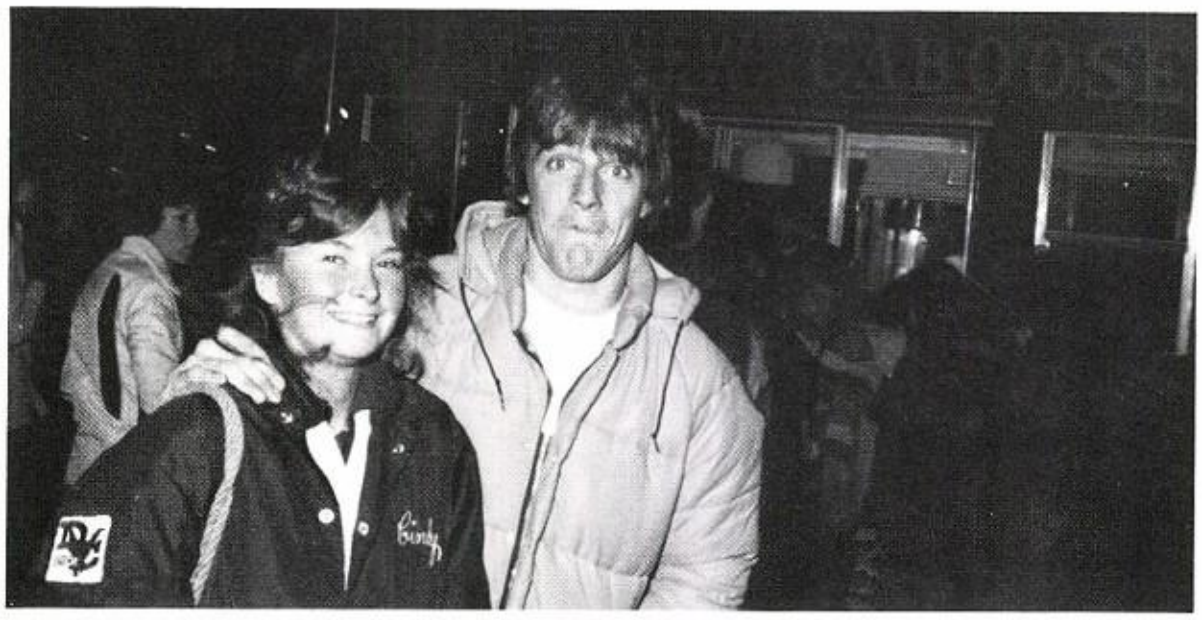
On Their Own In The World Of Work



Wrestler, Gary McDermott and Cindy Keating take a stroll past the "Chew Chew Caboose"

These days, many students have come to realize the need to have an independent income. This has prompted students to go out on their own into the surrounding neighborhoods and cities to seek employment. This is done strictly by the student and does not concern the Co-Op Program offered by the school. These students receive no credits for their jobs. These students should be applauded for their efforts of stepping out into the world of work.

STRIVING

RULES OF THE GAME

AN UNKNOWN CHAPLAIN is credited with being the author of this letter, addressed to a young man about to enter the arena of life;

I am giving you the ball, Son, and naming you the quarterback for your team in the game of life. I am your coach, so I'll give it to you straight

There is only one schedule to play. It lasts all your life, but consists of only one game. It is a long game with no time out and no substitutions. You play the whole game --- all your life --- all the time.

You'll have a great backfield. You're calling the signals, but the three other fellows in the backfield with you have great reputations. They are named Faith, Hope, and Charity.

You'll work behind a truly powerful line. End to end, it consists of Honesty, Loyalty, Courage, Devotion-to-Duty, Self-Respect, Cleanliness, and Discipline.

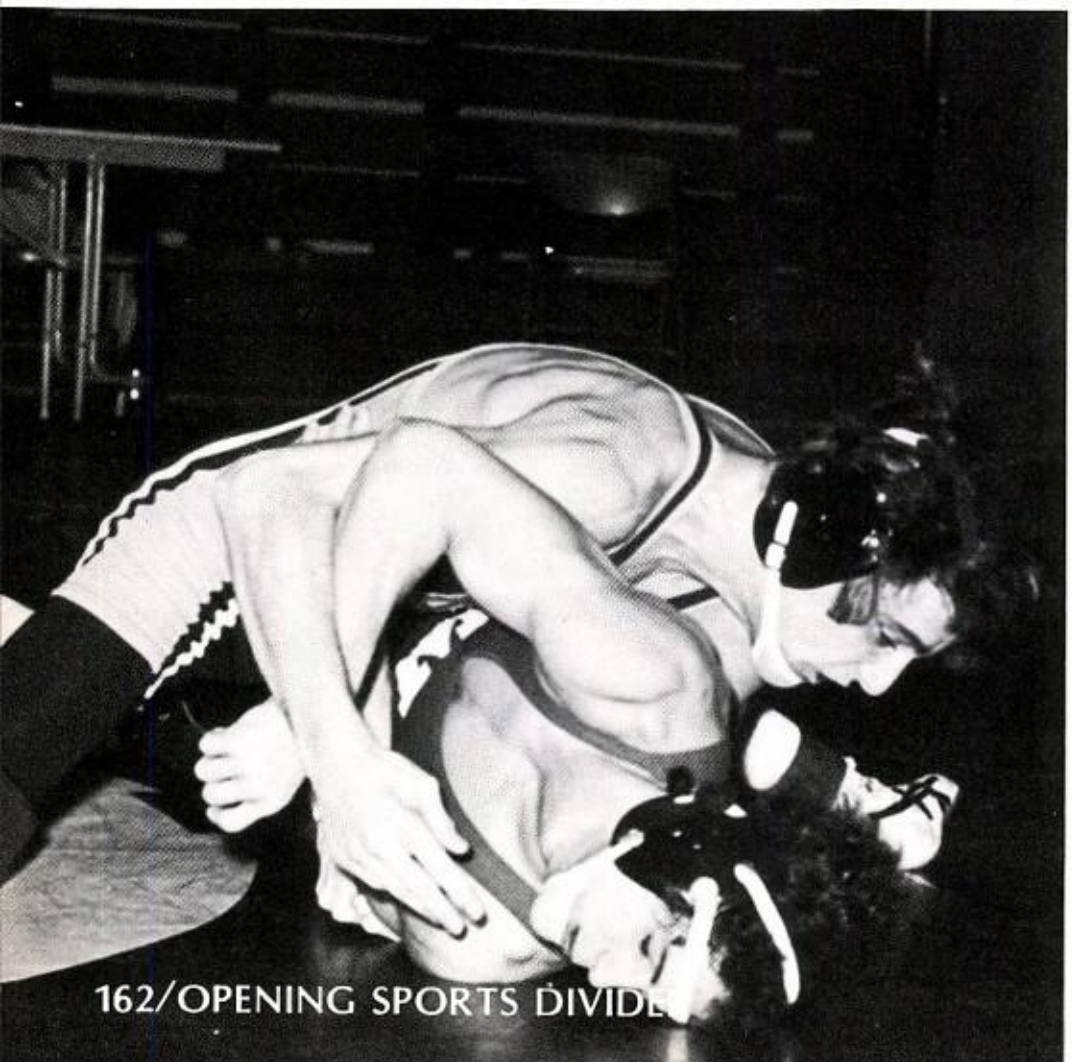
The goalposts are the Gates of Heaven.

God is the referee and sole official. He makes all the rules, and there is no appeal from them.

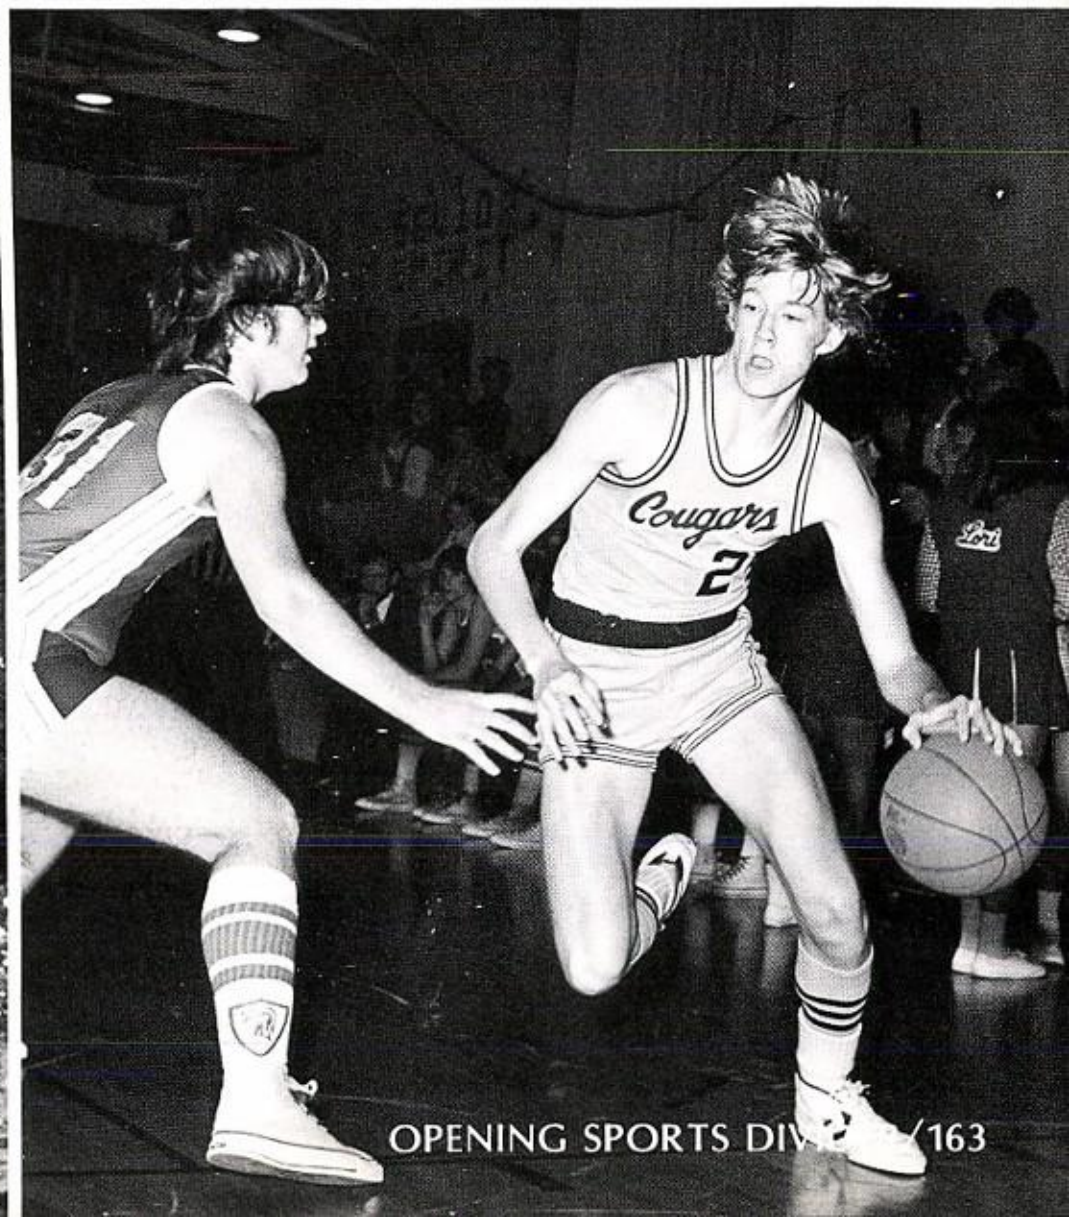
There are rules. You know them as the Ten Commandments, and you play them strictly in accordance with your own religion.

There is also an important ground rule. It is, "As ye would that men should to to you, do ye even so to them."

Here is the ball. It is your immortal soul! Hold fast to it. Now, Son, get in there and let's see what you can do with it.



TOWARD A BETTER SELF



Seniors; Bright Spot In Unpredictable Season

Paul Croteau, Dave Morgan, Frank Price, Tony Marijanovich, Tim St. Andrews and Brian Lagerstrom were honored Metro-West All-League selections.

Croteau, Morgan, Marijanovich, St. Andrews, Turbin and Price were also selected for the Dearborn Heights All-City Team.

The leading rusher was Tony Marijanovich, with 602 yards in 138 carries for a 4.7 average. He also returned punts and kicks back for 352 yards. Paul Croteau had 225 yards and 38 carries for a 5.7 average. On defense he had 81 solo tackles and 58 assists.

Due to lack of sophomore and junior participation, seniors salvaged an otherwise up and down season. Their 5-4 record was not comparable to the previous 7-2 record.

Reserve Squad Dominates League

The Cougars offense was led by Vernon Orsborne with 359 total yards and an impressive 30 total points. But the strong point of this years' squad was their defense led by John Cole with 27 solos and 13 assists. Vernon Orsborne's 28 solos and six assists backed him up. Linebacker Mark Shea and quarterback Ken Butler also weighed heavily in the teams tremendous success this season. The Junior Varsity's effort this year proved to be a good sign for the Varsity squads of the future.

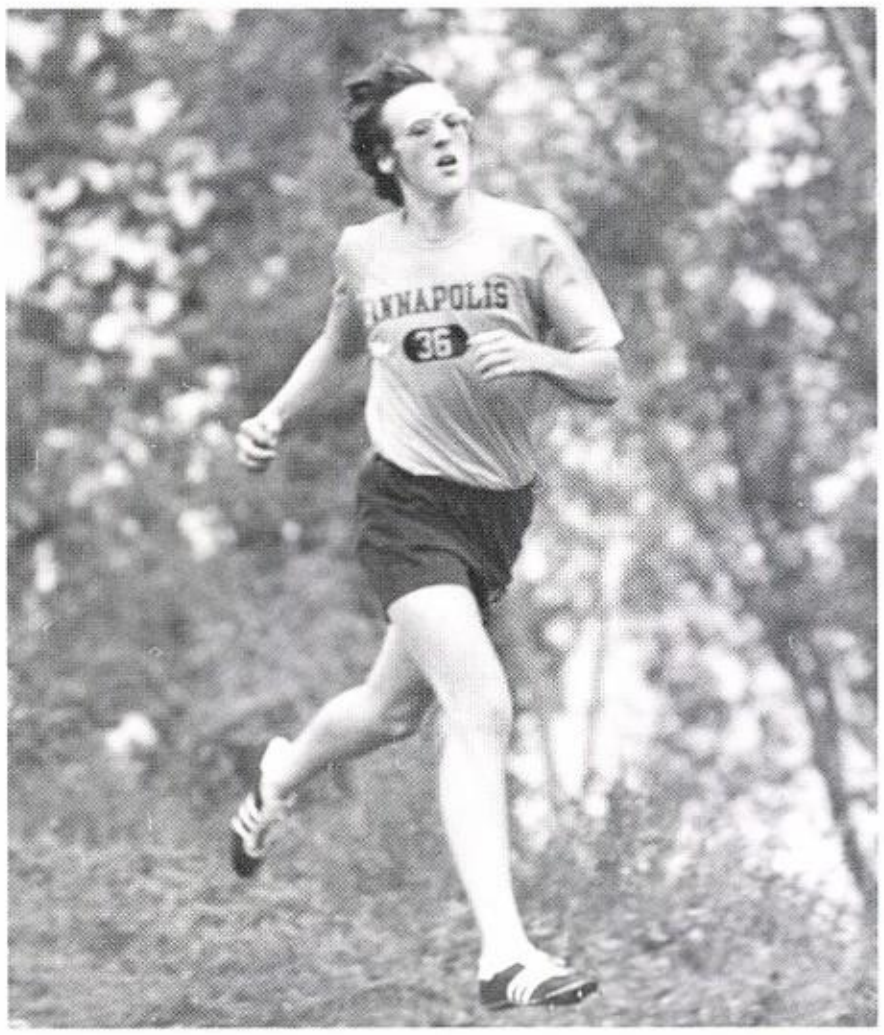
Harriers Capture League



STEVE GROSS floats over the finish line for another Cougar victory.

For the second consecutive season, the Harriers have captured the league title. They took a hard loss against Lutheran West. Then they came on in full force. They defeated league opponents Oak Park, Woodhaven, and Clarenceville twice.

Bill Green was the top runner in the league; Leon Bergeron was the third best runner; and John Sapielak had the distinction of being the fifth best pacer.

Cagers Grab Share Of Metro-West

Under the direction of rookie coach Larry Jackson, the Cougar Cagers achieved a few of the goals that he set previous to the season. The first goal was to win at least ten games or more, meaning that with a twenty game schedule, he wanted a winning percentage of 50% or more and the second was to win the league championship. Both goals were met by having a 13-7 record and a third of the league championship. Leading the way was senior Bill Green who was the top scorer and rebounder. Tony Marijonovich was tops in assists. Tony also made first string All-League while Bill Green and Tim Dunaitis took honorable mention.

New Coach And Personnel Begin Revamping

With a reserve squad comprised mainly of sophomores, this years team finished second in the Metro-West league. Directing the young Cagers to their respectable 11-9 win-loss record was first year coach Steve Miller. Steve, a 1970 graduate of Annapolis High himself was a letterman here and later went on to play at Grand Valley State before returning as a coach. Even though the team suffered such problems as players moving up and down between the Varsity and Junior Varsity levels, everybody involved held together and accomplished a fairly successful season. Picking up most of the slack was forward Rich McGuire who ended as the teams leading scorer and rebounder. Leading the assist department was guard Dave Valentine.

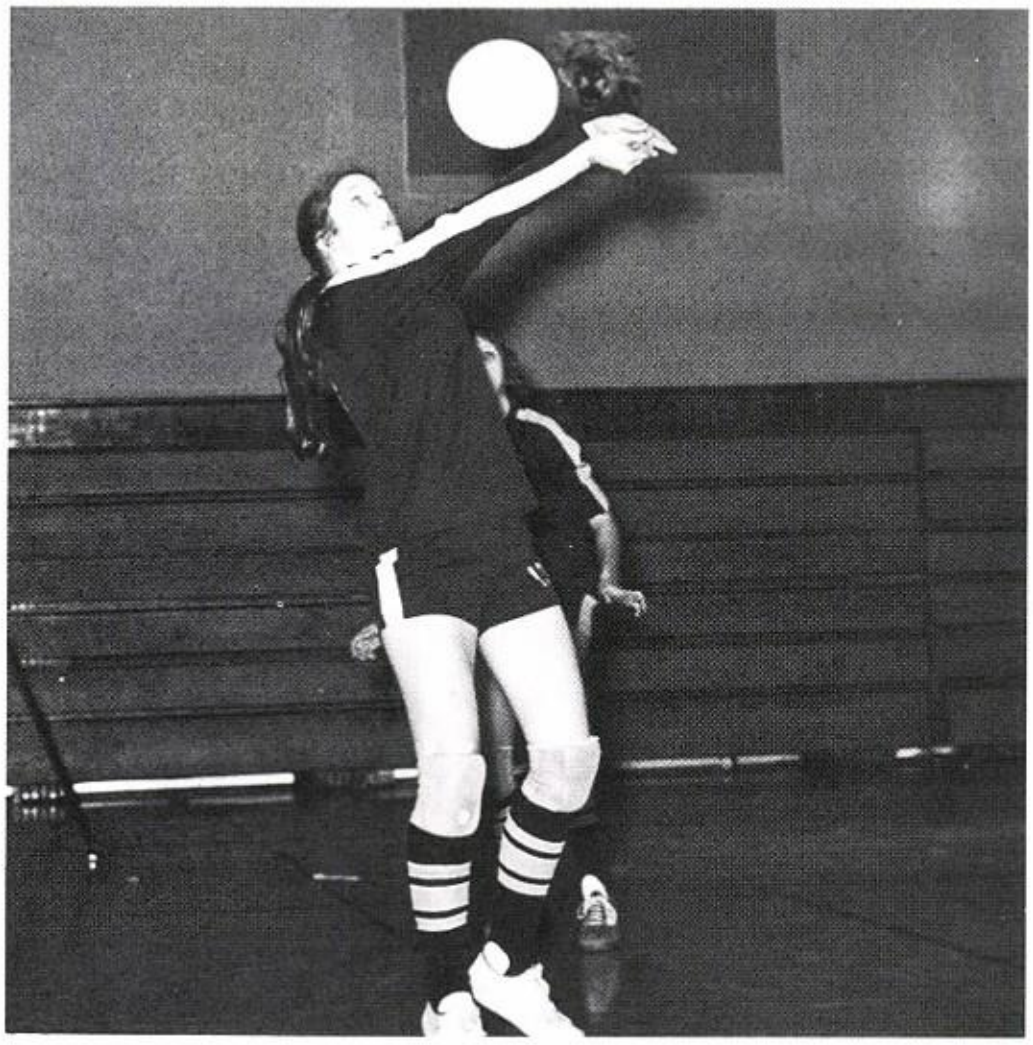
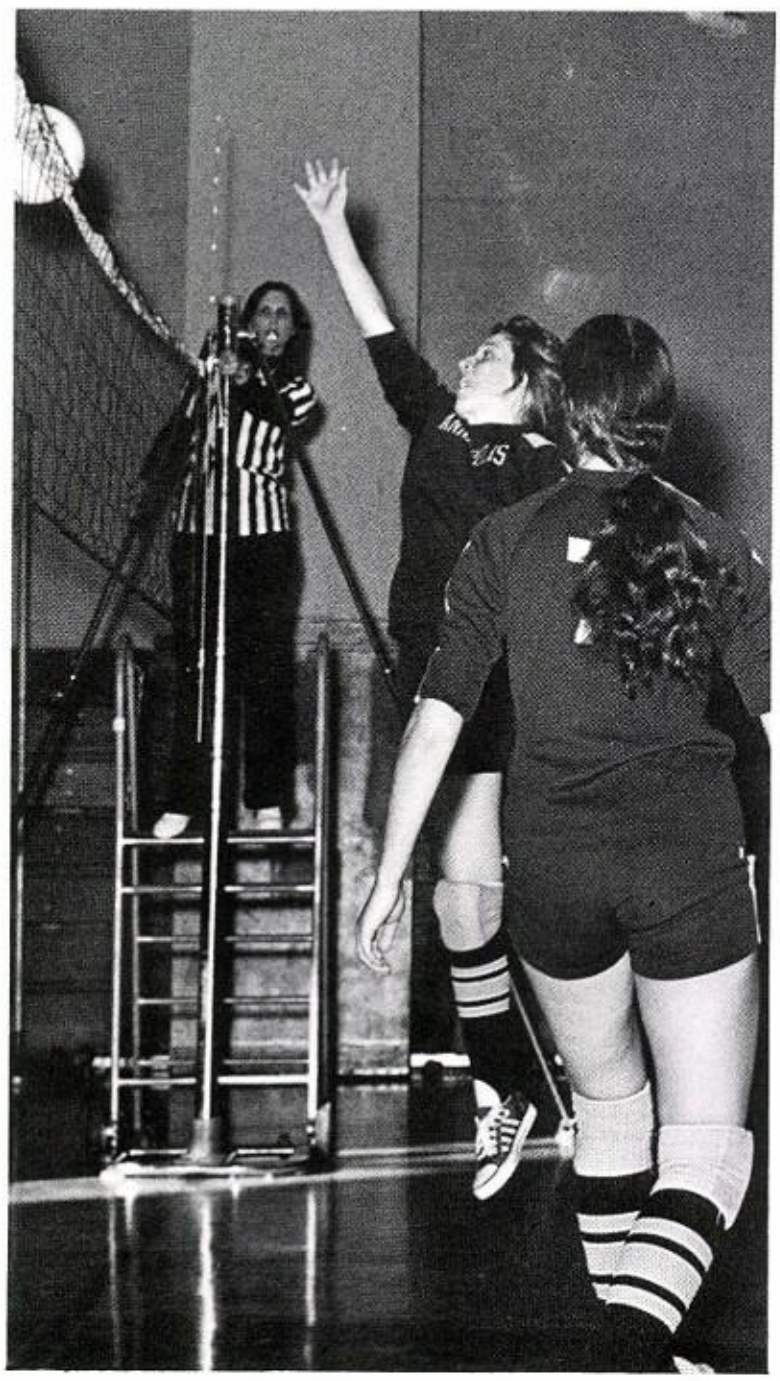
Varsity Serves Up Action!

This years' team consisted of five seniors, eight juniors and one sophomore. Karen Webb and Linda Williamson both seniors, were selected co-captains. Senior Karen Webb led the team in points. Next was Martha Moranty, followed by Julie Stafford and Debbie Weaver.

The 1977-78 varsity team was coached by Miss Katherine Gappy, with only one returning varsity player. Together the team works to show their pride. The most important thing is not whether they win or lose but it's the friendship and spirit the team has developed.

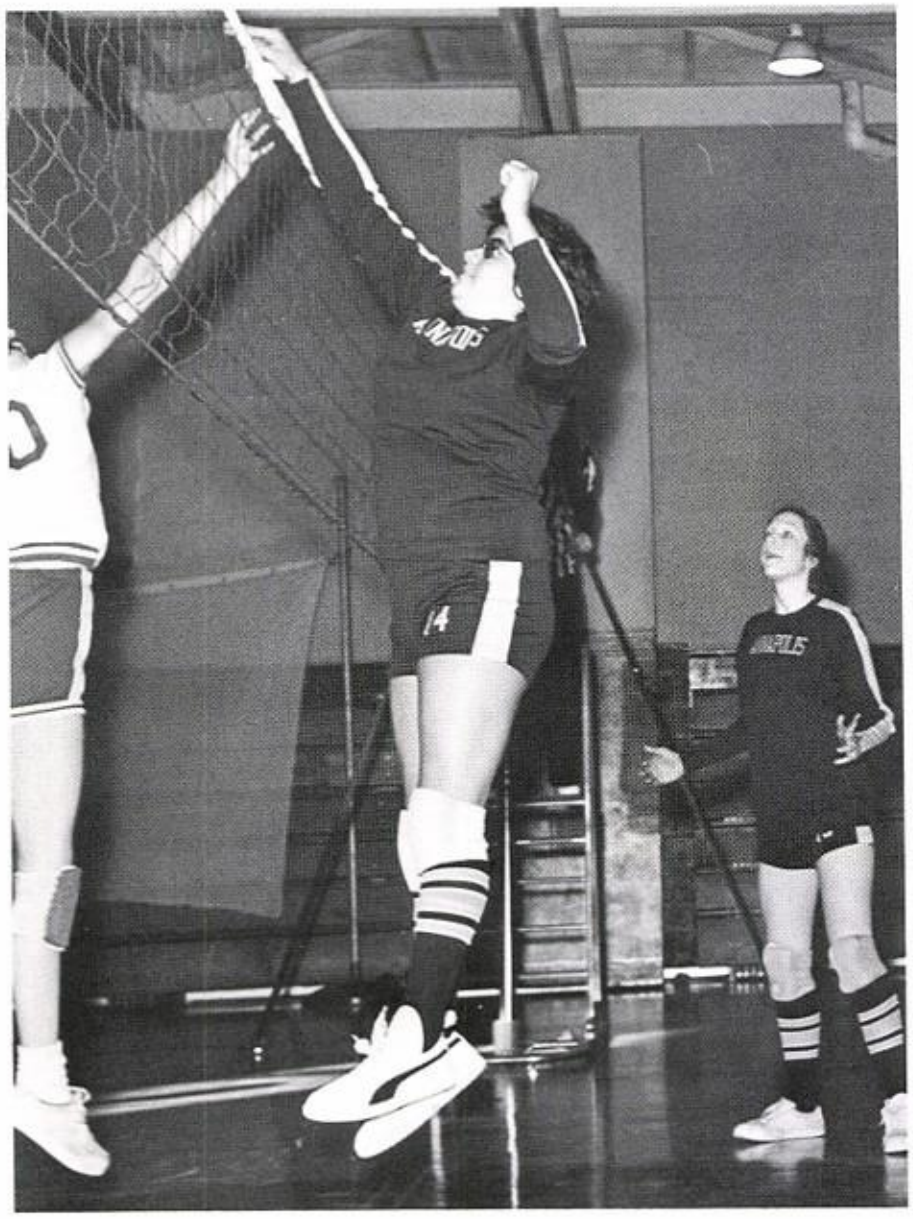


SANDY HARRIS bumps the ball as she tries for a point against Crestwood.

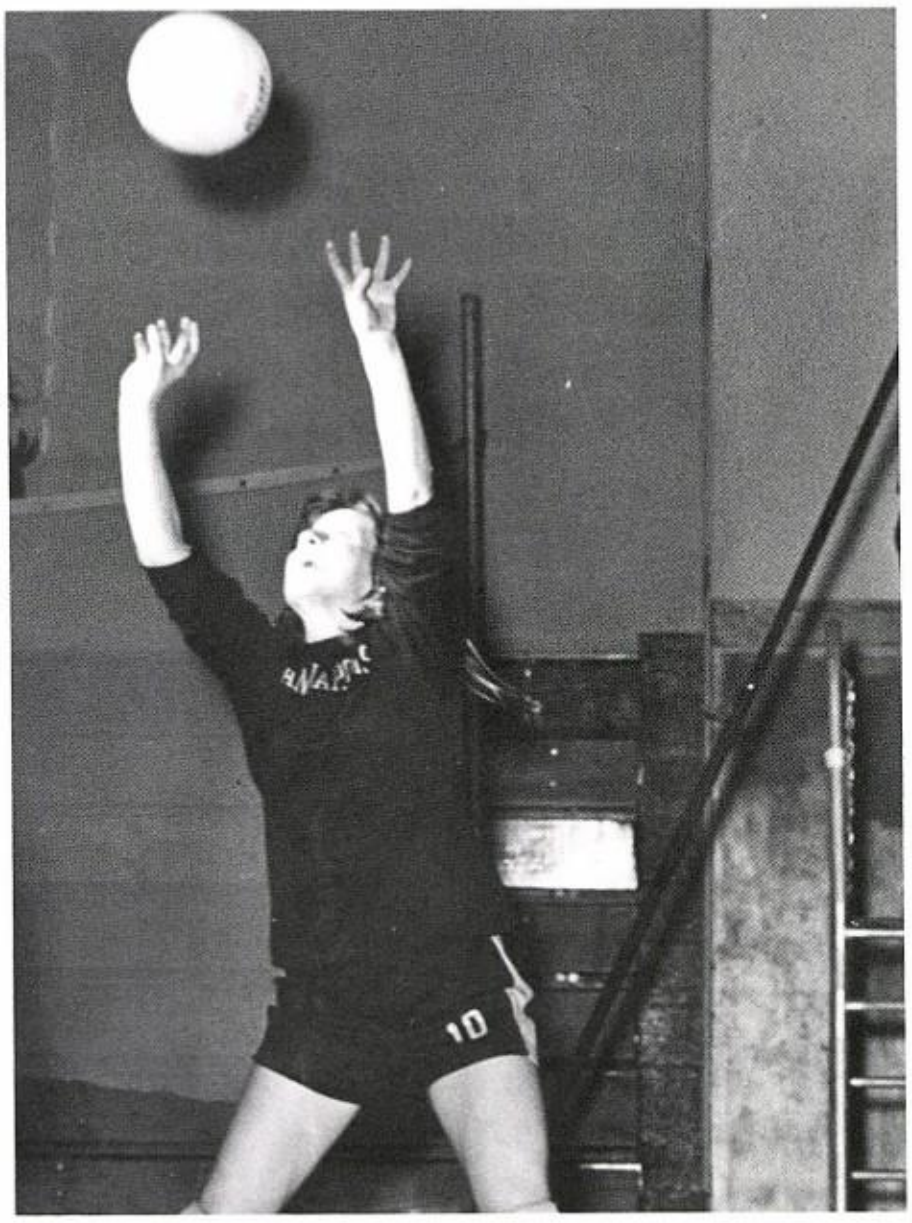


DEBBIE WEAVER tries hard as she gets the point.

CHERYL ROBERTS waits for the ball while Julie Stafford watches.



JULIE STAFFORD, gets over the net to spike the ball.



DEBBIE WEAVER, first year varsity, follows through on a set.

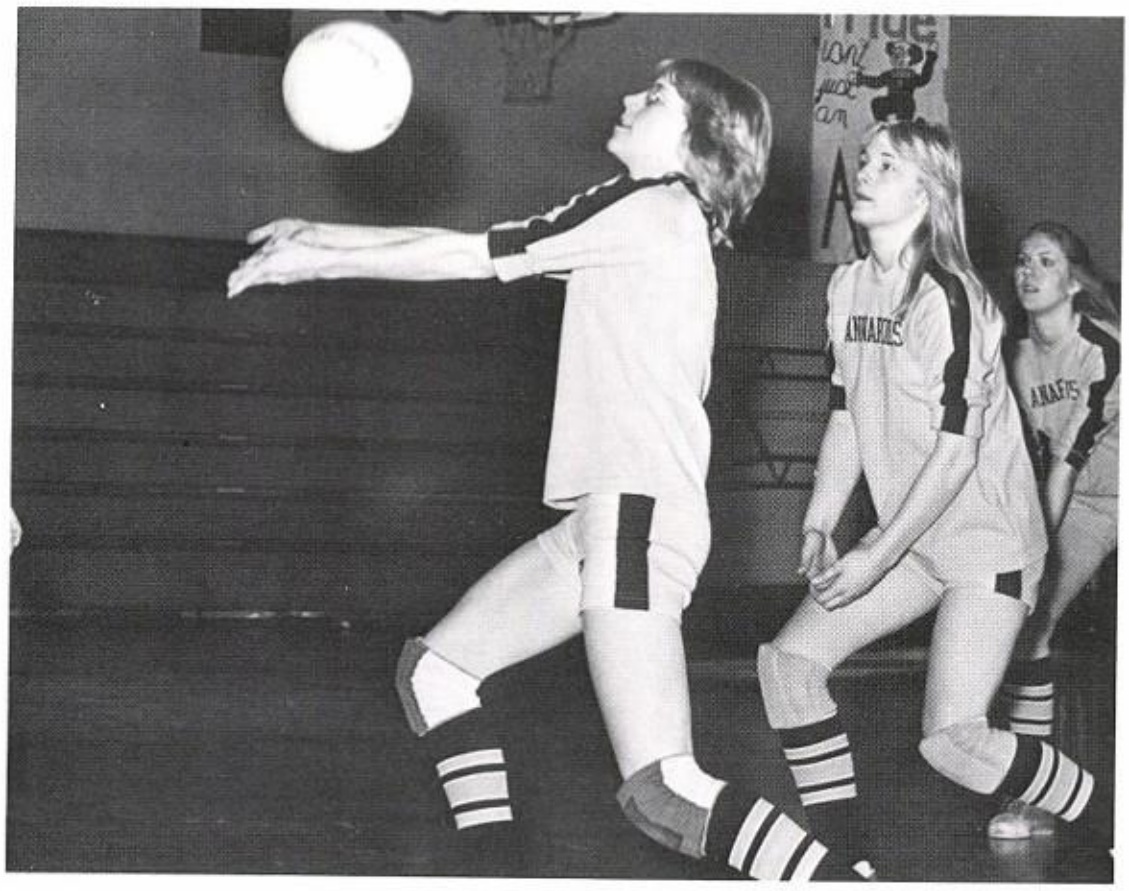
J.V. Has A Surprising Season

The J.V. girls volleyball team, under the coaching of Miss Kate Gappy, have tried to play over their inexperience. They .have practiced hard; bumping, blocking, setting, spiking, and serving. This hard work will pay off when the girls try out for a place on next years varsity team. The top server on the team was Karen Martin. Jane Sell was the team's top blocker.



CLAIRE MILLER is backed up by Jane Brown as she prepares to bump the ball.

LINDA JERORE, sophomore, braces herself as she prepares to bump the ball.

Sophomore, Jane Brown says, "Take that!"

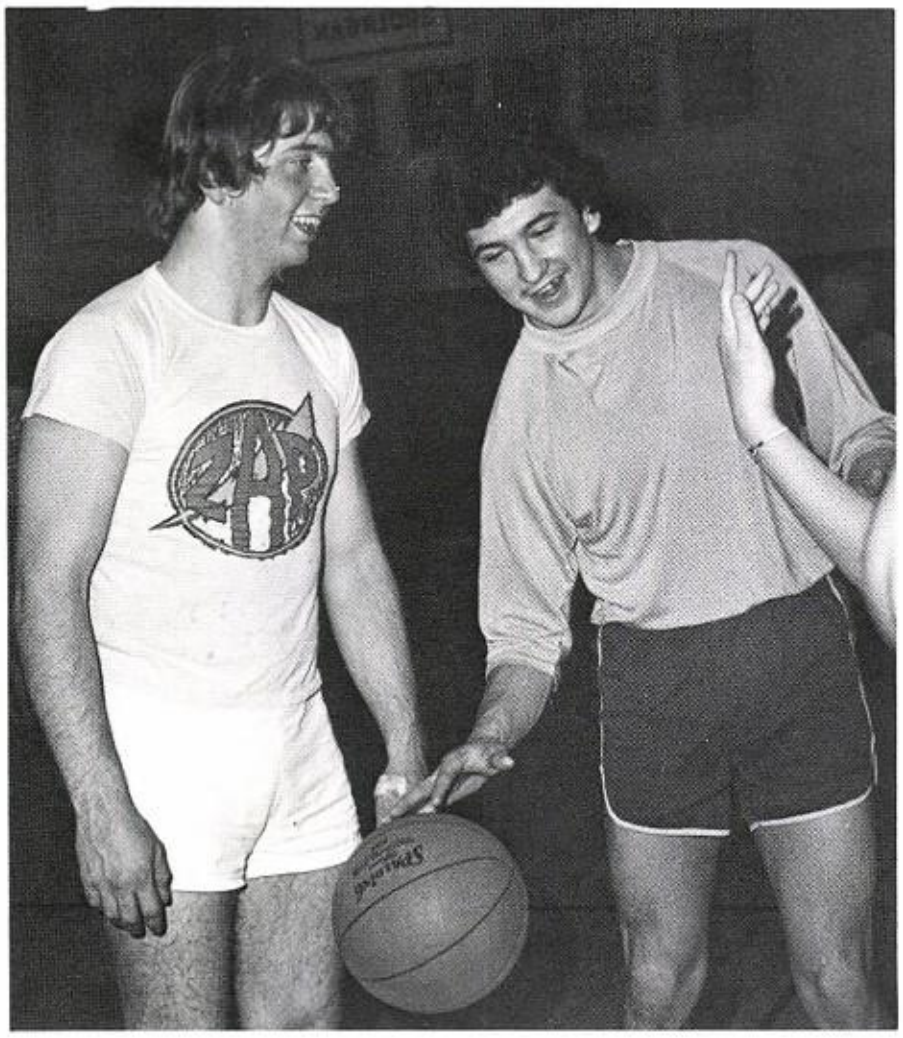
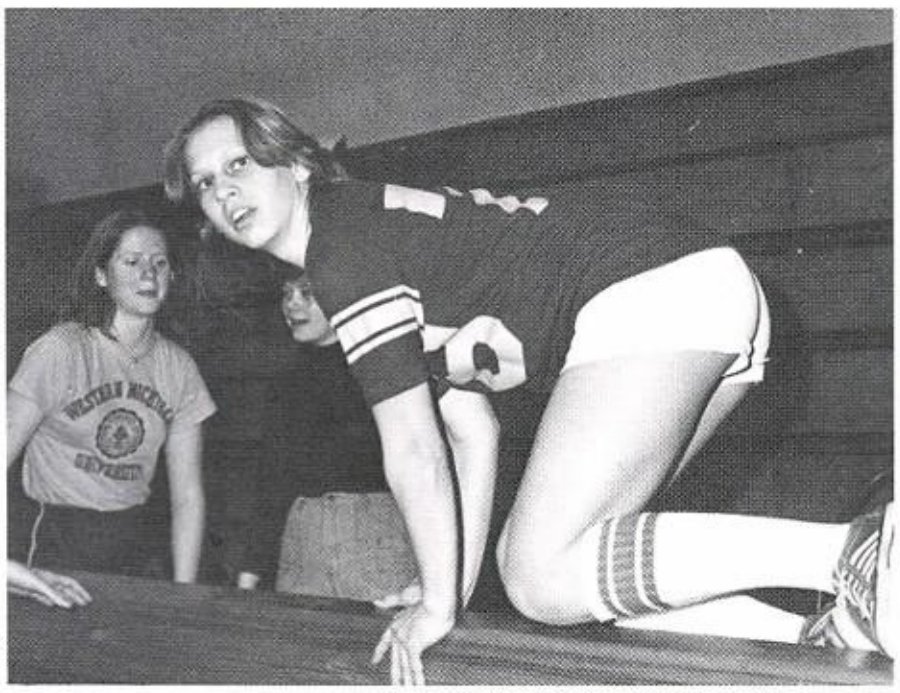
Annapolis Students Show Their

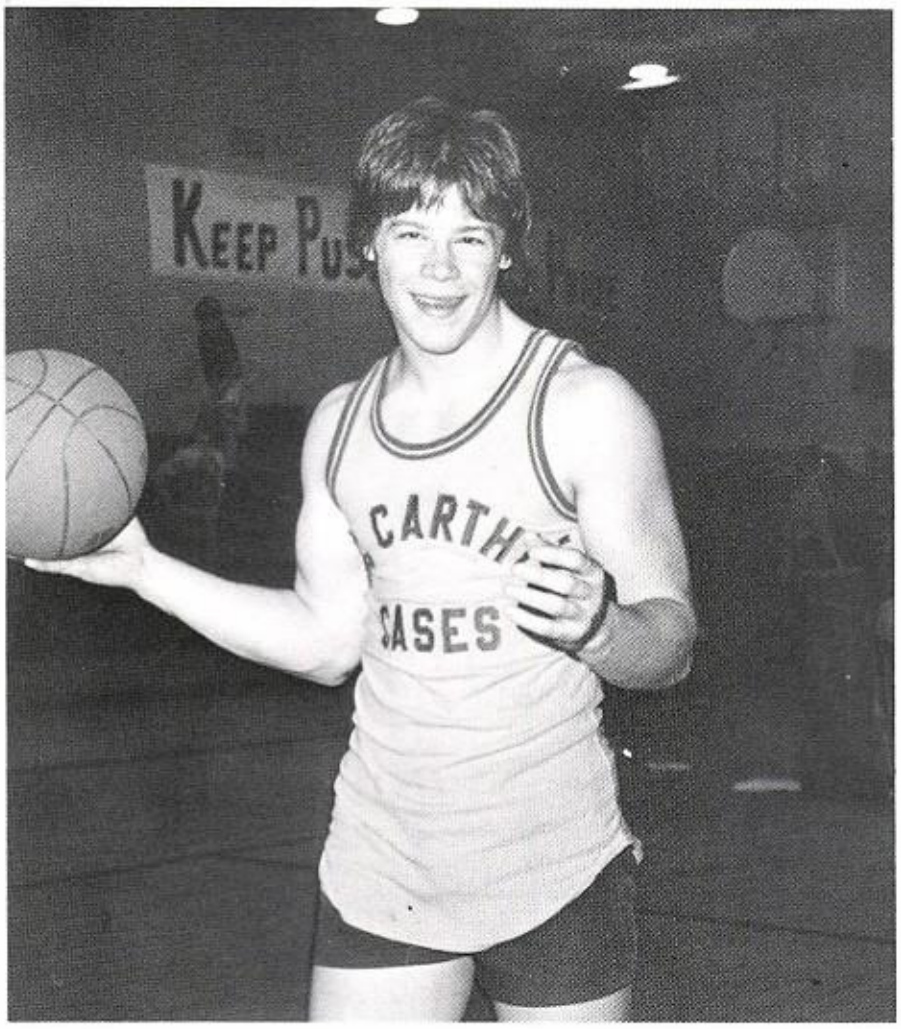
There are many kinds of sports that are not always in the competitive field. During Pride Week, the student council sponsored a 24 hour basketball dribble, which proved to our school that students still are interested in getting involved. Representatives of the different activity clubs in our school participated in this basketball dribble. There were other activities played during the night; a volleyball game between the classes and a water polo game in the pool. The Ski Club of our school took a weekend ski trip to Collingwood, Canada. These students took lessons during the day and most skied til night.



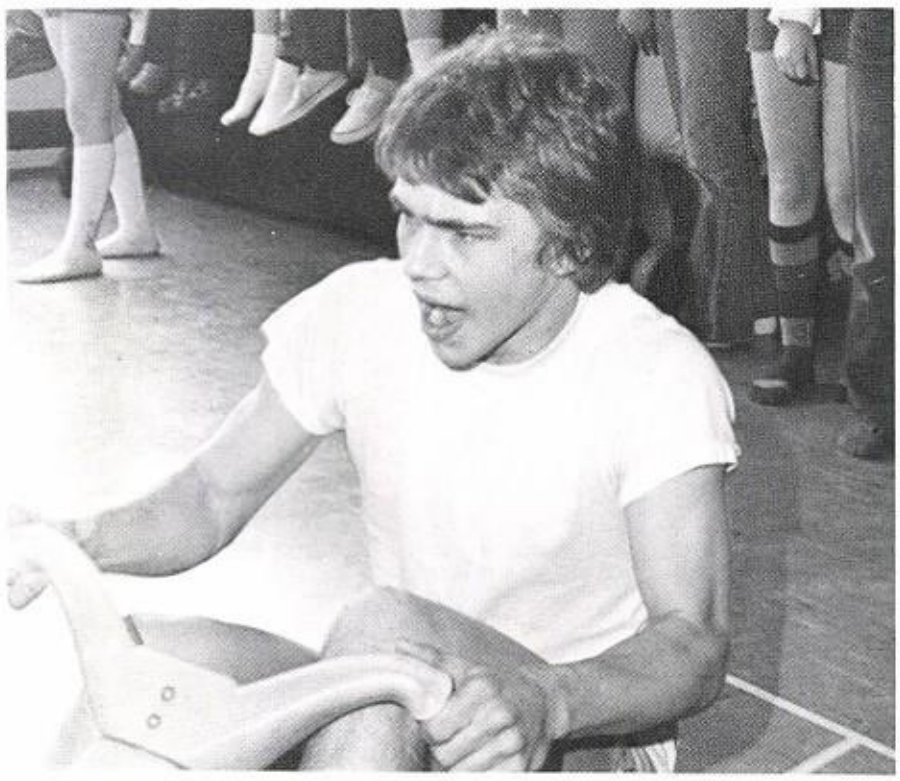
MARK BURDICK and FRANK PRICE, members of the Varsity Club, take their turn dribbling the basketball.



Representative of the Community Service Club, Mary Korte, portrays her grace and balance on the beam.

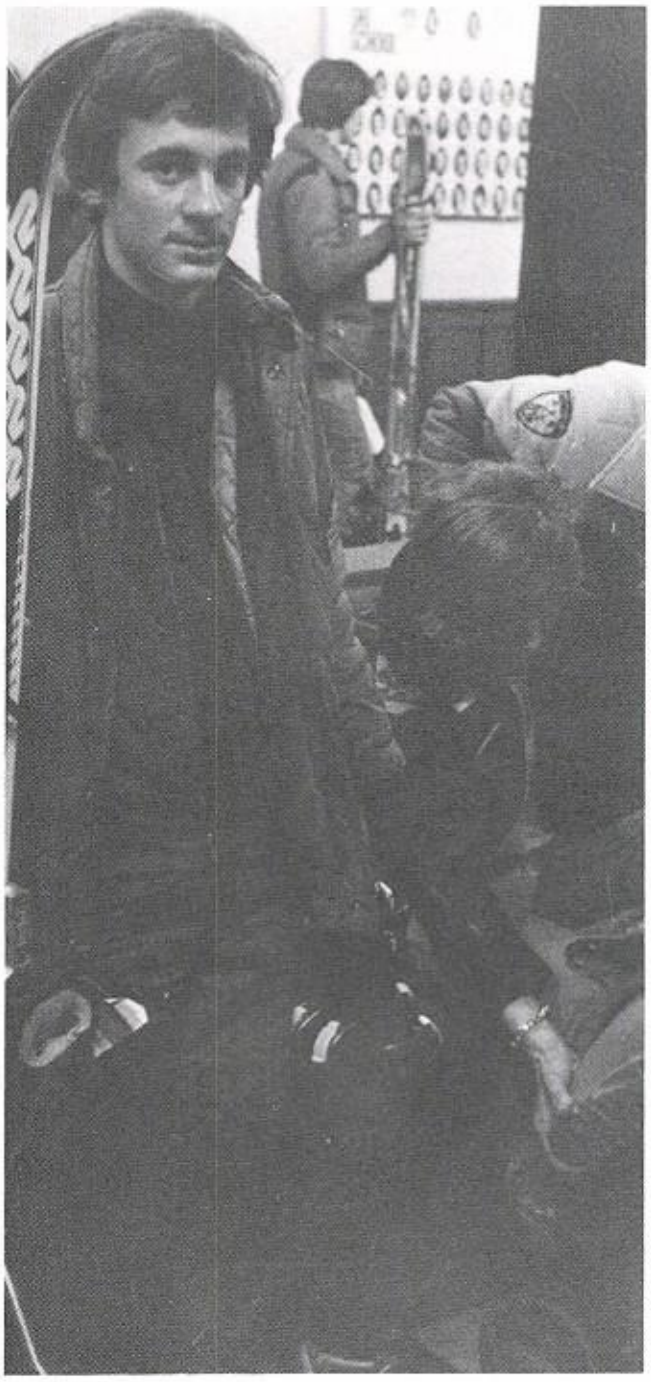


Sweating up a storm is Greg Salata, just after catching another rebound.



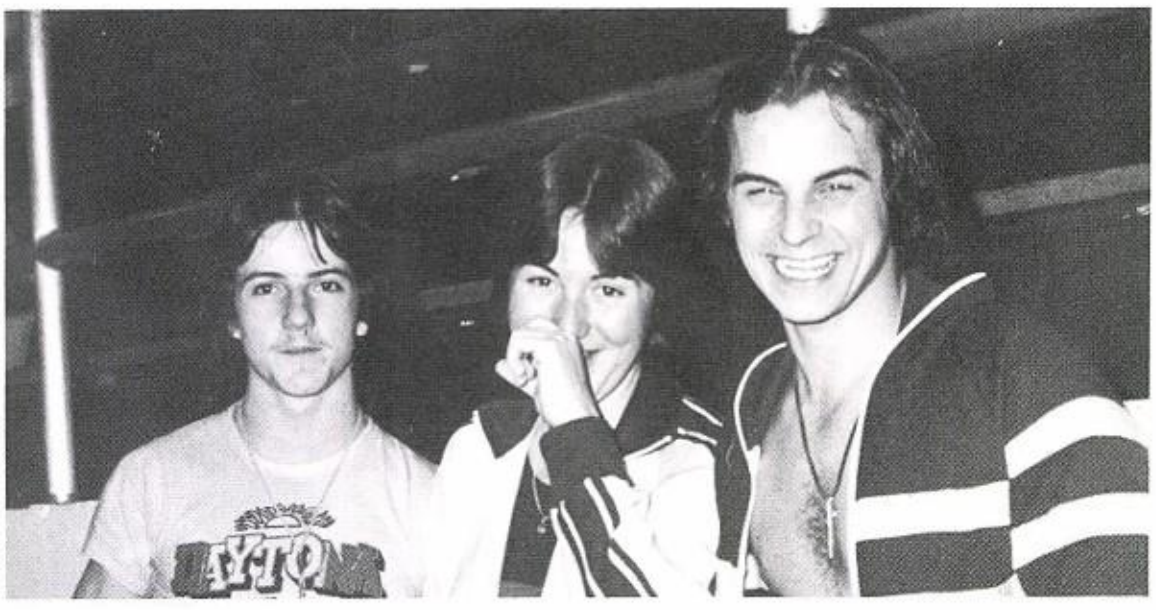
President of the Student Council, Kevin Sullivan, reinacts his childhood.

Pride By Getting Involved!



DARRYL PRIBIK waits anxiously for his friend before hitting the slopes.

Ski members wait patiently to board bus, so they can get started on the hills.



GARRY MILLER, DINA ZANNESE, BILL COTE enjoy being lifeguards at the pool during the basketball dribble.

Students get restless while on the bus to Blue Mountain.

Students view the snow covered slopes while riding the chair lift up the hill to the top.

PROMISE FOR

TOMORROW!

Congratulations to the Seniors of the National Honor Society for one of the best years yet in demonstrating the merits of an organization whose ideals include leadership, scholarship, character, and service. The Seniors, under the leadership of Mike Villar, provided outstanding Executive Board direction which guided the organization in many school and community service projects such as the second Senior Citizen's Night at Annapolis, Christmas parties for convalescent home patients, scholarships to deserving seniors and other similar projects throughout the year. Most of all, Senior members demonstrate that young people really do care.

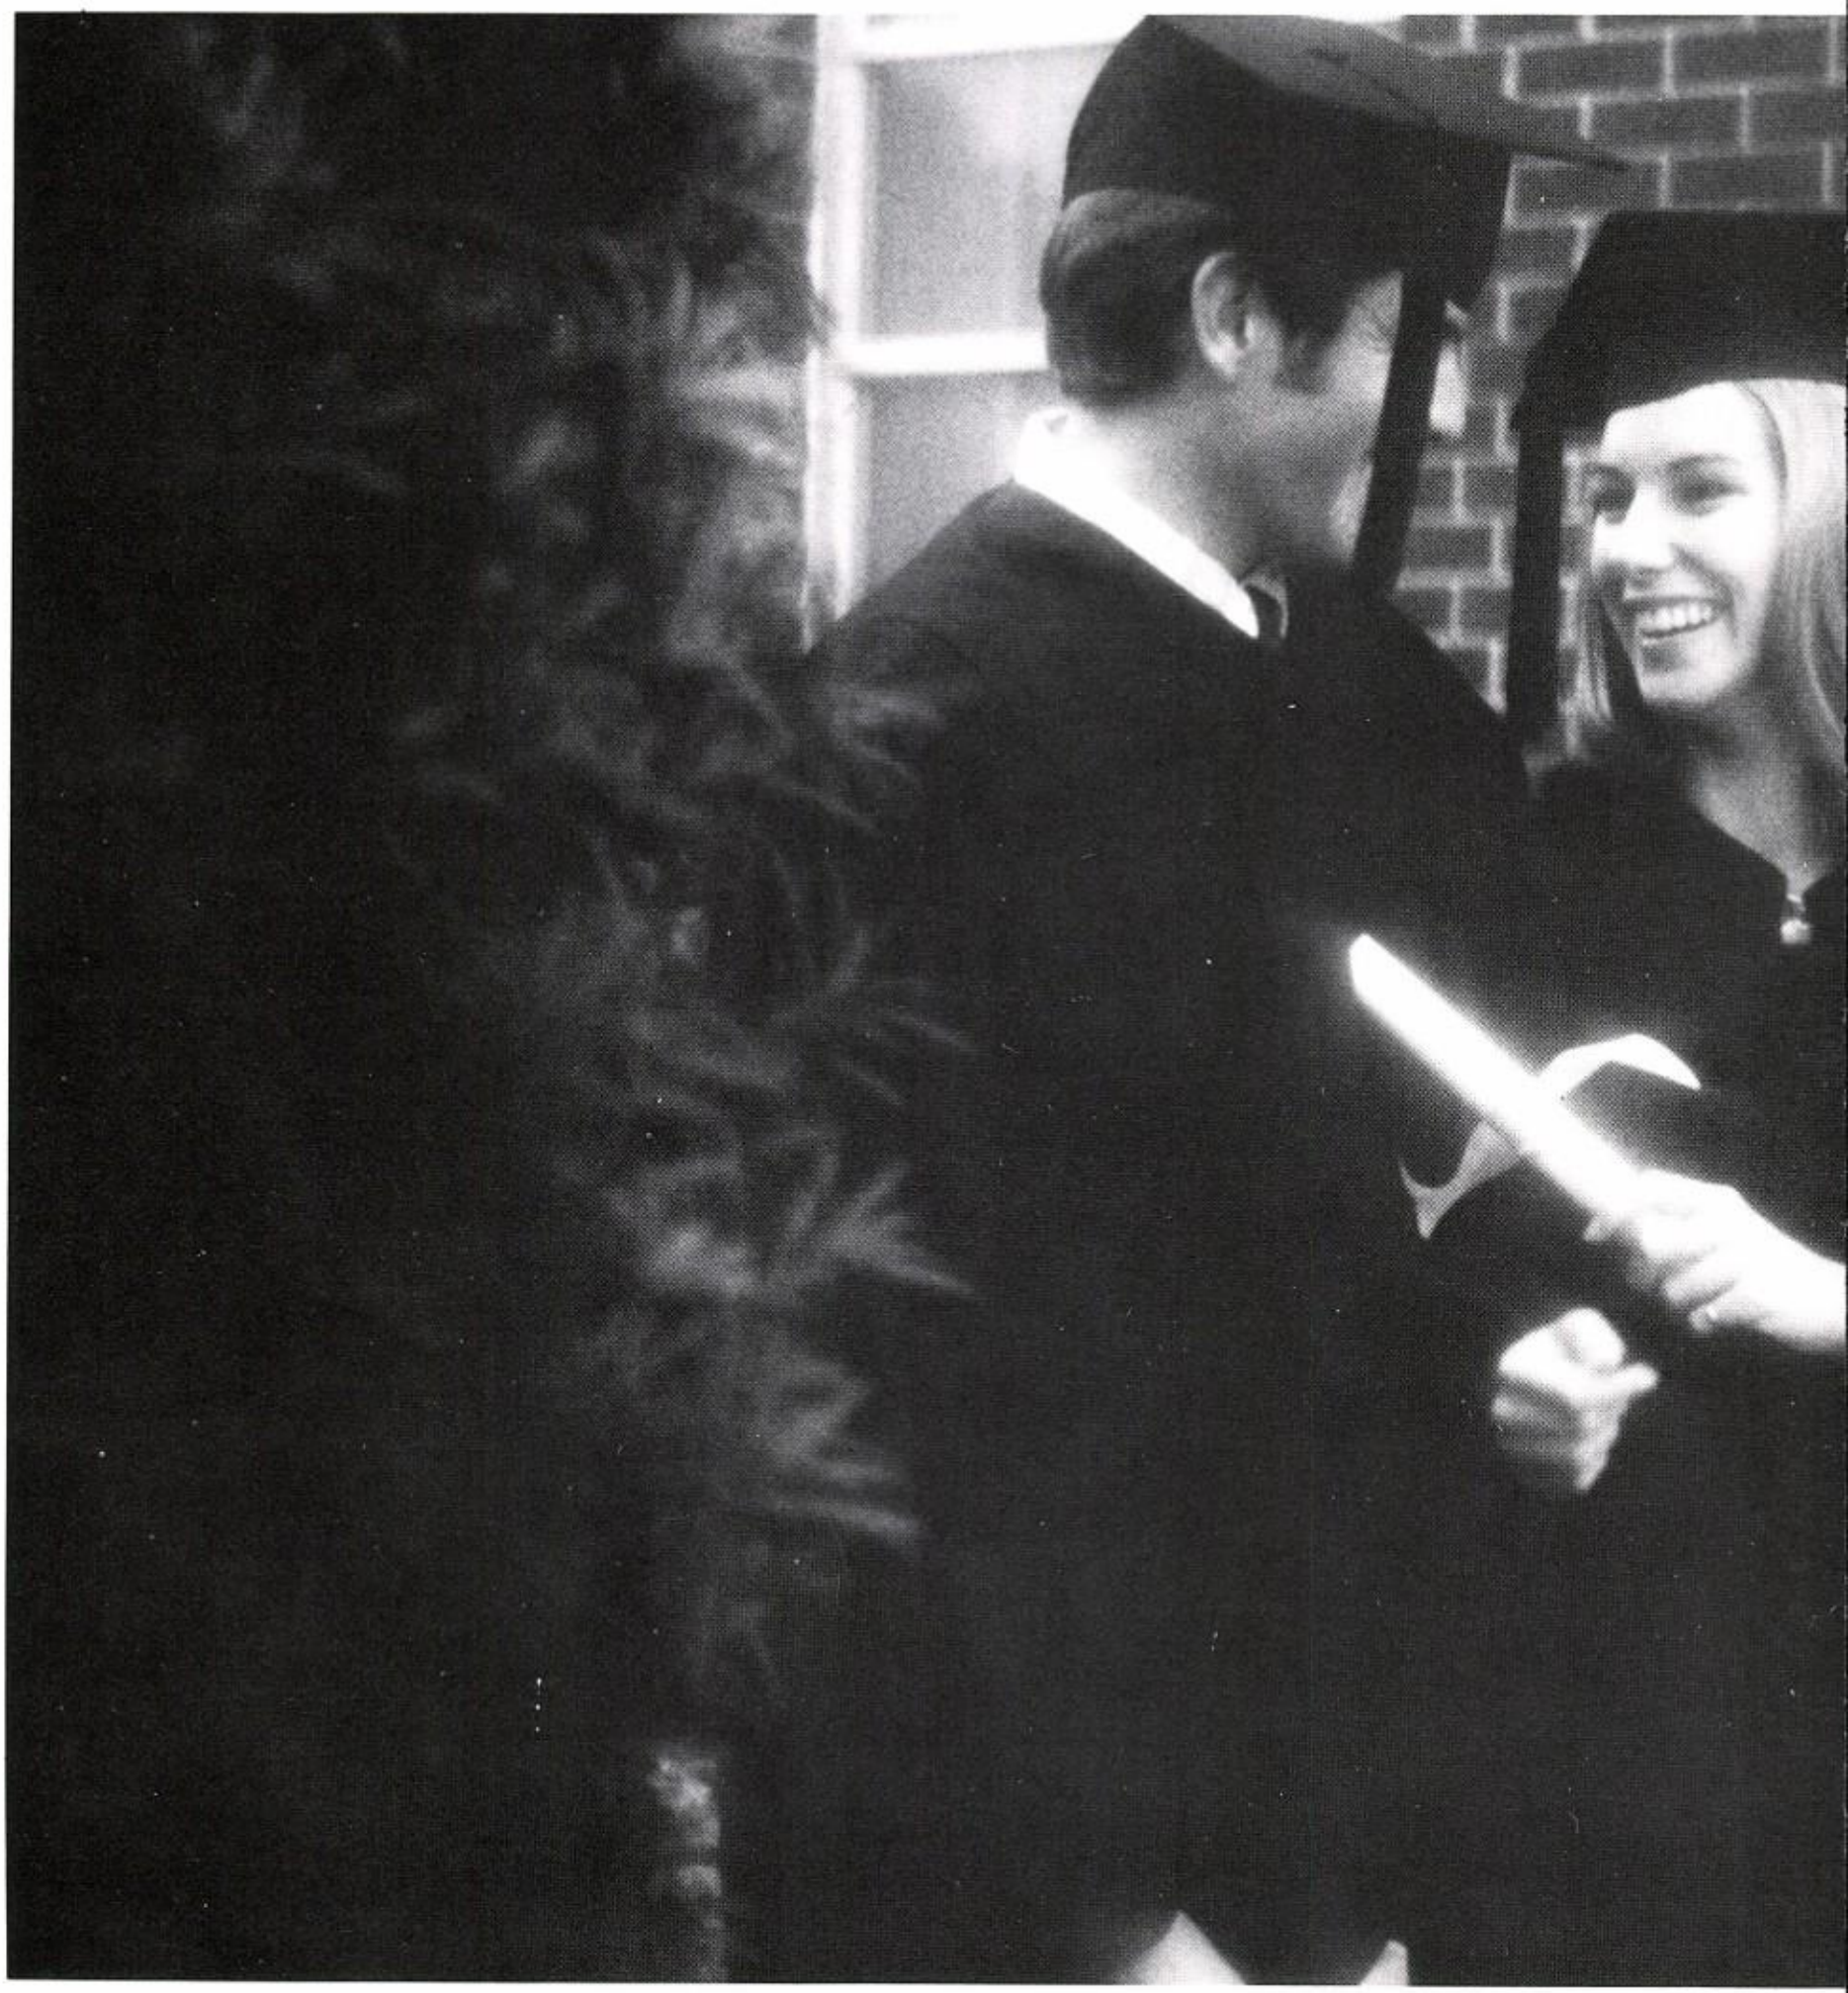
FAC



NG GRADUATION

Faces of old and faces of new,
People we know and people we knew.
Growing together then drifting apart,
Always an ending and now a new start.
At graduation we all grow nearer
And all of our friends seem so much dearer.
And as we say our final goodbye,
One last embrace and one more cry,
A 'keep in touch' and a 'promise I will',
A 'remember when' but, better still,
A place in my heart, you'll always stay;
This is what is said when we go our own way.
- Diane Tue

Sam, to a crazy and bromb chic I met this year. You're a really bomb person and I hope you get all you want out of life. Keep partyin' & don't change. Keep up the rèmarkè!
I hope that after you're out you'll keep in touch - but if not - don't forget me, later,
love
Diana

Pam,
Remember all the times we had back
In Jr. High all the fights too, I'm glad
We got along better in High School. Good Luck with everything and keep in Touch Over the Summer. Love ya

Pam, I have to say your a pretty goofy person, But its for the best. your always making me laugh. We should get together and Party. You & Jack are always manipulating each other.
Keep in touch during the summer.
Be careful and good this summer
"78" love Lori

Pam, to a really cool Chick, I hope to see alot in the future, we have to do some Partying this summer. Wish I was walking across the stage with you. Love always
